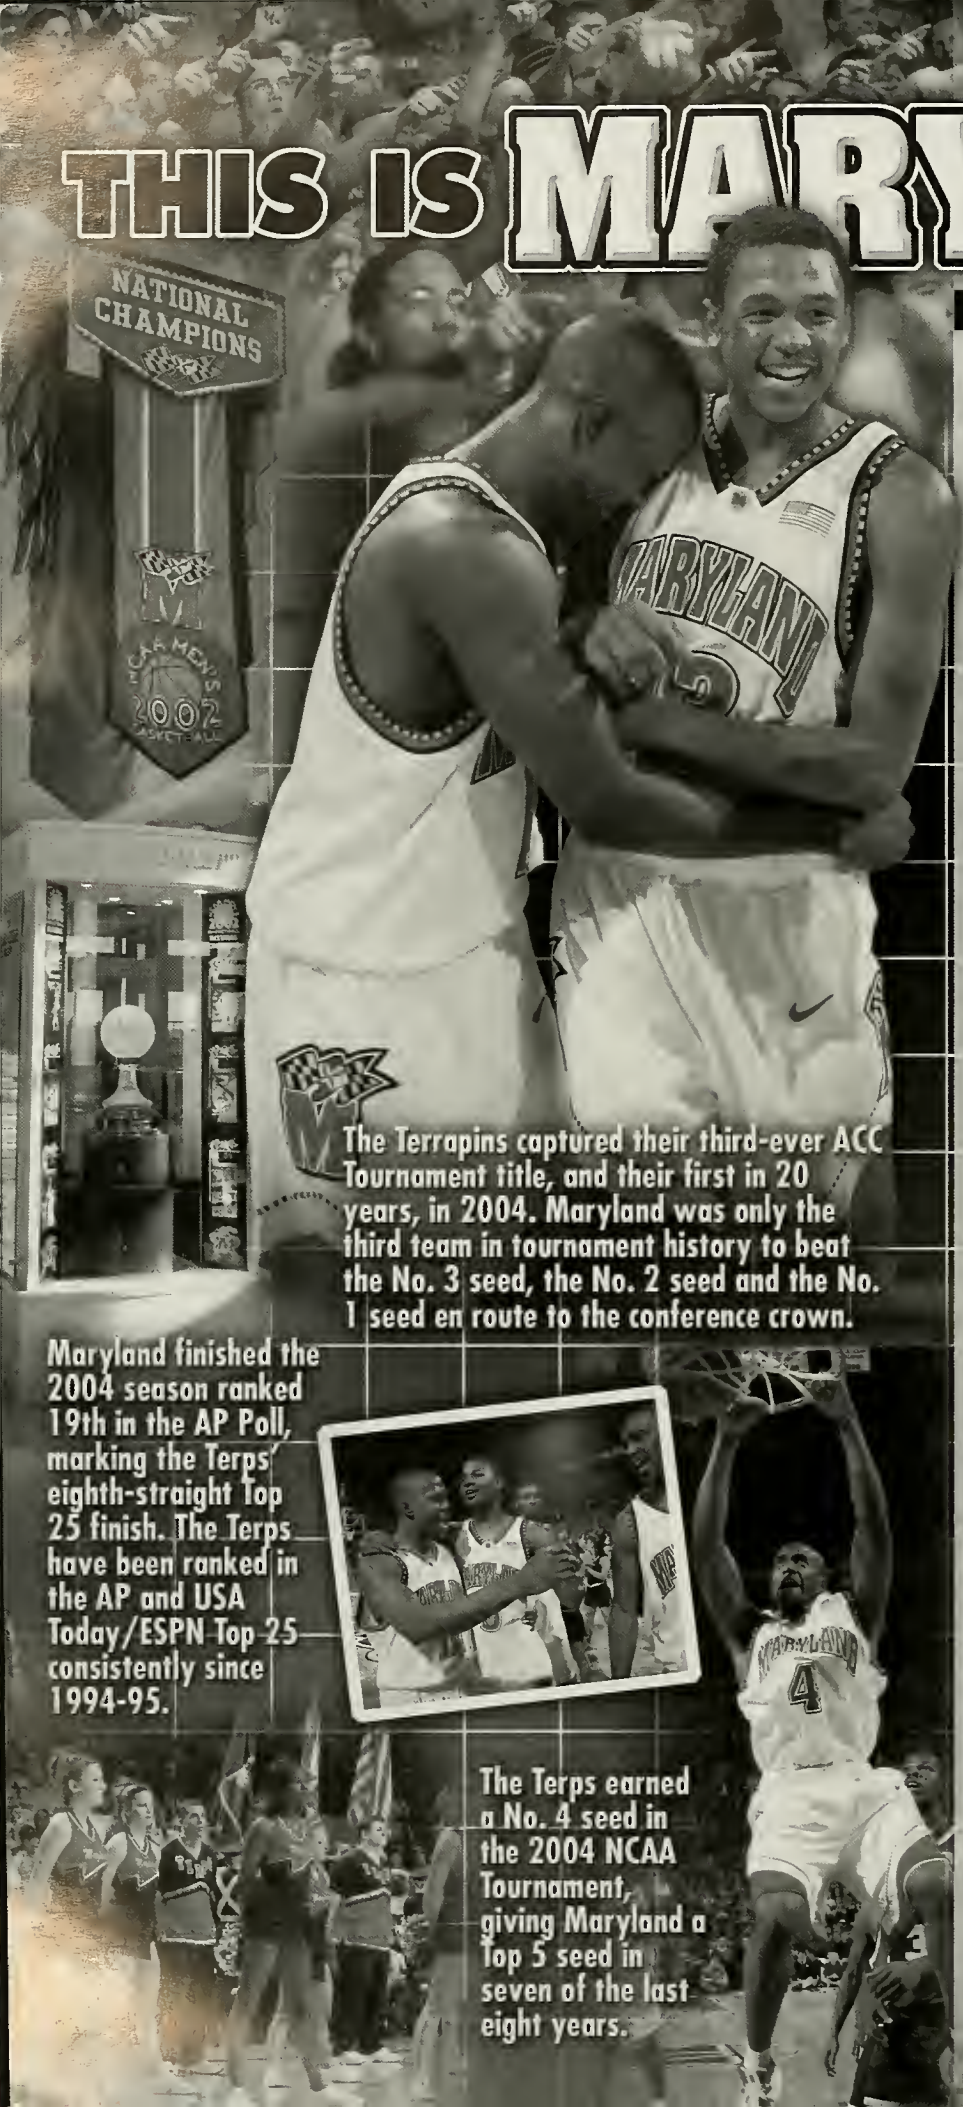
THIS IS MARYLAND



The Terrapins captured their third-ever ACC Tournament title, and their first in 20 years, in 2004. Maryland was only the third team in tournament history to beat the No. 3 seed, the No. 2 seed and the No. 1 seed en route to the conference crown.

Maryland finished the 2004 season ranked 19th in the AP Poll, marking the Terps' eighth-straight Top 25 finish. The Terps have been ranked in the AP and USA Today/ESPN Top 25 consistently since 1994-95.

The Terps earned a No. 4 seed in the 2004 NCAA Tournament, giving Maryland a Top 5 seed in seven of the last eight years.

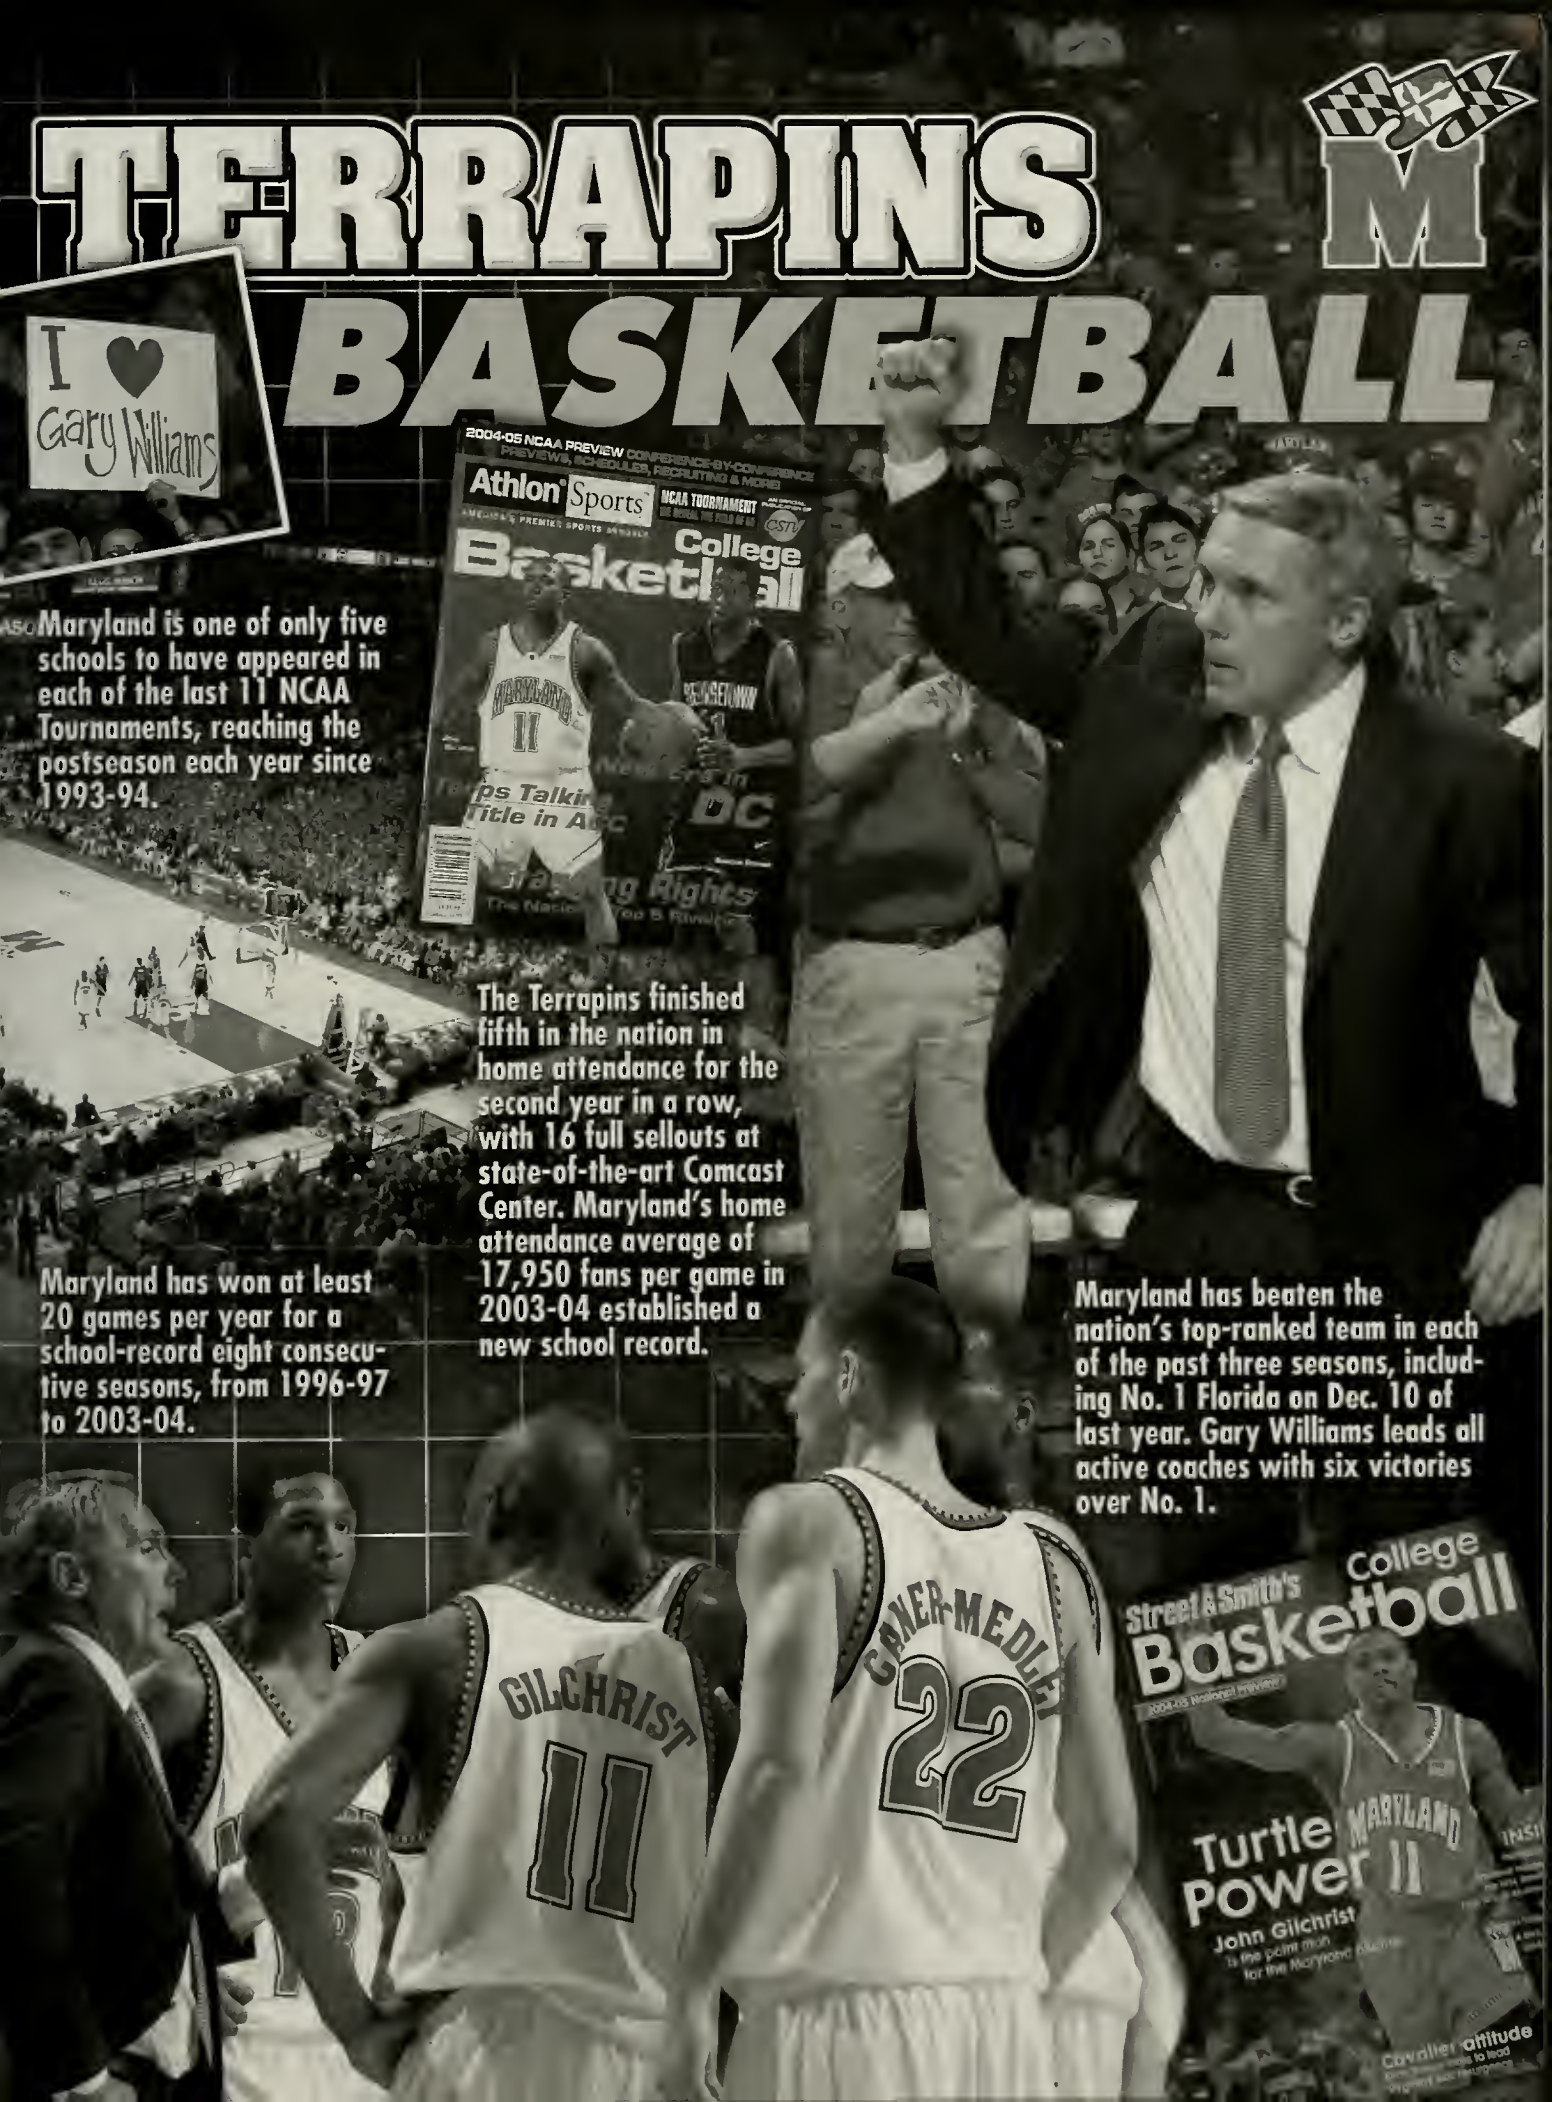
TERRAPINS BASKETBALL



Maryland is one of only five schools to have appeared in each of the last 11 NCAA Tournaments, reaching the postseason each year since 1993-94.

The Terrapins finished fifth in the nation in home attendance for the second year in a row, with 16 full sellouts at state-of-the-art Comcast Center. Maryland's home attendance average of 17,950 fans per game in 2003-04 established a new school record.

Maryland has won at least 20 games per year for a school-record eight consecutive seasons, from 1996-97 to 2003-04.

Maryland has beaten the nation's top-ranked team in each of the past three seasons, including No. 1 Florida on Dec. 10 of last year. Gary Williams leads all active coaches with six victories over No. 1.

comcast center®

Maryland's new home for Terrapin Athletics was completed in the fall of 2002, and has already provided two seasons of toppled attendance records and memories on the hardwood. Comcast Center provides a seating capacity of 17,950 fans for basketball, and serves as a campus site for university special events and select community events.

The Terrapins' first public basketball event was its 2002 Midnight Madness celebration, which has grown to one of the premiere student events of the academic year. In its first season, 281,057 fans were on hand to witness Terrapin basketball games for a per-game average of 17,566 as the Terrapins finished fifth in the nation. The Terps went on to finish fifth in the nation once again in 2003-04, with a school-record 287,200 spectators packing the arena for 16 full sellouts and a capacity per-game average of 17,950.

The honored jersey numbers of 15 of the greatest men's basketball players in school history, as well as banners commemorating the 2002 national championship and the 2002 National Coach of the Year Gary Williams, hang high above the court in Comcast Center's rafters. The 2004 ACC Tournament Championship banner will be added this season.

Twenty suites provide enhanced viewing and entertainment capabilities for Maryland fans. Maryland's student section, affectionately known as "GARYLAND," accommodates 4,000 of the Terps' perennial ardent supporters. Students fill the first 10 rows that ring the arena floor and a majority of seats on the arena's west wall – which at an intimidating 35 degree incline provides the Terrapins' with a unique home court advantage.

Comcast Center houses the university's athletics administration offices and includes a 7,000-square-foot Academic Support Center, providing an enhanced study atmosphere for the school's near-750 student-athletes on 27 teams. An additional 1,500-seat gymnasium serves as home to the Terps' volleyball, gymnastics and wrestling teams, and Nextel Heritage Hall multi-purpose room is equipped to host banquets, press conferences, meetings and serve as a pre-game restaurant suite overlooking the competition arena.

Comcast Center is an excellent place for alumni and fans to enjoy their favorite sports and share in their common Terrapin spirit. Visitors can learn about the men and women who have forged the Maryland Athletics program among the nation's elite as they stroll through the Terrapin Walk of Fame and History. The Terrapin Team Store, located just off the soaring three-level atrium lobby, allows visitors to outfit their pride. Maryland has once again reclaimed the status of having the best student activities center and basketball arena in the country.

Men's and women's basketball locker rooms are decked with individual lockers, a meeting room, a team lounge, coaches locker rooms and adjoining training facilities.

Gritty Terps claim 1st NCAA title

By Don Markus

ATLANTA — The dark cloud that has hovered over the University of Maryland basketball program for most of the past two decades, in one way or another, finally disappeared last night. Maybe forever.

With a gritty 64-52 victory over Indiana at the Georgia Dome, the Terrapins completed their amazing run in the NCAA tournament to win the first national championship in the program's long and bumpy history.

Led by former Calvert Hall star Juan Dixon, who scored a game-high 18 points, Maryland (32-4) pulled away from a cranky team of Hoosiers in the final two minutes.

The victory was the sweetest ever for Maryland coach Gary Williams, who heard chants of "Gary, Gary" from the Terrapins' fans when he walked onto the court after the game.

2002 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

NCAA Final Four MVP Juan Dixon had 155 points in the 2002 tourney, the ninth-highest figure in tournament history. His five steals against Indiana were the most in a title game since 1990.

The Terps' 32 victories broke the Maryland record for wins in a season. The Terps became the 15th team in ACC history to win 30 games.

Maryland's Baxter & Dixon duo is the highest-scoring tandem (4,127 points) in NCAA history to win a national championship. They are the 12th-highest scoring duo of all time.

TRADITION

Maryland's ACC Tournament title was the third in school history (1958, 1984, 2004) and the first for the Terps in 20 years.

2004 ACC CHAMPIONS

ACC CHAMPIONS
87	No. 3 WAKE FOREST	86

Then-sophomore John Gilchrist averaged 24.0 points, 6.3 assists and 5.3 rebounds per game en route to Tournament MVP honors.

Maryland was only the third team in tournament history to beat the No. 3 seed, the No. 2 seed and the No. 1 seed en route to the conference crown.

The Terps overcame a 21-point first-half deficit to defeat NC State in the ACC Semifinal Round, marking the greatest comeback in the tournament's 51-year history.

The Terrapins, statistically the youngest team in college basketball in 2004, captured the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament title in a season where the ACC was rated the toughest conference in the nation.

BASKETBALL FAMILY

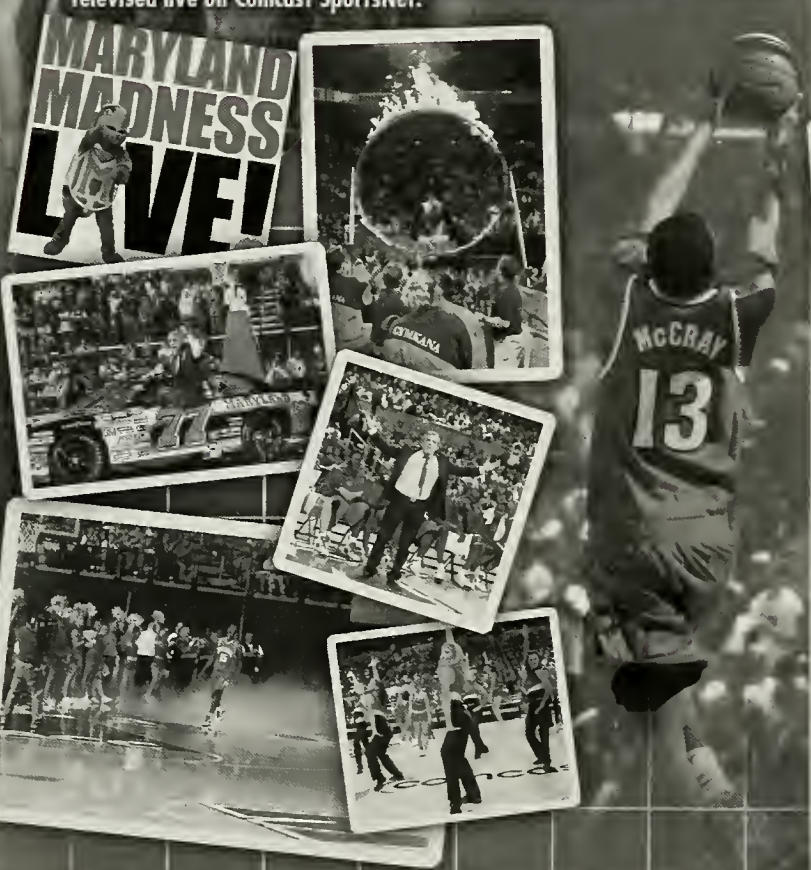
MARYLAND MADNESS

The Midnight Madness tradition that Charles "Lefty" Driesell started in College Park in 1971 continues nationally today, and arguably, nobody does it better than the University of Maryland.

Perennially one of the Athletics Department's most popular events, Maryland Madness always features a music and laser light show and performances by the Terrapin Spirit Squad, the Gymnkaka Troupe and the dance team. More than 15,000 screaming fans have turned out annually to the event to catch a sneak preview of the Terps during their annual intrasquad scrimmage.

Head coach Gary Williams has made his spectacular Midnight Madness entrance a tradition. He rode out onto the court on a Harley-Davidson motorcycle in 2003, and drove Donnie Neuenberger's "Fear the Turtle" NASCAR onto the floor in 2004.

A Gary Williams Look-Alike Contest debuted in 2004, which was a fan-favorite during the evening's program. Maryland Madness 2004 was televised live on Comcast SportsNet.



BASKETBALL ALUMNI

Former men's basketball players are among the most devoted followers of the Maryland team, and continue their involvement each year through various events, including an annual alumni game during Midnight Madness festivities and an alumni golf outing with Gary Williams.

BASKETBALL TRAVEL

The Maryland basketball team flies charter airplanes to nearly every game on its schedule. Pictured is a 50-passenger aircraft which transports the Terps from city to city throughout the season. This regional jet features two-by-two seating with no middle seats, and is the quietest flying jet in the world. It can cruise at 530 mph and up to 41,000 feet.

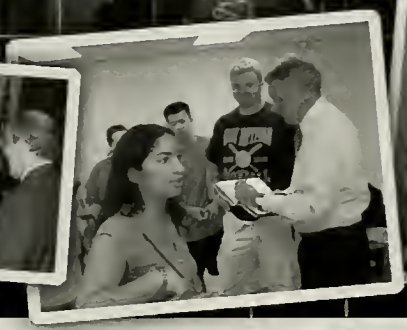
Charter flights make getting to, and coming back from, any destination easy and comfortable. This type of travel allows the Terps to be on campus and in class as soon as possible following road games, and overnight stays are minimized. The convenience and comfort of charter airplane travel allows for convenient, efficient, frequent service as well as maximized practice and study time.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Terrapins and head coach Gary Williams are active members of the University of Maryland and greater Baltimore-Washington, D.C., community. The men's basketball team is involved in extensive charity, fund-raising and public speaking events throughout the year, particularly in the offseason.

In September of 2004, University President C.D. Mote Jr. announced that Williams will co-chair the scholarship component of Maryland's upcoming $200 million fund-raising campaign. Earlier in the year, Williams served as the commencement speaker at the graduation proceedings for the Robert H. Smith School of Business. He has been heavily involved in the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer efforts, a program that is a partnership between the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the American Cancer Society. Williams has also worked with Maryland grad Boomer Esiason and others to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, hosting charity basketball games and golf events. For the past two years, he has served as the honorary chairman for the Walk Far for N.A.A.R., which has raised more than one million dollars for the National Alliance of Autism Research. He has also chaired the Salvation Army's FORE Kids golf tournament in 2003 and 2004, which raises proceeds for Washington, D.C.'s youth.

In the fall of 2004, Terrapin players and coaches joined with members of the Greek community in raising $21,000 for Ronald McDonald House Charities as they took part in the Hoops For Kids event at Ritchie Coliseum.



COMMITMENT TO EDUCATION

The 2004-05 year promises to be one of great academic success for the Maryland basketball team. Both of Maryland's seniors, Mike Grinnon and Darien Henry, are on track to graduate in the spring. Grinnon and sophomore Will Bowers were recently honored for grade-point-averages above a 3.0 and sophomore Ekene Ibekwe has been named the 2004-05 recipient of the LeFrak Scholarship Award. The scholarship represents an endowment established by the Samuel J. and Ethel LeFrak Foundation, and is awarded annually to three Maryland student-athletes who exhibit extraordinary athletic, leadership and scholarship abilities.

Many former Terps continue to work toward their degrees while continuing to pursue professional basketball opportunities. Tahj Holden and Drew Nicholas were amongst many former Maryland players in College Park over the summer working to earn their degrees. Keith Booth, a four-year starter and 1997 All-American selection, graduated in 2003 after pursuing a professional basketball career that included winning the NBA championship in 1998, and is now one of Gary Williams' new assistant coaches. Former Terps Calvin McCall, Laron Profit and Terrell Stokes are all among recent men's basketball players to earn degrees from the University of Maryland.

Maryland student-athletes all work toward completion of their college degrees with the assistance of academic counselor Hajj Turner and the Academic Support and Career Development Unit.

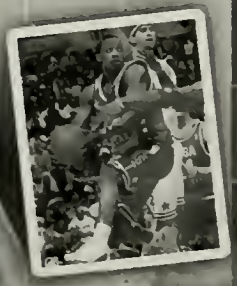
NBA SUPERSTAR STEVE FRANCIS

One of Terrapin basketball's most prominent alumni superstars in recent years, two-time NBA All-Star Steve Francis remains very close to Maryland's campus in the offseason. Francis, an All-American with the Terps in 1999 and the NBA Co-Rookie of the Year in 2000, maintains close ties with the Terrapin program and can be found in and around College Park during the summer playing pick-up, making public appearances, or in some cases, helping students in need.

Some of Maryland's students were temporarily without a home following a tornado in the fall of 2001 that swept through campus, but Francis was on hand to help. The NBA superstar did his part to aid in local relief efforts by offering a free meal to the near-700 students who reside in the University Courtyard apartments, which had been rendered unsafe after the disaster. Nearly 110 students got word of Francis' dinner and were in attendance at the UM Golf Course banquet facility. Francis joined the group for dinner, remarking to the group that he remembered people supporting him while he was a Maryland student and it was a small way that he could give back to those who helped him.



THE POWER OF

ACC AND THE RPI REPORT

The ACC was the nation's top-rated conference in the final RPI Report in 2003-04 with the highest rating ever accorded a conference.

The ACC has been the top rated conference in four of the past nine years according to the RPI Report, and in the Top 3 nationally since 1996. In addition to 2004, the ACC rated first for three consecutive seasons (1996-98) and ranked second in 1999, third in 2000, second in 2002 and third once again in 2003.

ACC NO. 1 IN THE ASSOCIATED PRESS POLL

There have been 872 Associated Press polls since the first on Jan. 20, 1949. The ACC, despite perennially having the country's smallest membership total, is the most ranked conference in the nation with 2,569 listings.

AP POLL REFLECTS ACC STRENGTH

Over the last six seasons, the ACC is the only conference in the nation to have each of its teams ranked at least once in the weekly Associated Press poll. ACC teams ranked since 1998: Duke (130), Maryland (106), North Carolina (90), Wake Forest (72), Virginia (35), Georgia Tech (18), Clemson (17), NC State (12) and Florida State (8).

With Maryland's No. 1 ranking in the final USA Today/ESPN poll in 2002, the ACC became the first conference in history to have two different teams finish the season ranked No. 1 in the two major polls. Duke finished the season as the top-ranked team in the Associated Press poll and helped the ACC become the first league in NCAA history to finish No. 1 in the final AP poll in consecutive seasons.

ACC UNPRECEDENTED IN THE ASSOCIATED PRESS POLL

The ACC became the first conference in history to have seven teams ranked in the Associated Press poll during two consecutive weeks during the 1997-98 season. Maryland, North Carolina, Duke, Florida State, Clemson, Wake Forest and Georgia Tech were each ranked in the AP polls of Dec. 1 and 8.

The ACC reached unprecedented success in the AP poll in 2000-01, with five different teams ranked in the Top 25 from start-to-finish: Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, Virginia and Wake Forest.

The ACC has had at least three teams ranked in the final AP poll in 22 of the last 25 years, including a national-most six teams in 2003.

ACC IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

In terms of success, the ACC is unrivaled in the history of the NCAA Tournament. The league teams have made the ACC the winningest conference all-time in NCAA Tournament play, with a cumulative record of 298-145 (.673).

■ The ACC had two teams in the Final Four for the second time in four years and the fifth time overall. Maryland and Duke represented the conference in 2001, while Duke and Georgia Tech appeared together in 2004.

■ Over the last 16 years, ACC teams have made more Final Four appearances than any other conference. Since 1988, the ACC has 19 Final Four appearances while the Big Ten is second at 12.

■ Since the NCAA Tournament expanded to 64 teams in 1985, the ACC has the most NCAA Tournament wins (203), the best winning percentage (.679), the most "Sweet 16" appearances (56), the most regional final appearances (31) and the most Final Four teams (20).

■ In the 20 years of the 64-team NCAA field, the ACC has produced 20 Final Four teams, an average of one per year. The Big Ten is second with 13 Final Four teams.

■ In 2004, the ACC was the first conference in NCAA Tournament history to have five teams – Duke (#1), Georgia Tech (#3), NC State (#3), Maryland (#4), Wake Forest (#4) – seeded fourth or higher.

■ The ACC has had 10 or more NCAA Tournament wins in three of the last five years and 13 times overall.

■ Over the last four years, the ACC is 40-18 (.690) in NCAA Tournament play. The Big East is second at 35-19 (.648).

ACC Television

■ A record-setting 261 television appearances involving Atlantic Coast Conference teams headline the league's 2004-05 basketball schedule. The schedule also boasts an all-time high 172 televised games involving ACC teams and marks the 10th-straight year that the league has had more than 200 television appearances.

■ ACC teams will make 132 appearances on national television networks, including 50 appearances on ESPN, 34 on FSN, 29 on espn2, 10 on ABC and nine on CBS.

■ Eighty of the league's 88 regular season conference games, including 36 on national television networks, are scheduled to be televised. The league's four-day, 10-game ACC Tournament to be held at the MCI Center in Washington, D.C., (March 10-13) is also slated to be broadcast by Raycom/Jefferson-Pilot, ESPN and ESPN2.

■ FOX Sports Net will televise 20 Sunday afternoon and evening games on a national basis starting with the Southern California at North Carolina game on November 28. Fourteen of the 20 Sunday games are conference match-ups.

■ Headlining the non-conference schedule is the sixth annual ACC-Big 10 Challenge, pairing two of the nation's premier conferences in a regular season challenge series which airs on ESPN and ESPN2. In 2003 the ACC won the Challenge for the fifth-straight time winning seven of the nine games played.

■ In 1998-99, the ACC become the first conference in collegiate basketball history to have its entire conference game package televised either regionally or nationally.

NO BETTER PL

There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park. With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population, and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are more than 100 majors and some of the highest ranked programs in the country. As of 2004, 67 undergraduate and graduate programs rank among the top 25 nationally for their academic quality. For instance, in the latest U.S. News & World Report undergraduate rankings, the University of Maryland's business school was rated 18th nationally, while the engineering school was ranked 24th. In graduate school rankings, the A. James Clark School of Engineering, the School of Public Affairs, the College of Behavioral and Social Sciences, the College of Computer, Mathematical and Physical Sciences and the College of Education all recently ranked in the top 25, according to U.S. News & World Report.

High-tech, engineering, and service industries thrive in close proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internships, work-study opportunities and career choices for students. And, the campus is surrounded by the dynamic cultural opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small-town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities.

There truly is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

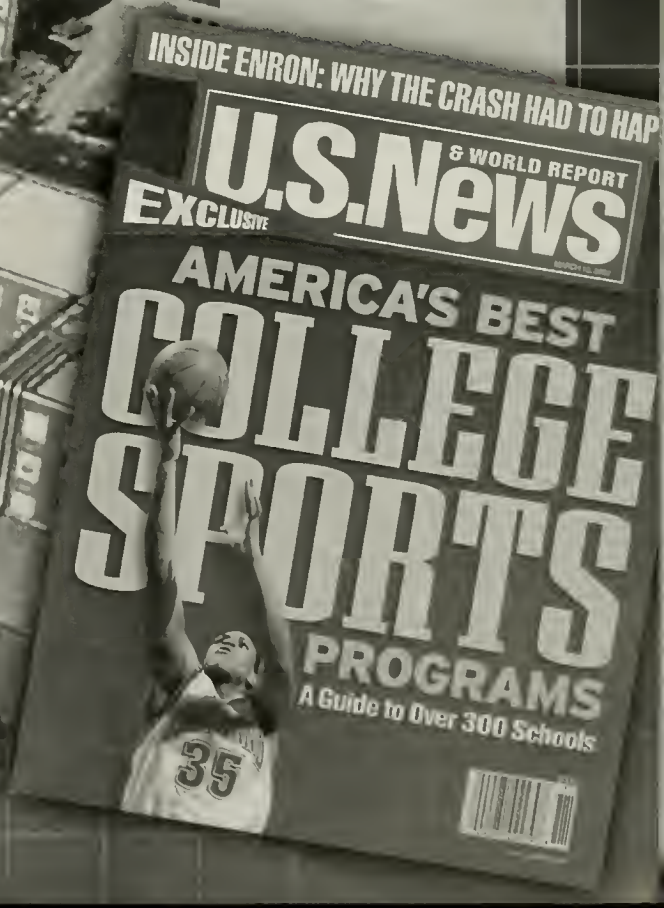
U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT GIVES TERP ATHLETICS HIGH MARKS

In its first-ever ranking of intercollegiate athletic programs, U.S. News & World Report named the University of Maryland's athletic program to its Top 20 Honor Roll recently. The Honor Roll was compiled based on an evaluation of data from all 321 NCAA Division I institutions for the 2000-2001 academic year.

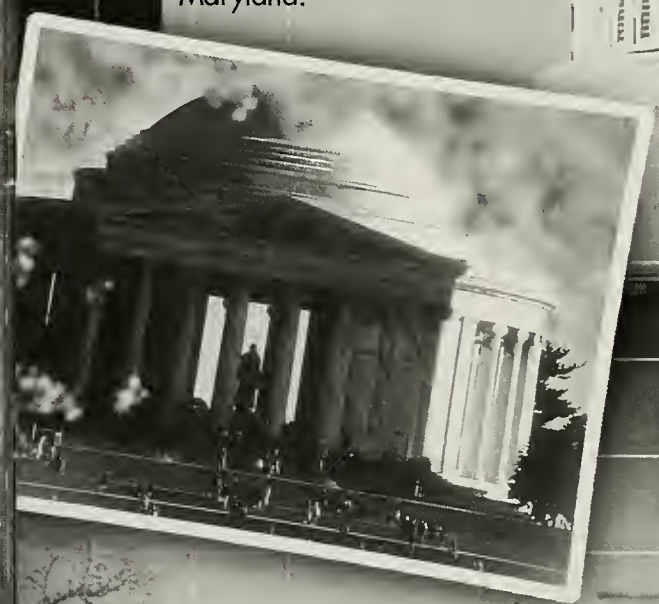
The Honor Roll recognizes institutions that did well across several categories, including NCAA compliance, commitment to gender equity, overall win-loss records, total number of sports offered and graduation rates.



SO MUCH...SO

BALTIMORE • WASHINGTON, D.C. • ANNAPOLIS

City lights, history, sparkling waterfronts, monumental landscapes. Jazz, film festivals, marches and demonstrations. Shopping, professional sports, regattas on the Chesapeake Bay. Not just one city, but three. Not just any city, but the nation's capital, a major port city, and the state capital of Maryland.



CLOSE!

WASHINGTON, D.C.
The nation's capital and its major attractions are within 10 miles of Comcast Center. And the highly efficient Metro rail system, with a station at the campus doorstep, makes navigating the greater Washington, D.C., area easy. Campus shuttle buses serve the College Park Metro station, allowing easy access to one of the country's model transportation systems.

BALTIMORE
The 12th largest city in the United States is often referred to as the "Charm City." Located just 35 miles north of the University of Maryland, its rejuvenation as an urban center is unprecedented. The Inner Harbor, its National Aquarium and tall ships, and the nearby Oriole Park at Camden Yards create an exciting, vibrant holiday atmosphere in a city that boasts one of the world's great sea ports.

ANNAPOLIS
The state capital of Maryland lies just 30 miles east of the University of Maryland. Long called the "sailing capital of the United States," Annapolis is located at the mouth of the Severn River on the Chesapeake Bay. The historic downtown area is known for its wonderful eating and shopping opportunities. There are few places in the world that rival the Chesapeake Bay area for its appealing qualities.

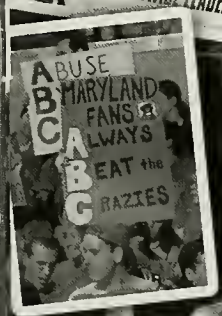
GAMEDAY AT MARYLAND

Maryland basketball games have become a loud and boisterous experience with capacity crowds since Gary Williams took over as head coach for the 1989-90 season. The Terrapins boast one of the most active and enthusiastic crowds in the country, which has helped carry the Maryland program to two Final Four appearances, the 2002 national championship, the 2004 ACC title and record-breaking attendance totals in 2003 and again in 2004 at Comcast Center.



The Terrapins' home attendance numbers ranked fifth in the nation in each of the last two seasons. After shattering all previous records in Comcast Center's first season with an overall attendance of 281,057 (average of 17,566), Maryland eclipsed that mark with 16 full sell-outs in 2003-04. The Terps' new record for overall attendance (287,200) and per game average (17,950) gave the Terps their second straight fifth-place national finish and a seventh consecutive Top 20 ranking.

After averaging 13,377 fans and ranking 20th in the country in 1998, the Terps set a then-school record with a 14,474 average in 1999 while ranking 15th nationally. In 2002, Cole Field House's final season, Maryland continued to draw capacity numbers by averaging 14,166 fans and ranking 17th. The Terps drew 14,058 fans and ranked 18th in 2001. Those totals were only eclipsed by the Terps' move to Comcast Center, which ranks as the second-largest on-campus arena in the ACC.

For the past five seasons, the Terps have set school records and ranked in the Top 10 nationally in overall attendance, home and away. Maryland has eclipsed its own overall record in four straight seasons, and played before at least 400,000 fans in six consecutive seasons.

Maryland's school-record home attendance average in 2004 included 16 regular season home games played before crowds that reached a capacity 17,950. Maryland played to 100 percent capacity for the entire season in the $125 million, 17,950-seat Comcast Center, after playing to 98 percent capacity in the arena's inaugural year.

Maryland has combined to fill its home arena to more than 95 percent capacity since the 1993-94 season.

Over 2.3 million people have watched men's basketball in College Park over the last 11 seasons as the Terps have forged one of the most consistent and animated home crowds in the nation. The Terps own a 140-22 home record (86.4 winning percentage) in the last 11 seasons with perfect marks in 2002 (15-0) and 1995 (16-0).

During Gary Williams' tenure as head coach, the Terps have achieved double-digit home victories in 14 out of 15 seasons.

ACC Champs Look For Continued Success In 2004-05

As the Maryland basketball team hoisted the 2004 ACC Championship trophy high overhead in the Greensboro Coliseum last March, all of Terrapin nation enjoyed the dividends of months of tremendous hard work, spirited determination and difficult lessons learned. The statistically youngest team in all of college basketball had captured the crown in the nation's most competitive conference, overcoming the inexperience of youth and beginning to tap into its seemingly limitless potential. The 2003-04 season was a wild ride filled with spirited comebacks and heartbreaking losses, unbelievable victories and agonizing defeats - and ultimately success.

In one weekend, the Terrapins transformed themselves from a squad teetering on the edge of the NCAA Tournament bubble into a No. 4 seed in the national tournament. Gary Williams' young group never quit as it forged through the nation's No. 2 rated schedule, facing what would be 16 ranked opponents as the season went on. The battle-tested Maryland team became only the third squad in the 51-year history of the Atlantic Coast Conference to defeat the top three seeds in the league's championship tournament, and captured the first ACC tourney title for the school since 1984. The Terps' 21-point comeback over No. 2 NC State in the semifinal round and Maryland's overtime encounter that topped No. 1 Duke in the championship game are already considered to be among the greatest games in ACC Tournament history. Terrapin point guard John Gilchrist, then a sophomore, took tournament MVP honors after engineering one of the standout ACC Tournament performances of all time.

From the stage in Greensboro, Williams and the Terrapins headed to Denver to make a school-record 11th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. A first round victory over UTEP gave the Terps their eighth straight 20-win season, also extending a Maryland school record. Consistent with their superlative effort all season long, the Terrapins nearly erased a 16-point deficit in the Second Round against defending national champion Syracuse. In a matchup of the 2002 and 2003 NCAA title winners, the determined Terps simply ran out of time - but once again exhibited the spirit and character that will be used to build toward success in 2004-05.

A new era in Maryland basketball history began with a bang in 2003-04, and Williams and the Terrapins are now ready to take the next step. Returning nearly the entire squad from their 2004 ACC Championship run, the Terps look to continue moving onward and upward as experience builds and the young team continues to develop. As a bonus, Williams and the Terrapins embarked on an extremely successful tour of Italy in August, giving the coaching staff an early preview and the chance to tinker with different lineups and combinations.

"If we continue from where we were, and start from where we ended up last season, we have a chance to be a good team," said Williams. "The players are working hard this offseason. We got to go to Italy this year, so we got a little preview before practice actually started, and hopefully we can figure out the best way to play. We have many players who did a good job for us last season."

John Gilchrist

Gary Williams

Williams and the Terrapin coaching staff have all the pieces in place, and used the trip to Italy to begin the season on the right foot, all while experiencing the culture of the old country. The Terrapins posted a 3-2 record on their summer tour, earning wins over two elite Italian squads and notching a landslide victory over world-renowned Kiev (Ukraine). The Terps' average margin of victory was +13.0 points per game on the tour, and the Terps averaged 98.6 points per outing.

In addition to floor general Gilchrist, the Terps return every piece of their deep and versatile backcourt. The frontcourt, loaded with size and potential, loses only Jamar Smith. Smith's inside scoring and rebounding presence will need to be replaced, but the Terps' list of qualified candidates is long.

Whatever combinations Williams and his staff elect to go with, one thing is certain - opponents can expect a battle every night, home or away. The determination and character of this Terrapin team has been proven time and again, and those intangibles could make the difference in an Atlantic Coast Conference that will be as competitive as ever.

BREAKDOWN: Guard

The Terrapin backcourt returns in its entirety for the 2004-05 campaign, looking to pick up where it left off last season. Maryland's guards are athletic and versatile, enabling Williams to throw many different looks at the opposition. The Terps have enough depth and talent to implement a two or three guard lineup on any given night.

After only one season as a starter, it is more than safe to say that Gilchrist has developed his own identity as the Terps' point guard. A third team All-ACC selection and the conference's fifth-leading assist man (5.0 assists per game), Gilchrist proved himself not only as a playmaker, but emerged as the Terps' top scorer (15.4 points per game) and one of the league's toughest defenders (1.8 steals per game). Gilchrist's inspired ACC Tournament effort included a 24.0 points per game scoring average, 6.3 assists, 5.3 rebounds, a .634 field goal shooting percentage and an unbelievable .643 mark from beyond the arc. He has already been named to the Preseason John R. Wooden Award list and to Dick Vitale's All-Rolls Royce fourth team this preseason.

"John was the MVP of the ACC Tournament, and if he can be more consistent with that type of play over the course of the season, he can be one of the best point guards in the country," said Williams.

Also coming into his own in 2003-04 was shooting guard Chris McCray, who played consistently solid defense all season long and began to surge offensively as the year progressed. One of four Terrapins to average double-figure scoring numbers last season (11.0 points per game), McCray also contributed 2.8 assists and 1.7 steals per game as a sophomore. His improved size and strength will make him an even tougher matchup in his junior season.

Possibly the most versatile player and diligent defender on the Maryland squad, sophomore D.J. Strawberry exploded onto the scene as a rookie and earned honorable mention ACC all-freshman team honors. In addition to his skills as a lock-down defender, Strawberry proved to be a slashing scorer, leading all Terp freshmen with a 6.2 points per game average.

Sharpshooter Mike Jones began to display his potential as the season progressed, steadily earning playing time with improved ball-handling and defense. Jones poured in a career-high 25 points against UMES during the non-conference portion of the schedule, and began to contribute with big-time performances later in the season. His 3-pointer from the corner with 33 seconds remaining in regulation against Duke in the ACC title game and his perfect free throw effort in overtime helped the Terps to the victory.

Williams said, "I thought by the end of the year Mike was pretty confident out there on the court. He has to keep up that confidence, and as he goes into this year, he has a chance to be a great shooter."

Transfer guard Sterling Ledbetter comes to College Park from Allegany Community College, looking to spell Gilchrist at the point. The All-Maryland JUCO honoree, who averaged 13.0 points, 7.1 assists and 6.1 rebounds per game a season ago, hails from the same junior college program that produced NBA All-Star Steve Francis, national champion Ryan Randle and ACC champion Jamar Smith.

BREAKDOWN: Small Forward

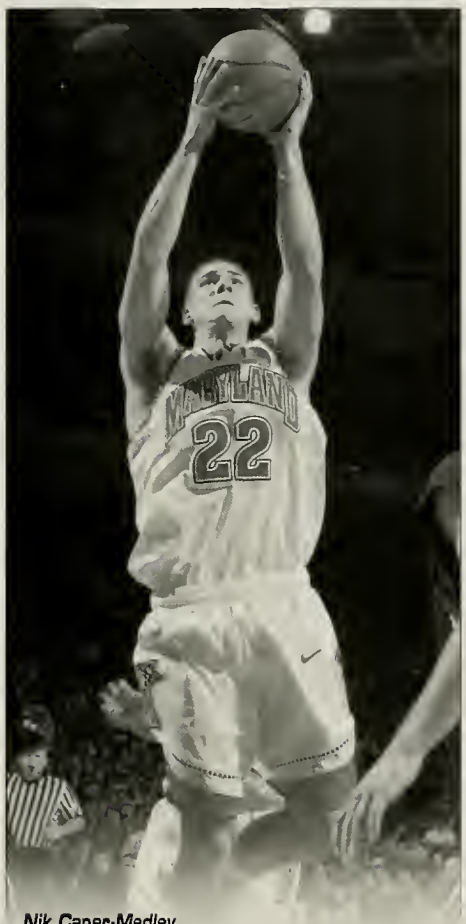
Caner-Medley, a two-year starter, returns as the Terps' second-leading scorer (12.2 points per game) and rebounder (4.7 rebounds per game). The left-handed junior has bulked up to 241 pounds, but still has the quickness and long-range stroke to pose matchup problems for opposing defenses. His added size and strength should also earn him minutes at the power forward position.

The only player in Maryland basketball history to have captured the ACC and NCAA Championships, and the lone scholarship senior on this year's Terrapin squad, Mike Grinnon returns at small forward with added size. Grinnon, now at 221 pounds with the ability to hit the 3-pointer, will vie for playing time in his final campaign after proving his mettle against Duke in the ACC final. Grinnon played a career-high 10 minutes against the Blue Devils, guarding Duke's J.J. Redick and nailing a pair of free throws to seal the victory.

BREAKDOWN: Power Forward/Center

The Terps' frontcourt boasts an incredible mixture of size and athleticism, with several talented players eager to contribute. Williams and his staff have unprecedented depth at the power forward/center position, and can once again utilize several combinations of post players to wear down the opposition.

All-ACC Tournament second team member Travis Garrison returns in his junior season as the Terrapins' leading rebounder at 5.2 boards per game. The big man continues to add bulk and become more and more of an inside presence, complementing his ability to hit from the outside. Garrison peaked at the right time in 2003-04, averaging 12.4 points per game and 6.6 rebounds during the postseason, and experienced continued success on the Terps' Italian trip with averages of 16.4 points and 11.0 rebounds across the five game tour.



Nik Caner-Medley

Travis Garrison

"Travis really played well down the stretch," said Williams. "He has always been able to shoot, but he proved to himself as much as anyone that he can also be a power player to go along with the shooting."

One of the Terrapins' most talented athletes, forward Ekene Ibekwe began to show his tremendous upside last season and will continue to make his mark in 2004-05. The long, lean power player has augmented his strength in the offseason and an improved jumpshot will complement his tremendous finishing, rebounding and shot-blocking abilities. With 44 rejections as a rookie (1.4 per game), Ibekwe became the first freshman to lead the Terrapins in blocked shots since Joe Smith in 1994.

"Ekene's upside is unlimited because he's 6-9, he's quick and he's got great timing," said Williams. "With Ekene, a lot is going to be determined by how well he shoots the basketball, and how much stronger he gets between his freshman and sophomore year."

Six-foot-ten, 280-pound Hassan Fofana returns for the Terrapins as one of the most physically imposing players in the league. Only in his fifth season of organized basketball, Fofana's experience and offseason workouts have contributed greatly to his continued development. Already a matchup problem due to his size, Fofana will contribute more and more as he refines his skills.

Center Will Bowers, a 7-1 sophomore, has also put forth a superior offseason effort and will vie for playing time inside. The big man boasts an excellent shooter's touch for a player his size and earned starts in four games during the Terps' Italian Tour.

Maryland's unsung hero, walk-on forward Darien Henry, will continue to help the Terrapins in practice and make the most of his playing minutes. In 18 career games, Henry, who is now a senior, maintains a .500 field goal percentage.

The Terrapins' only true freshman roster addition, James Gist from nearby Good Counsel High School, joins the frontcourt this season looking to be an immediate contributor. Gist is a long, lean player who is quick for his size and is an excellent shooter. He is a dynamic finisher and shotblocker, and has been working to add strength in the offseason.

The Schedule

The Maryland men's basketball team opens what will be a challenging 2004-05 schedule when it plays host to Jackson State out of the Southwest Conference on Friday, Nov. 19 at Comcast Center. The 2004 ACC Champions welcome the Tigers as part of a slate that features 16 regular-season games and two exhibitions to be played at their state-of-the-art home arena – a site where the Terps averaged a school-record 17,950 fans per game last season and finished fifth in the nation in home attendance for the second-straight year.

The Terps' season-opening matchup will be broadcast live on Comcast SportsNet at 8 p.m. For the third-consecutive year, each of Maryland's regular-season contests will be aired on live television, including at least 11 games that will air nationally on CBS, ESPN, ESPN2 or FOX Sports Net.

"Our schedule allows us to play some of the top teams in the country, and it should be highly rated, just like last season," said Williams, whose Terps played the second-toughest schedule of 2003-04 according to the end-of-year RPI report. "We're looking forward to playing and being competitive with the top teams in our conference and in the country."

The Terps will tune up with a pair of early-November exhibition games at home, taking on NCAA Division II power Bryant College (Rhode Island) on Nov. 5, and facing two-time defending Canadian national champion Carleton University on Nov. 13.

After rounding out their season-opening homestand with Mercer on Nov. 25, the Terrapins hit the road to take on head coach John Calipari and the No. 23 Memphis Tigers in the Basketball Hall of Fame Tip-Off Classic in Springfield, Mass. The Terps-Tigers clash on Nov. 26 (9 p.m., ESPN2) is the first of several marquee non-conference matchups for the Terps in the upcoming season.

From there, the Terrapins play their first true road game of the year when they travel to Wisconsin's Kohl Center as part of the annual ACC/Big Ten Challenge. The Terps face the preseason No. 20 Badgers for the fourth time in five seasons on Tues., Nov. 30, on ESPN2 at 9:30 p.m. Maryland posted a 73-67 overtime victory over Wisconsin at Comcast Center in last year's ACC/Big Ten Challenge.

Maryland opens play in the ninth-annual BB&T Classic when the Terps face George Mason on Saturday, Dec. 4, at 1 p.m. at MCI Center. Preseason No. 10 Michigan State joins local squads George Washington, GMU and the Terps in the annual event to benefit the Washington, D.C., Children's Charities Foundation. The consolation and championship games are slated for Sunday, Dec. 5, at 12:30 p.m. and 3 p.m., respectively.

The Terrapins return home for a five-game December homestand, beginning with a meeting against UNC Asheville (Dec. 12). After opening their ACC schedule against Florida State at Comcast Center on Dec. 19 (6 p.m., FOX Sports Net) and taking on local team American University on Dec. 23, the Terps then face 2004 NCAA Tournament participant Liberty (Dec. 28) and in-state squad Mount St. Mary's (Jan. 4) after a break for the holiday.

ACC play continues with road games at North Carolina (Jan. 8, Noon, ESPN) and Wake Forest (Jan. 11, 9 p.m., Raycom/Jefferson Pilot) – both teams that have been ranked No. 1 in preseason polls.

Before finishing the bulk of the conference schedule, John Chaney's Temple Owls visit Comcast Center on Saturday, Jan. 15 (2 p.m., ESPN2) to mark the Terps' final non-league game of the regular-season. The Terps and Owls – along with their legendary coaches – clash for the first time since 2001.

Ekene Ibekwe

D.J. Strawberry

The 2003-04 ACC was rated by far the strongest conference in the NCAA Divison I RPI report, and with seven teams making preseason Top 30 polls, the Terrapins will certainly face daunting challenges as league play rolls on in January, February and March. Key matchups for the Terps include their annual showdowns with preseason No. 12 Duke (Jan. 26 at Cameron Indoor Stadium, ESPN; Feb. 12 at Comcast Center, ESPN), national finalist Georgia Tech (Jan. 30 at Comcast Center, FOX Sports Net) and regional rival Virginia (Jan. 19 at Comcast Center, RJ Split; Feb. 19 at University Hall, CBS). Maryland's home matchup with preseason No. 19 NC State on Jan. 23 (6:00 p.m., FOX Sports Net) is the second part of a UM-NC State doubleheader, following a contest in which the Terrapin women take on the Wolfpack at 1 p.m. at Comcast Center.

The Terrapins face both of the ACC's latest additions in 2004-05, traveling to Miami on Feb. 5, and engaging in a home-and-away series with Virginia Tech. The Terps play host to the Hokies on Feb. 8 at Comcast Center, and visit Blacksburg, Va., in their regular-season finale on March 5.

In all, the Terrapins could play 18 regular season games against teams that participated in postseason tournaments in 2003-04 (NCAA – Memphis, Wisconsin, Michigan State, Liberty, North Carolina, Wake Forest, NC State, Duke and Georgia Tech; NIT – George Mason, George Washington, Florida State, Temple, Virginia). The Terps are scheduled to play 11 contests against teams ranked in the USA Today/ESPN coaches' poll.

The ACC Tournament comes to the Washington, D.C., area for only the fourth time in its 52-year history as it will be held at MCI Center, March 10-13. The league championship tourney was previously held at the Capital Centre Landover, Md., in 1976, 1981 and 1987. The Terrapins will attempt to earn a bid to a 12th-consecutive NCAA Tournament, which begins March 17 at First and Second Round sites.

The Next Step

The 2004-05 Terrapins are still a somewhat youthful squad, but the experience gained last season coupled with added depth at each position should pay off for a team and a coach hungry to build upon the success attained in 2003-04. In fact, early preseason rankings have tabbed the Terps as one of the nation's Top 15 teams, citing Maryland as the No. 7 team in the nation on one list.

"I feel really good because we could have quit a couple times during the season last year, and a lot of people wrote us off about making the NCAA Tournament," said Williams. "Each team decides what type of team they want to be each year, and I know if we play hard, we're talented enough to beat good teams. You don't always have to play perfectly to win, but if you play hard you can win close games. Hopefully this team learned how to do that."

PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

Terps At A Glance

- Last March, head coach Gary Williams led his Terrapins to the 2004 ACC Tournament championship, giving Maryland its first ACC title since 1984. The Terrapins became one of only three teams in ACC Tournament history to knock off the top three seeds when they downed No. 3 Wake Forest (87-86), No. 2 NC State (85-82) and No. 1 Duke (95-87 (ot) en route to an automatic bid and No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Terps reached the Second Round and finished the season with a 20-12 record.
- The Terrapins return 11 letterwinners and four starters from what was statistically the youngest team in the nation in 2003-04. ACC Tournament MVP John Gilchrist, who led the Terps in scoring, assists and steals a season ago, has been named to the preseason Wooden Award Watch List and Dick Vitale's All Rolls Royce Team. Sharpshooter and tenacious defender Chris McCray returns to round out one of the nation's top backcourts, while versatile Nik Caner-Medley and powerful big man Travis Garrison return in the post. All four of the Terps returning starters put forth standout performances as the Terps took a 12-day tour of Italy in August.
- The Terrapins, who finished the 2003-04 season ranked No. 19/24 in the polls, have earned preseason rankings spanning from 7th to 20th in the nation.

National Prominence

- The 2004-05 Terrapins will look to continue a school-record by earning a berth in the 2005 NCAA Tournament. Maryland is currently riding a streak of 11 straight NCAA appearances since 1994, including seven trips to the Sweet Sixteen during that time span, Final Four appearances in 2001 and 2002, and the 2002 national title.
- Maryland is one of only five Division I basketball programs that has appeared in the last 11 NCAA Tournaments. Arizona, Cincinnati, Kansas and Kentucky are the others.
- Maryland finished the 2004 season ranked 19th in the AP Poll, marking the Terps' eighth-straight Top 25 finish. The Terps have been ranked in the AP and USA Today/ESPN Top 25 consistently since 1994-95.

Study Tabs Terps Among Elite

- An academic study by the Leisure Intelligence Group (LIG) released on March 3, 2004, tabbed the University of Maryland men's basketball program among the five most successful and popular teams in NCAA Division I.
- LIG, using ESPN sports poll data measuring fan interest, loyalty and behavior relevant to basketball "brands," found that the top five Division I programs in terms of national popularity are Duke, North Carolina, Kentucky, UCLA and Maryland. The study indicates that history, tradition and past successes are primary influences of fan interest.
- According to the study, conducted by LIG founder and University of Michigan professor Richard Luker, the Atlantic Coast Conference holds the highest measurable level of national fan interest and competitiveness of any league in NCAA Division I basketball – the results of the study found that the ACC's popularity should not change with expansion.
- The ACC was the nation's highest rated league throughout the 2003-04 season according to the RPI report, with five teams ranked in the final Top 25 and seven that appeared in the polls over the course of the year. ACC teams posted a 91-16 (.850) record against non-conference opponents in 2003-04, including a 7-2 record in winning the ACC/Big Ten Challenge.

20-Win Seasons

- The Terrapins will look to extend an active school-record streak of 20-win seasons to nine in 2004-05. The Terps have established a streak of eight 20-win seasons since 1997, a further testament to the Terps' successful consistency under Williams.
- Maryland broke a five-season string of 20-win seasons in 2001-02 with its sixth-straight season of as many victories. The Terps had won at least 20 games from 1971-72 to 1975-76.

Year	Record	NCAA Appearance
1996-97	21-11	NCAA First Round
1997-98	21-11	NCAA Sweet Sixteen
1998-99	28-6	NCAA Sweet Sixteen
1999-00	25-10	NCAA Second Round
2000-01	25-11	NCAA Final Four
2001-02	32-4	National Champions
2002-03	21-10	NCAA Sweet Sixteen

Terps On TV

- For the third consecutive season and the third time in school history, all of Maryland's 27 regular-season games are scheduled to be aired on live television. The Terps' 2004-05 broadcast slate includes 11 games that will be broadcast nationally, on ESPN, ESPN2, Fox Sports Net, ABC or CBS. With the exception of the snow-delayed victory over Wake Forest on February 17, 2003, every game during the Terps' last two seasons were aired live.
- Maryland's matchup with Syracuse marked only the third time in NCAA Tournament history, and the first time since 1995, that the previous two national champions faced each other. That game, which shared the same broadcast window with St. Joseph's vs. Texas Tech and Stanford vs. Alabama, rated as the sixth most-watched broadcast of the entire 2004 NCAA Tournament, and rated as the third most-watched broadcast not including the three Final Four games. More than nine million households were tuned in during that broadcast window.
- Maryland's victory over Duke in the 2004 ACC Tournament title game was the most-watched basketball game during "Championship Week" on ESPN. During that week, ESPN and ESPN2 combined to air 56 total games, and the Maryland-Duke game rated No. 1.
- Three of Maryland's games ranked in the Top 10 of all of ESPN's college basketball regular-season broadcasts, with two of those contests being played at Comcast Center. The Terps' Jan. 21 clash with Duke was No. 3 on the year, while North Carolina's trip to Comcast Center on Jan. 14 ranked eighth. The Terps victory at No. 1 Florida on Dec. 2 was No. 9 among regular season ESPN broadcasts.
- The Terps' rivalry with Duke continues to make for popular viewing, as more than six million total households combined to watch the three matchups in 2003-04.

PRESEASON HONORS

Returning 11 letterwinners and four starters from a young, energetic team that captured the 2004 ACC title, the Terrapins have been cited by several preseason publications as a "team to watch." The Terps' talent and potential for success is widely recognized by the national media, as evidenced by the accolades Maryland's players and coaching staff have earned before the team has even taken the court.

The ACC, which finished far-and-away as the nation's top conference in the 2003-04 RPI report, looks to be just as dangerous this year with as many as five Top 10 teams in some preseason rankings, six in the Top 15 and seven or eight in the Top 30.

What They're Saying About Terrapin Basketball...

"Coach Gary Williams' team really matured in the ACC tournament last season, and that momentum should carry over into a big season. Gilchrist is a PTPer in the backcourt, and this team should enjoy a super season." – Dick Vitale, ESPN

"The Terps emerged as one of the toughest teams in the country during March and shouldn't be taken lightly in the preseason." – Andy Katz, ESPN

"Gary Williams will work his magic – he always does – and the Terps will dance in March." – Lindy's

"Last year was supposed to be a rebuilding year for Gary Williams and his youthful Terps. While the team did finish the ACC regular season at 7-9, they grew up quickly with Williams' first ACC Tournament championship, beating the number three, two and one seeds on consecutive days... Look for Maryland to battle near the top of the standings once again." – Mike Gminski, *ACC Handbook

"These turtles are still young, but as long as John Gilchrist and Nik Caner-Medley are still around, they will be dangerous ... Woe to team that meets Maryland in the Tourney." – SLAM Magazine

"If [ACC] tournament MVP John Gilchrist and backcourt partner Chris McCray, who's the most underrated player in the league, can merely stay at the same level they reached in Greensboro, N.C., they will rank as one of the top guard tandems in the country." – Sporting News

"Coach Williams will use last year's loss in the [NCAA] second round to Syracuse as fuel to motivate his guys. These Terps gained valuable experience last year, which should bring back chants of 'Fear the Turtle.'" – ACC Handbook

HEAD COACH

MARYLAND '68
16TH YEAR AT MARYLAND
315-165 (.656)
27TH YEAR OVERALL
522-293 (.640)

Since returning to the College Park campus in 1989, Gary Williams (Maryland '68) has led his alma mater's basketball program from a period of troubled times to an era of national prominence. With 11 straight NCAA tournament berths, seven Sweet Sixteen appearances, a pair of consecutive Final Four showings, and the 2002 national championship - the first of its kind in Maryland basketball history - Williams and his staff have literally forged what is now more than a decade of dominance in college basketball's most storied and competitive conference.

During the 2003-04 season, with the youngest Maryland team in a decade, Williams focused on teaching and guided the Terps to success with one of his most brilliant coaching performances ever. Challenges were met and overcome every day on the practice floor and every night on the sideline. The result: an 11th consecutive NCAA berth, an eighth-straight 20-win season and the first ACC Tournament title for the Terrapins in 20 years. Williams recorded the 300th victory at his alma mater, and knocked off a top-ranked team for the third straight year - the Terps' victory at No. 1 Florida on Dec. 10 gave Williams his sixth career win over a top-ranked squad, the most of any active coach in America. With an overall record of 522-293, he is the 16th-winningest active coach in NCAA Division I.

Williams, heralded as the national coach of the year during the Terps' 2002 championship run, is one of just 10 active coaches in America to boast a national title and one of only two in the conference. He has become the sixth-winningest coach in ACC history after transforming the Maryland program into one of the nation's most formidable, and building a Baltimore-D.C. area following that has consistently resulted in packed arenas. After demolishing attendance records with sellout crowds during the final years of Maryland basketball at Cole Field House, Williams' Terps have finished fifth in the nation in the last two seasons in terms of home attendance. The Terrapins played in front of 287,200 fans in the second season at their new home in 2003-04, averaging 17,950 fans per game and selling out all 16 home contests.

- In September, Williams joined Washington Redskins great Darrell Green and Washington Sports and Entertainment Chairman and CEO Abe Pollin as the inaugural inductees into the new Greater Washington Sports Hall of Champions.
- In June of 2005, Williams will be inducted into the University of Maryland's Alumni Hall of Fame, receiving the university's highest alumni honor. Williams was inducted into the Terps' Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.
- Williams is one of only five coaches in NCAA Division I to have led his team to each of the past 11 NCAA Tournaments. He is one of just six coaches to reach the NCAA Sweet Sixteen in seven of the last 11 years (1994 to 2004). He joins Lute Olson and Tubby Smith as the only NCAA champion coaches on both lists.
- In guiding his 2004 Terrapins to the ACC Tournament title, Williams became the third coach in league history to lead his team to victory over the top three seeds: No. 3 Wake Forest, No. 2 NC State and No. 1 Duke. By overcoming a 21-point first half deficit against the Wolfpack, Williams engineered the greatest comeback in the 51-year history of the ACC Tournament.
- He is one of six college basketball coaches since 1980 to guide his alma mater to the Final Four and was the first since 1974 to lead his alma mater to a national title.
- He is one of only three active coaches in America, and just the 12th overall, to guide his alma mater to two Final Four appearances. He was only the eighth to guide his alma mater to consecutive Final Fours and the first since Houston's Guy Lewis in 1982, 1983 and 1984.
- A winner of nearly 70 percent of his NCAA Tournament games while at Maryland, he ranks ninth among active coaches in NCAA Tournament winning percentage overall (26-13, .667), and 10th in wins (26).
- With a victory over No. 1 Florida in Gainesville on Dec. 10, 2003, he is the winningest coach in the nation against top-ranked opponents (6).
- With his 500th win at NC State on March 2, 2003, the 1968 Maryland grad became the sixth ACC alumnus in conference history to amass as many as 500 coaching victories.
- With 315 wins as Maryland's head coach, Williams is only the sixth mentor in Atlantic Coast Conference history to pass the 300-victory milestone.

National Prominence

For Williams, now in his 16th season, the accomplishments of the past 11 years have been particularly sweet for a coach whose roots with the program extend to his playing days in the late 1960s, and whose earliest seasons as head coach were tormented by NCAA sanctions he inherited. The Final Four architect and ACC championship mentor is himself a Maryland alum, who found glory for a program whose history is filled with a myriad of some of the most prominent names in college basketball annals: Shue, Lucas, Elmore, McMillen, Albert King, Bias, Buck Williams and Walt Williams.

Guiding his Maryland team to the 2004 ACC title remains a poignant source of pride for Williams and all of the Terrapin faithful. Coaching the most youth-filled team in college basketball to an incredible weekend of success, in a year where the ACC was rated the nation's most competitive conference, is not an accomplishment soon to be forgotten by Maryland's fans or the coach himself. The weekend featured three hard-fought, instant-classic contests. In the end, the Terrapins emerged victorious, with their first tournament title since 1984 and only the third in the storied history of the Maryland program. In only three days - three days that were the result of a season's worth of determination, diligence and lessons learned - the Terps were transformed from a team teetering on the edge of the NCAA bubble to a No. 4 seed in the national tournament.

The excitement of the 2004 ACC Tournament conjured images of the Terrapins' NCAA title run only two years earlier. Williams followed a remarkable 2001 Final Four season by compiling the most wins in Maryland history, going 32-4 in 2002. He engineered the school's best regular season ever (25-3), its first outright ACC regular season title since 1980, its first No. 1 seed in an NCAA Tournament, and a return to the Final Four. He earned billing as the league's coach of the year for the first time in his career and later was honored with various national awards, including the Victor Award and the New York Athletic Club's Winged Foot Award as the coach of the national champions.

Capping his personal ascent to college basketball's highest pinnacle, Williams added author to his resume in summer 2002 by completing an autobiography entitled Sweet Redemption, with award-winning journalist David Vise. The book captures the essence of Williams' arrival at Maryland, the Terps' re-building efforts, their return to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and their tournament climb ever since.

The rise of the Maryland program has run parallel with Williams' ascent among the most notable in the collegiate coaching fraternity. Williams is one of only five coaches to boast a string of 11 consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament, and one of six to reach the NCAA's Sweet Sixteen in seven of the last 11 years.

As the Maryland coach, Williams has produced more than 20 wins in nine of his last 10 seasons, and a school-record eight straight. Williams' 15 career 20-win seasons ties him for 11th among active coaches.

Williams, 315-165 at Maryland, boasts a 522-293 overall record including four years at American (1979-82), four at Boston College (1983-86) and three at Ohio State (1987-89). In 26 seasons as a Division I head coach, Williams has coached in 14 NCAA Tournaments and guided nine different teams to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen. One of 26 coaches ever to take three different schools to the NCAA Tournament, Williams has guided teams to the NIT or NCAA Tournament at each of his four coaching stops.

During his run of 11 straight NCAA tournaments at Maryland, he has forged his way to becoming the winningest NCAA Tournament coach in Maryland history with 22 wins and 10 losses - nearly 70 percent. He boasts a 26-13 NCAA Tournament record overall, and has carried Maryland to the Sweet Sixteen in five of the past seven years.

Terp Alumnus

Williams is one of four 500-win coaches who now engineer the programs at their respective alma maters (Lou Henson, New Mexico State; Eddie Sutton, Oklahoma State; Jim Boeheim, Syracuse). They also are the only active coaches to direct their alma maters to at least one Final Four appearance, with Williams, Boeheim and Sutton making multiple showings with their alma maters.

In 2001, Williams became just the sixth coach since 1980 to direct his alma mater to the Final Four. A year later, he became the first coach since 1974 to guide his alma mater to a national title. Williams is the only active coach to take his alma mater to consecutive Final Four appearances. He is only the eighth mentor ever to guide his alma mater to consecutive Final Fours, and the first since Houston's Guy Lewis in 1982, 1983 and 1984.

A former Terrapin point guard, Williams was a starter under coach Bud Millikan during the 1965, 1966 and 1967 seasons. He was the team captain as a senior and still lists one of his most memorable basketball moments as his experience as a spectator at the 1966 national championship game conducted at Maryland's legendary Cole Field House, between Texas Western and Kentucky.

The former student-athlete is also noted as one of just eight former ACC basketball players ever to return to the league as a head coach. On March 2, 2003, Williams became the sixth ACC alum to win at least 500 games as Drew Nicholas nailed a buzzer-beating 3-pointer to down NC State, 68-65. With 315 wins as Maryland's head coach, Williams is only the sixth ACC coach to reach the 300 milestone. With 132 career ACC victories as Maryland's coach, he needs only three ACC wins to surpass Georgia Tech's Bobby Cremins (1981-2000) as the fourth-winningest ACC coach in terms of conference victories.

Williams Era

Inducted into the University of Maryland Hall of Fame in 1999, Williams has placed his alma mater's program back among the elite in the always-competitive Atlantic Coast Conference. The Terps have become synonymous with Duke and North Carolina among the league's most dominant programs, and nationally have become a fixture among weekly polls - 70 consecutive weeks in the USA Today/ESPN Top 25 at the conclusion of the 2002-03 season and 77 consecutive appearances in the AP Top 25.

Another success story during the Williams Era at Maryland was the coveted home court win streak over non-conference foes, which spanned more than 12 years and 87 games. Maryland had not lost a non-league home game under Williams since just his fourth home game as head coach: Dec. 12, 1989 vs. Coppin State. The Terps went undefeated against non-conference foes during the final 12 years of competition at Cole Field House, and ran the record to 87 games before a five-point loss to No. 14 Florida on Dec. 14, 2002 at Comcast Center.

Since Williams' arrival as head coach in the summer of 1989, the Terps have soared to a level of national prominence unmatched during the first century of the program - and unmatched by the vast majority of programs nationwide. Included among the many superior accomplishments during the Williams Era are: a school-record 11 straight NCAA Tournament appearances (1994-03) which include consecutive trips to the Final Four, a national crown and seven Sweet Sixteen appearances; the 2004 ACC title; 10 consecutive upper division finishes in the ACC including runner-up distinction in 1999, 2000 and 2003; an outright regular season ACC title in 2002 and a shared one in 1995; a school-record 28 victories during the 1999 season which was shattered again with 32 in 2002; four NBA lottery picks, one national Player of the Year, a senior of the year and two ACC Players of the Year; an ACC Tournament MVP; and the first recipient of the nation's Senior CLASS Award.

Added for good measure are a NBA Co-Rookie of the Year in Steve Francis (2000), and a preseason top five ranking three times in four seasons (1999-2002). The result is a program and a coach who have reached icon status.

Williams is the only head coach in school history to guide the Terps to 11 postseason tournament appearances. After guiding his first two Maryland teams to winning records and overcoming an NCAA probationary period resulting from the previous regime, he guided the Terps to an NCAA Tournament appearance in just his fifth season, 1994, and earned a share of the ACC regular season title in just his sixth, 1995.

Williams' past 11 seasons have brought Maryland from striving for contention in the Atlantic Coast Conference to the realization of the tournament title in 2004; from endeavors to become nationally competitive to the reality of 11 NCAA berths, seven Sweet Sixteen appearances, two Final Fours and of course, the 2002 NCAA championship.

In 2003, Williams took a group of experienced but mostly untested Terps to a third-straight Sweet Sixteen. Along the way, the squad earned its fourth final Top 10 ranking in five seasons, posted a seventh-straight 20-win season, recorded a school-record sixth straight finish in the upper echelon of the ACC by capturing second place, and posted a school-record sixth straight season of double-digit ACC victories. The Terrapins helped Williams to his 500th career coaching victory on March 2, 2003 - making him only the sixth ACC alumnus to win as many games.

The 2002 championship itself was a product of maturity and steadfast dedication to a common goal - and included a magical ride through the final season of play at venerable Cole Field House. Williams molded a cast of seven returning players from its national semi-finalists of 2001, while senior captains Lonny Baxter, Juan Dixon and Byron Mouton keyed a consistent effort from the beginning of practice in October, through an undefeated (15-0) home campaign at Cole, all the way to a net-cutting evening at the Georgia Dome on April 1. The Terrapins overcame personal obstacles and handled the ACC's and the NCAA Tournament's stiffest challenges. After winning the ACC regular season crown with a 15-1 record, the Terps' ascent to the national championship game included successive victories over perennial powers Wisconsin, Kentucky, Connecticut and Kansas - and a 64-52 defeat of Indiana in the title game. Maryland won the first national title in school history, and earned its very first No. 1 ranking, after becoming the first team in NCAA history to reach the championship game by defeating the highest possible seed in every round.

A year earlier, the Terrapins began the season with a lofty No. 5 ranking by the Associated Press and finished with the No. 4 spot by USA Today/ESPN. The Terps butted heads weekly during an ACC schedule that included five nationally ranked teams, but found their stride late in the year to win 10 of their last 12 games. Of those 10, seven nationally ranked foes fell in the Terps' path to the Final Four, with their only losses coming to eventual NCAA and ACC champion Duke. Local rival Georgetown was dispatched in the Sweet Sixteen, and an 87-73 win over No. 2-ranked and top-seeded Stanford earned Maryland its first NCAA regional title.

The 2000 season may have been one of Williams' greatest coaching accomplishments ever - guiding a "rebuilding" Terrapin team to 25 wins, a second straight second-place finish in the ACC and its first trip to the conference tournament final since 1984. All with a freshman point guard (Steve Blake), three first-year starters (Baxter, Blake, Dixon) and only one senior following the loss of three players to the NBA draft. Two years later, those three first-year starters would become seasoned veterans and national champions.

Four years after tying for his first ACC regular season championship in 1995, Williams led Maryland to a then school-record 28 victories and a school-record 13 ACC victories during the 1999 season. The Terps finished the season ranked No. 5 by the Associated Press - then the highest final ranking since 1975 and only the third time in school history that the program had earned a top five final national ranking. Maryland peaked at No. 2 as it won its first 10 games of the season, and its No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament matched the highest tournament seed in school history.

Williams has been voted as a national coach of the year finalist five times, including his selection in 2002 as the national coach of the year by Basketball America and CBSSportsline.com, and in 2001 by Playboy. Besides the ACC coaching honor, other accolades after the 2002 championship season included the Winged Foot Award as presented by the N.Y. Athletic Club, the Victor Award as presented by the National Academy of Sports Editors, the Harry Litwack Award as Eastern Coach of the Year, presented annually by the Herb Good Club of Philadelphia, and Seaboard Region Coach of the Year honors as named by Basketball Times and Eastern Basketball. In 1998, ACC Athlete Magazine voted him as the ACC Coach of the Year. He received the same honor from College Hoops Illustrated in 2000. Following Maryland's 1997 season, when the Terps advanced to the NCAA Tournament and finished with a 9-7 record in the ACC, he was named as the Seaboard Region Coach of the Year by Basketball Times and Eastern Basketball. He was honored as the district coach of the year in 1981, and in 1983 he was named as the Eastern Coach of the Year.

GARY WILLIAMS — No. 14

GARY WILLIAMS, 6-0, 170, 21, Senior, Collingswood, N.J. — Maryland's best floor man who can work the ball down the floor quicker than any of his mates . . . can hit the open man . . . a fierce competitor with a heart as big as his chest.

Williams has cemented his legacy as one of America's greatest recruiters and college coaches – a statement backed not just by consecutive Final Four appearances or 22 winning records in 26 seasons, but by 28 NBA draft choices and the numerous former assistant coaches who now guide their own programs. Williams has mentored seven first-round selections and six NBA lottery picks: Walt Williams (#7 pick, 1992), Joe Smith (#1, 1995), Steve Francis (#2, 1999) and Chris Wilcox (#8, 2002); and Ohio State standouts Jim Jackson (#5, 1992) and Dennis Hopson (#3, 1987).

Williams was hired on June 13, 1989. He inherited a team that had won only nine games the year before and finished in last place in the ACC. Displaying his coaching abilities immediately, he helped the Terps to 19 wins while advancing to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament - and making him the first coach in school history to lead a team into the postseason in his first year. In addition, Maryland's 10-game improvement in the win column during Williams' first season was the largest in school history and second largest in the annals of the ACC by a first-year coach. Only the legendary Press Maravich, who improved NC State's winning ledger by 13 games in his inaugural season (1965), can boast a higher first-year improvement in the win column.

A 1968 graduate of Maryland, Williams lettered as the Terps' starting point guard from 1965-67 under head coach Bud Millikan, serving as team captain during his senior season. It was as a player in the ACC that Williams began developing his basketball philosophy. Playing beside three-year teammates Joe Harrington and Jay McMillen, he studied the game under Millikan, and it was then that he developed his penchant for the full-court pressure defenses for which his teams are now known. He learned his half court man-to-man defense from Millikan, who learned from the legendary Hank Iba. The fast-breaking offense that Williams' teams employ is similar to the style Vic Bubas' Duke teams used when Williams was a player.

Path Back To College Park

Williams began his coaching career alongside Harrington, as graduate students at Maryland under freshman coach Tom Davis. The 1969 freshman team finished with a 12-4 record as Williams bonded with Davis in a relationship that would serve him well as his coaching career progressed.

After earning a degree in business, he continued his coaching career as an assistant at Woodrow Wilson High School in Camden, N.J. After one year, he took over as the head coach and guided his first team to a perfect 27-0 record and the state title. Williams has called that season "the ultimate – there wasn't another game to win." Upon winning the NCAA West Region championship in 2001, he fondly recalled his championship at Camden as the "only other time I've ever got to cut down a net."

Williams spent one more year at Woodrow Wilson before accepting an invitation from Davis in 1972 to become an assistant at Lafayette College. While an assistant at Lafayette, Williams also served as the head soccer coach. In 1978, Williams accompanied Davis to Boston College. After one year there, Williams became the head coach at American University.

Williams immediately began making his mark. His 1981 squad set the still-standing school record for victories with a 24-6 mark, won the East Coast Conference championship, and played in the NIT. Williams was named the district coach of the year. American returned to postseason play the next season as the Williams-led Eagles went 21-9 and played in the NIT for the second consecutive year. Only once prior to Williams' arrival had AU attended a postseason tournament, and the Eagles have not returned since. Williams' four-year record at AU was 72-42.

In 1983, Williams succeeded Davis at Boston College. He was once again an instant success, posting a 25-7 record and leading the Eagles to the regular season championship of the Big East in his first season. Making his first appearance in the NCAA Tournament, Williams directed the Eagles to the Sweet 16. He finished third in the balloting for national coach of the year, and was honored again as the Eastern Coach of the Year by his peers. He went on to duplicate that NCAA Tournament success again in 1985, leading B.C. back to the Sweet Sixteen.

In 1987, Williams accepted the head coaching job at Ohio State, becoming the 10th basketball coach in that school's illustrious history. He succeeded Eldon Miller and once again enjoyed success. In three years, the Buckeyes made three postseason appearances. His first squad defeated then-No. 1 and unbeaten Iowa (coached by Tom Davis) in the regular season, in what would be the first of many giant-killings. During Williams' three-year term at Ohio State, OSU defeated a second-ranked Purdue team, perennial power Kansas and highly regarded Big Ten powers Michigan and Illinois. Each of Williams' three Ohio State teams advanced to postseason play, and he laid the groundwork for the highly successful teams that followed when he left Columbus for College Park.

Williams In The Community

The Terrapins' head coach is an active member of the University of Maryland and greater Baltimore-Washington, D.C. community. Williams is involved in extensive charity, fund-raising and public speaking events throughout the year, particularly in the offseason.

In September of 2004, University President C.D. Mote Jr. announced that Williams will co-chair the scholarship component of Maryland's upcoming $200 million fund-raising campaign. In addition to a pledge of a half-million dollars of his own for academic scholarships at the university, Williams will represent the University at various functions and perform various networking duties to spearhead the fund-raising effort.

Williams' recent charity work has benefited:

- Coaches vs. Cancer
- Cystic Fibrosis Foundation
- National Autism Research
- National Physical Education Council
- The Salvation Army
- The Babe Ruth Museum

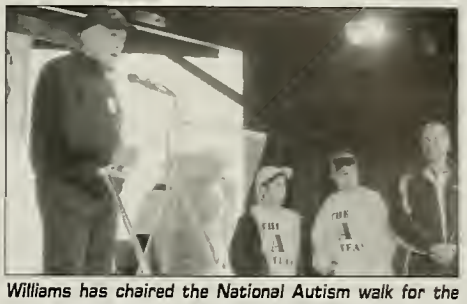
Earlier in the year, Williams served as the commencement speaker at the graduation proceedings for the Robert H. Smith School of Business. Williams, a 1968 University graduate with a degree in business, addressed the Class of 2004 at the Comcast Center ceremony.

Williams has been heavily involved in the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer efforts. The program is a partnership between the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the American Cancer Society. The coaches participating in this program are dedicated to fighting cancer through increased support for research, patient services, and prevention education.

Williams has also worked with Maryland grad Boomer Esiason and others to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, hosting charity basketball games and golf events.

For the past two years, Williams has served as the honorary chairman for the Walk Far for N.A.A.R., which has raised more than one million dollars for the National Alliance of Autism Research. He has also chaired the Salvation Army's FORE Kids golf tournament in 2003 and 2004, which raises proceeds for Washington, D.C.'s youth.



Williams has chaired the National Autism walk for the last two years.

DAVE DICKERSON

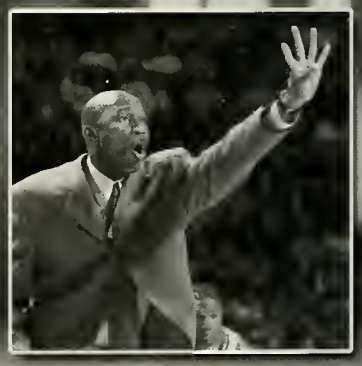
NINTH YEAR AT MARYLAND

2003 AFLAC NATIONAL ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR



Dave Dickerson, widely regarded as one of college basketball's top assistant coaches, has been on the sideline at his alma mater during eight of the most successful years in the history of the program. Dickerson, who was elevated to the position of senior associate head coach during the 2004 offseason, played an indispensable role during Maryland's first-ever national championship run in 2002 and the Terps' first ACC Tournament title since 1984 a season ago. With Dickerson playing a key role in the Terps' recruiting and scouting efforts, Maryland teams have made eight NCAA Tournament appearances and have been ranked among the nation's Top 25 each season. During Dickerson's seven-year career on the Terrapin bench, Maryland owns a 193-75 record (.720 winning percentage).

Following Maryland's first trip to the Final Four during the 2000-01 postseason, Dickerson was elevated on Gary Williams' staff to take the lead in the Terrapins' recruiting and scouting efforts. He has played an integral role in recruiting during his first eight seasons at his alma mater, including the recruiting of five classes that were ranked among the nation's best and a 2003-04 group that was rated No. 2 in the nation.

Overall, Dickerson's 14-year coaching career has included 14 straight winning seasons and nine postseason appearances.

Dickerson joined Williams' staff prior to the 1996-97 season and immediately began to put his stamp on the program. During his first season, Maryland defeated three ranked teams and was ranked as high as No. 2 during the year. In 1997-98, the Terps advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen and recorded 21 victories including wins over No. 1 North Carolina and No. 2 Kansas. A year later, Maryland won 28 games, 13 conference games and again advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen.

The 2000-01 season's accomplishments and trip to the Final Four were only eclipsed by Maryland's national title in 2001-02 and winningest season in history at 32-4 and 15-1 in the ACC. Dickerson's seventh season at his alma mater featured a fifth Sweet Sixteen appearance for the Terps, a fifth Top 10 ranking in the final coaches poll, a school-record seventh-straight 20-win season and a victory over No. 1 Duke in the inaugural season at Comcast Center. Last year the Terps made another trip to the NCAA Tournament, won 20 games again and captured the ACC Tournament title in a year where the ACC was rated far and away the nation's toughest conference.

Renowned as one of the top assistant coaches in the nation, Dickerson has been cited by Athlon and Basketball News as a Top 5 assistant, ESPN's Andy Katz as a "Coach on the Rise," and an AFLAC Assistant Coach of the Year by Coach & Athletic Director Magazine.

Top Recruiter

Dickerson's success as one of the nation's top recruiters has translated into success on the court. He was instrumental in attracting the Terps' 1997 and 1998 recruiting classes, both of which were ranked in the top 10 nationally, a group of 2002 rookies ranked as high as fourth in the nation, and the No. 2 recruiting class in the country in 2003-04. Maryland's 1998 recruiting class was ranked third in the nation, while the Terps' 1999 recruiting class contained three of the nation's top players at three different positions.

Some of Dickerson's most recent efforts helped Maryland to attract a 2003-04 class of top 100 recruits, including McDonald's All-American and No. 2 shooting guard prospect Mike Jones, No. 9 power forward Ekene Ibekwe, No. 10 center Hassan Fofana and mostly-unheralded D.J. Strawberry, who went on to earn ACC Rookie of the Week and honorable mention ACC All-Freshman team honors. That group of young athletes was instrumental as the Terrapins, who were statistically the youngest team in the country in 2003-04, captured the ACC crown.

Dickerson's scouting and recruiting abilities helped the Maryland coaching staff bring All-America guard Steve Francis, who was the No. 2 overall selection in the 1999 draft and NBA All-Star, home to the Terrapins. The 2002 draft saw three Dickerson recruits - Chris Wilcox, Final Four Most Outstanding Player Juan Dixon and two-time NCAA Regional MVP Lonny Baxter - become selections in the first two rounds, marking only the second time in school history that three Terrapins have been drafted as high.

In all, Dickerson has recruited and coached two NBA lottery picks - Steve Francis (1999) and Chris Wilcox (2002) - and four overall first round selections in Keith Booth (1997), Francis, Wilcox and Dixon (2002). It has been Dickerson's nationwide emergence on the recruiting trail that has allowed him to rise so quickly up the coaching ladder.

Prior to coming to Maryland, Dickerson was an assistant coach at Radford University, where he helped assemble recruiting classes that ranked among the nation's best. The 1994 season saw the Highlanders compile a 20-9 record and a school-record winning percentage of .714. Radford enjoyed the best four-year period in its history with winning records in each of the seasons that Dickerson was an assistant.

It was also at Radford that Dickerson began to make his mark as a bench coach. Radford gained national acclaim and became one of the most successful programs in the Big South Conference during Dickerson's tenure. Radford defeated Louisiana State, 73-72, on Dec. 30, 1993, to gain the biggest victory in school history. The Highlanders scored the game-winning basket with 2.8 seconds remaining in the game just after LSU had taken its first lead of the second half. Dickerson was the assistant coach in charge of scouting LSU.

From Athlete To Coach

Dickerson played forward at Maryland from 1986-89 and earned four varsity letters. He was co-captain as a senior in 1989. Dickerson saw action in the 1986 and 1988 NCAA Tournaments and was a member of three teams that advanced to the ACC Tournament semifinals. The Terps won 19 games his freshman year and 18 during his junior season. Dickerson was a starter on the 1989 team that became the first No. 8 seed to defeat a No. 1 seed in the ACC Tournament when the Terps knocked off NC State.

In 1990, Dickerson earned his bachelor's degree in government and politics from Maryland, and soon after he began his coaching career on the staff of Gardner-Webb University in North Carolina. After a year at Gardner-Webb he joined former Maryland head coach Lefty Driesell at James Madison for a 1992 season that culminated in a bid to the NIT.

From 1992-96, Dickerson was an assistant coach at Radford, where he began constructing his sparkling reputation under former Maryland assistant coach Ron Bradley.

A native of Olar, S.C., Dickerson earned the team award for Greatest Career Contribution in 1989 and for Most Improved Player in 1987. Dave is married to the former Laurette Newsom, a 1991 graduate of Maryland. The couple gave birth to their first child, Dave III, on Oct. 19, 2000.

MIKE LONERGAN

ASSISTANT COACH

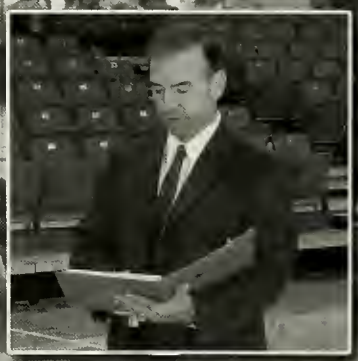
FIRST YEAR AT MARYLAND



Catholic University's all-time winningest head coach and leader of the 2001 NCAA Division III national champions, Mike Lonergan enters his first season on the Terrapin bench. A local product and proven winner, Lonergan will contribute to the Terps in every area in 2004-05 and use his well-developed local and national recruiting ties to maintain the flow of fresh talent into College Park.

Lonergan led the Cardinals to seven consecutive NCAA Division III Tournament appearances and nine berths overall while serving as the head coach of his alma mater from 1992-2004. He came to Maryland to fill the assistant coaching vacancy of former Catholic University teammate Jimmy Patsos, who became the head coach at Loyola College on April 1. Lonergan amassed a 251-88 (.740) record during his 12-year tenure at Catholic and his squad averaged 24.7 victories per season since 1997.

An accomplished recruiter and mentor, Lonergan grew up and still lives in Bowie, Md., and now takes his reputation as one of the top small college recruiters in the nation onto the Division I scene. Lonergan knows the Maryland program well, having played basketball at nearby Catholic University after attending D.C.'s Archbishop Carroll High School in the Washington Catholic Athletic Conference (WCAC). His comprehensive knowledge of basketball throughout the region and the nation will pay dividends for the Terps in the years to come.

Championship Coach

Lonergan was the head coach at the Catholic University of America (CUA) from the 1992-93 to 2003-04 seasons, leading the Cardinals to nine of the 11 NCAA appearances in the history of the program, all while graduating 100 percent of his players and taking on Division I foes such as Princeton, American, Davidson and William & Mary. Catholic's victory over Albany (N.Y.) in 2000 was the program's first over a Division I school since 1981. He coached a Division III All-American in each of his last five seasons at CUA.

Lonergan is the only coach in the nation to have led his team to the last seven consecutive regular-season conference championships, beginning with an undefeated 14-0 Capital Athletic Conference (CAC) slate in 1997. From 1997 to 2004, the Cardinals posted an 88-10 (.898) CAC regular-season record. His 12-year record in the CAC was 132-36 (.786), and he was named the CAC Coach of the Year four times.

Lonergan led his team to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen each year between 1998 and 2002. The Cardinals advanced to the Elite Eight in 2000 and posted a 26-3 season and a school-record winning percentage (.897) in 2002.

Lonergan guided CUA to its finest athletic moment on March 17, 2001, when his team rallied for a 76-62 victory over William Paterson in the NCAA Division III championship game in Salem, Va. The Cardinals finished their NCAA title campaign ranked No. 1 in the nation with a 28-5 record. Lonergan was the consensus choice for 2001 Division III National Coach of the Year.

CUA won five consecutive playoff games during its championship run, and each after trailing at some point during the final 10 minutes. In the national semifinals, the Cardinals rallied from an 11-point deficit with 8:14 to play to vanquish then top-ranked Ohio Northern, 82-77.

In his final season at Catholic, Lonergan's team was 10-5 before reeling off 14-consecutive wins to finish the season 24-6. The squad captured the CAC regular-season and tournament titles and reached its seventh-straight NCAA tournament.

Before returning to his alma mater as the youngest head coach in NCAA Division III at 26, Lonergan served as an assistant coach at Colgate University for three seasons from 1989-1992. There, he served as the top recruiter for his former college coach, the late Jack Bruen, who was named Patriot League Coach of the Year in Lonergan's final season with the Red Raiders.

Lonergan also served as an assistant coach at American International College in Springfield, Mass., from 1988-89 while earning his master's degree.

Presidential Honor

Lonergan earned many accolades during his time at Catholic University, but perhaps the greatest came a few weeks after he announced his decision to join the Terrapins. In May of 2004 at Catholic University's commencement ceremony, Lonergan was honored with the university's highest award, the President's Medal. The honor - given for extraordinary service to the Catholic church, the nation and to CUA - recognizes those who share the vision and exemplify the ideals of Catholic University.

In 2000 Lonergan was presented with the first-ever Jack Bruen Award for "unending dedication to the game of basketball." In 2001, he received the CUA Young Alumni Merit Award, an honor he shares with others such as New York Yankees General Manager Brian Cashman.

Lonergan, who served as an associate athletics director in addition to his coaching responsibilities at Catholic, founded the CUA Hardwood Club that raised $30,000 annually for the basketball program. He is an active member of Coaches vs. Cancer, the Special Olympics and the Knights of Columbus.

Lonergan graduated from Catholic in 1988, earning a B.A. in history. As a senior co-captain and starting point guard, he helped guide the team to a mark of 18-8, averaging 8.5 points, 5.2 assists, 3.0 rebounds and 2.3 steals per game. In 1985-86, the three-year starter helped the Cards (19-8) win the ECAC South Region Tournament.

Lonergan, a native of Bowie, Md., is married to Catholic University's women's basketball coach, the former Maggie Meagher, who led her squad to its finest season ever in 2003-04. They have two children - a son Jack (5), and daughter Margaret (4).

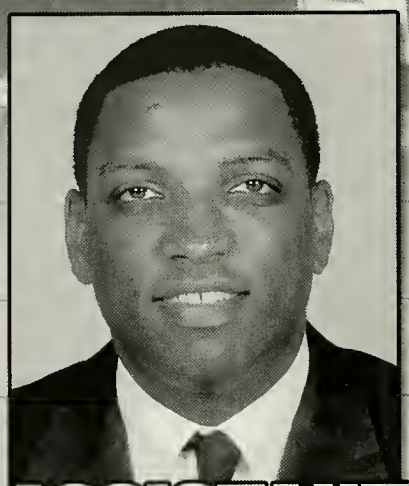
KEITH BOOTH



ASSISTANT COACH

MARYLAND '03

FIRST YEAR AT MARYLAND

In his first season on Gary Williams' coaching staff, former Terrapin All-American and NBA World Champion Keith Booth returns to place he called home from 1994-97. A powerful and versatile athlete from his playing days in the post, Booth led the Terrapins to four NCAA Tournaments, including a pair of Sweet Sixteen appearances, and in 1994 began Maryland's streak of what is now 11-consecutive NCAA berths.

In a dominant senior season at Maryland, Booth led the Terps in scoring (19.5 ppg), rebounding (7.9 rpg) and steals (2.0 spg) and is still Maryland's all-time leader in free throws made (576). Booth finished his impressive career at Maryland among the Terps' all-time leaders in scoring (8th, 1,776 points), rebounding (6th, 916 points), steals (5th, 193) and is one of 15 players to have his jersey honored above the Terps' home court at Comcast Center.

Charm City Connection

The Baltimore, Md., native's decision to attend the University out of Dunbar High School was considered one of the major recruiting windfalls for Williams and the Terps in the mid-1990s. As a 6-6 guard, Booth was frequently called upon by Williams to guard bigger opponents, and he always rose to occasion.

"Keith Booth was the most important recruit during my years here in terms of getting our basketball program to the national level," said Williams when Booth was introduced as an assistant coach at his alma mater. "Keith always achieved success against larger opponents, and his competitive attitude will carry over to our players."

As a senior at Dunbar, Booth was a Parade and McDonald's All-American selection, he also led his team to the Maryland Class "A" State Championship. Booth was named "Player of the Year" in Baltimore City and the state of Maryland by the Baltimore Sun. A year earlier Booth led his Dunbar squad to a 29-0 record as a junior, helping the team to a No.1 national ranking by USA Today.

It was Booth's decision to attend Maryland that revived the Terps' recruiting pipeline to talent-rich Baltimore. Terrapin star Rodney Elliott followed Booth from the Charm City and enjoyed a successful career as a Terp, and in 1998 another Baltimore native, Juan Dixon, arrived on campus. Dixon, of course, would help continue Maryland's resurgence begun by Booth and teammate Joe Smith, as he eventually became the Terps' all-time scoring leader and keyed Maryland to the 2002 National Championship.

Now back at Maryland to help extend the NCAA tournament streak that he helped begin, Booth will assist in all facets of the basketball program. Booth will work with the athletics department's Academic Support and Career Development to ensure that the team's academic responsibilities are met. He will contribute to the on court coaching, opponent scouting, and recruiting. He will also assume responsibilities as the co-director of the Gary Williams basketball camp, coordinating the management of the coaches, scheduling of the facilities, housing, meals and guest speakers.

Proven Champion

After a stellar career at Maryland playing alongside Smith, Elliott Johnny Rhodes and others, Booth was an AP third team All-America selection as a senior in 1997. Booth left Maryland with a host of accolades including All-ACC honors four times over, earning first team honors as a senior, third team as a junior, and honorable mention designation during his freshman and sophomore seasons.

Booth's teams appeared in two NCAA Sweet Sixteens, finishing his sophomore season as ACC Regular Season Co-Champions and ranked No. 10 in the country in the final AP poll. That year (1994-95) the Terps compiled a 26-8 record, including a perfect 16-0 record at Cole Field House. Booth finished his Terrapin career with averages of 14.1 points per game and 7.3 rebounds.

After his playing years at Maryland, Booth was a first round draft pick of the Chicago Bulls in 1997, taken as the #28 selection overall. Booth became the second player in school history to win a NBA Championship when the Michael Jordan-led Bulls won the title in 1998. Booth had his best NBA game on March 30, 1999, as he posted career highs of 18 points, nine rebounds and six assists against the Philadelphia 76ers.

Following a pair of seasons in the NBA, Booth returned to campus and finished his degree in criminology and criminal justice in 2003. Booth worked at an after school program at his former high school Dunbar, and rediscovered his love of coaching while managing a middle school baseball team in Baltimore.

TROY WAINWRIGHT

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

NINTH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Troy Wainwright, the director of basketball operations, is in his ninth year as a member of Gary Williams' staff. He is an essential part of the success of the team, both on and off the court, and is responsible for the administration of the basketball office.

Wainwright is responsible for all internal operations of the basketball program and serves as a liaison to the athletics department including Deborah Yow, Maryland's director of athletics. He is involved in the day-to-day operations of the team, including budgetary matters, team travel, on-campus housing and dining contracts. In addition, Wainwright is responsible for non-conference scheduling and works with the conference office to coordinate the Terps' ACC schedule.

A native of Berlin, Md., Wainwright has played an integral role in the Terps' success since his arrival. The Terps have appeared in the NCAA Tournament eight times, won the NCAA championship in 2002 and captured the ACC title in 2004. Maryland has averaged nearly 25 wins during his eight seasons with the team, despite playing the second-toughest schedule in the nation a season ago, the third most difficult in 2002 and the fifth most arduous in 1998. In 2003, 1998 and 1999 the Terps advanced to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament, and in 1999, Maryland won 28 games and was ranked fifth in the nation. In 2001, the Terps advanced to the Final Four and were ranked No. 4 in final rankings by USA Today/ESPN, and of course, in 2002 the Maryland basketball family captured its first-ever national championship and finished with a No. 1 ranking.

Among Wainwright's chief responsibilities is the administration of team travel plans. Wainwright coordinates all transportation (air and ground) as well as hotel accommodations. During his tenure, Wainwright has successfully coordinated travel to eight NCAA Tournaments, eight ACC Tournaments, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Madison Square Garden, as well as every regular season game. Wainwright successfully directed the Terrapins up and down the East Coast during the 2002 NCAA championship run, to Nashville and San Antonio as part of Maryland's 2003 Sweet Sixteen campaign, and to Denver for a school-record 11th straight NCAA appearance in 2004.

This past summer, Wainwright played an integral role in coordinating travel for the Terrapins during a 12-day, five-game tour of Italy.

Wainwright serves as the director of the annual Gary Williams golf tournament that raises money to endow scholarships for the basketball program. The tournament has raised more than $265,000 during the eight years since Wainwright's arrival. As tournament director, Wainwright helps solicit sponsorships and participants, and helps with event management on the day of the event. In addition, he coordinates team and individual player awards and a silent auction.

Wainwright also serves as the co-director of the Gary Williams basketball camp each summer. He helps coordinate virtually every aspect of the camp including housing, meals and camp speakers. The 2002-04 Gary Williams camps were the largest in its history, attracting more than 1,200 overnight campers each over a three-week period in each of the last three summers.

A Terp Returns

Wainwright was a sociology major at the University of Maryland and went on to work as an account manager with the Washington Bullets from 1992-1994. He then served as an advertising account executive at the Washington Times from 1994-96. He completed a degree at University of Maryland, University College in 2004.

Wainwright served as head manager for the basketball team during Williams' first season at Maryland, 1990, and accompanied the Terps as they advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. He served as an assistant manager for the three years preceding Williams' arrival in College Park.

ANDREW NOVICK

Graduate Assistant
(Chicago '99)
2nd Year at Maryland

Andrew Novick is in his second season as the graduate assistant on Gary Williams' staff. He joined the Terrapins for their 2003-04 ACC Championship campaign, making his return to basketball after three years in corporate America and a stint as the assistant varsity basketball coach at Cheverus High School in Portland, Maine.

Novick, who hails from the same hometown and attended the same high school as current Terrapin Nik Caner-Medley, became Maryland basketball's inaugural graduate assistant after being introduced to the program during the 2003 Gary Williams Basketball Camp.

Novick, who is also currently pursuing a MBA in Maryland's Robert H. Smith School of Business, assists in the day-to-day activities of the basketball office. Novick's responsibilities include: supporting recruiting, assisting in the management of Coach Williams' daily schedule, supervising the student-managers and assisting in operations.

After earning a varsity letter and captaining Deering High's basketball team, Novick earned a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Chicago in 1999. During his college years he managed and coached in the Yes! To Youth program in Portland, Maine, a basketball clinic that serves approximately 400 middle and high schoolers annually.

Novick resides in College Park.

J.J. BUSH

Athletic Trainer
(Florida State '69)
33rd Year at Maryland

J.J. Bush is in his 13th season as the athletic trainer for Gary Williams and the Terrapin men's basketball program. The past 12 years represents his second stint working with the program for the University of Maryland 30-Year Service Award winner, as he was also the team's trainer from 1972-1976.

As the trainer for the basketball team, Bush coordinates the daily medical treatments for all the players and supervises all rehabilitative efforts in cases of injury. In the last 11 years Bush has accompanied the Terrapins to 11 NCAA Tournaments, including seven Sweet Sixteen appearances, two Final Fours and the national title game in 2002.

Bush came to the university in 1972 as an assistant trainer and began working immediately with the men's basketball team. The team won the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season championship in 1975 and averaged 23 wins per season during his first four-year stint.

From 1979 until 1992, Bush served as the head trainer of the Terrapin football team, which claimed four ACC championships and played in nine bowl games during that era. In 1992 he returned to Cole Field House and the basketball team as an assistant to the athletics director.

In addition to his training duties, Bush teaches basic and advanced courses on care and prevention of athletic injuries in Maryland's College of Health and Human Performance, and is a frequent lecturer throughout the Mid-Atlantic region of the United States.

Bush is active in the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), and has worked extensively within the organization on improving athletic training methods. He has served on the governmental affairs committee at the national level and is a past president of the Maryland Athletic Trainers Association.

A native of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Bush, 58, graduated from Florida State University in 1969. He and his wife Gina have two children, Brandon and Jordan, and reside in University Park, Md.

CRAIG FITZGERALD

Strength & Conditioning Coach
(Maryland '96)
5th Year at Maryland

Class of 1996 Maryland grad Craig Fitzgerald is in his second season as Terrapin basketball's strength and conditioning coach. Fitzgerald, who was a three-year letterwinner at tight end for the Terrapin football program, returned to his alma mater as an assistant strength coach in 2000 and took the role as Maryland basketball's strength coach prior to their ACC Championship season in 2003-04.

Fitzgerald works with Maryland's men's basketball players in the preseason and throughout the year to improve the Terps' levels of performance and reduce the risk of injury. He works with the Maryland coaching staff to implement a training program that emphasizes strength, speed, flexibility and conditioning, enabling the Terrapins to play the up-tempo style of basketball that has become Gary Williams' trademark.

One of nine Terrapin alumni on the basketball staff, Fitzgerald has spent the last five years as the head strength and conditioning coach for Maryland's men's lacrosse, wrestling and women's volleyball programs, while assisting Dwight Galt with the strength and conditioning program of the Terps' football squad.

As a player, Fitzgerald was a four-time dean's list and ACC Honor Roll member. He graduated with a double degree in government & politics and history in May of 1996, and held strength posts at The Catholic University of America and Arizona State University before returning to his alma mater.

PAT SHANNON

Video Director
(Maryland '95)
9th Year at Maryland

Pat Shannon is in his sixth season directing video services for the men's basketball team. Shannon, who was promoted in January 2001 to head the coaches' video and production needs of the Maryland athletics department, is in his ninth year at the university and has worked with Gary Williams' staff since 1999.

As the video director for men's basketball, Shannon's specific duties include: utilizing the state-of-the-art networked SportsCode digital video analysis system to edit opponent game film, scout tapes, self-scout tapes and player clips; filming all Maryland games; overseeing film exchange and coordinating the acquisition, dubbing and management of the opponent game film library. Shannon also provides support for the basketball staff at the Gary Williams summer basketball camps, the Gary Williams Golf Invitational and the annual season honors banquet.

Shannon has accompanied the Terps to their last five NCAA Tournaments, including Maryland's two Final Four appearances. Throughout the year he works to oversee the video needs of the athletics department's 27 intercollegiate sports programs with the exception of day-to-day football duties. During the Comcast Center construction, Shannon oversaw the design and implementation of the video operation and production facility, including the video boards used during Maryland athletics events and other university-wide activities.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Shannon received a degree in journalism from Maryland in 1995. He resides in Waldorf, Md.

CLEO LONG-THOMAS

Administrative Assistant to the Head Coach
17th Year at Maryland

Cleo Long-Thomas is in her 15th season as the administrative assistant to head coach Gary Williams and her 17th year overall at the University of Maryland. She coordinates the professional schedules of Coach Williams and assists the coaching staff. In addition, she is responsible for the overall administration and the day-to-day managerial duties of the basketball office.

Long-Thomas coordinates Williams' schedule for departmental meetings, out-of-town speaking engagements and appearances. She also coordinates travel arrangements for the entire coaching staff and is responsible for all of the senior day activities at the final home game of each season. In the postseason, Long-Thomas plans and coordinates the Terps' annual honors banquet including all invitations, decorations, seating and banquet room setup. The original administrative coordinator of the Gary Williams Basketball Camp, Long-Thomas still assists with day-to-day camp activities such as application and registration.

Long-Thomas and her husband, Jocquin, are the proud parents of three children: Tyrone, 36, Jabari, 30, and Raven, 21. Tyrone and his wife Yolanda have given Long-Thomas two grandchildren, T.J., 8, and Joven, 4.

CAROLE BUCCO

Admin. Asst. to the Asst. Coaches
(Maryland '93)
6th Year at Maryland

Carole Bucco is in her sixth year working with the University of Maryland men's basketball program, serving as the administrative assistant to the assistant coaches for recruiting.

Bucco coordinates all recruiting correspondence and mail-outs to prospective Maryland basketball players. In addition, she assists the coaches in preparation of scouting reports and with film exchange throughout the season and is responsible for assisting in the coordination, planning and registration of the annual Gary Williams summer basketball camp.

Bucco graduated from the University of Maryland in 1993. Upon commencement, she worked for the University of Maryland, University College for two years, and then for two small companies before returning to her alma mater. Bucco is a resident of Columbia, Md.

MIKE CEFARATTI

Assistant Equipment Manager
(Maryland '01)
4th Year at Maryland

One of the nine men's basketball staff members to have attended the University of Maryland, Mike Cefaratti is now in his fourth season as the equipment manager for the men's basketball team. Cefaratti graduated with a family studies degree in 2001 after attending nearby DeMatha High School.

Cefaratti's chief responsibilities include ordering and issuing game uniforms and practice gear for the squad, and laundry services for the team at home and on the road. Cefaratti traveled with the Terrapins to the last three NCAA Tournaments, including the entire run to the 2002 NCAA title.

A four-year student-manager with the football team under Maryland head equipment manager Ron Ohringer, Cefaratti was made a full-time member of the athletics staff after his graduation. In addition to his responsibilities with the men's basketball team, he serves as the equipment manager for the women's basketball, wrestling, volleyball, field hockey and softball teams.

MIKE GRINNON

FORWARD
HUNTINGTON, N.Y.
ST. DOMINIC
SENIOR, 3V

On Grinnon: The Terps' lone scholarship senior is the only men's basketball player in school history to have captured both the NCAA and ACC titles ... the only Terrapin remaining from Maryland's 2002 national championship squad ... a fundamentally sound shooter with ever-improving size and strength ... expected to contribute for the Terps as a small forward but can also play shooting guard ... played a reserve role at both positions during his sophomore and junior campaigns ... a leader for the Terps off the court as the recipient of the 2003 and 2004 WBAL Academic Award.

Williams on Grinnon: "Without Mike's play when it mattered last year, we probably would not have won the ACC Championship. He made the two free throws, played good defense and handled the ball pretty well against a great team. I was really happy for Mike because you tell players all the time that they'll get their chance, and Mike got a chance in a key situation and he came through for us. I think Mike, because of that, will look at his senior year a little differently. He's finishing up his career, and I think he feels like he's got a shot to get some playing time, so we'll see what happens."

As a Junior in 2002-03: Put in the most clutch performance of his career in the ACC title game vs. Duke (March 14) ... sank a pair of crucial free throws in overtime, giving the Terps an 87-82 lead with 50 seconds to play ... registered a career-high 10 minutes, all the while playing defense against Duke's J.J. Redick ... averaged a career-best 4.1 minutes per game while seeing action in 11 contests as a junior ... eclipsed his career mark with 11 rebounds on the year ... lone field goal of the season came in the first half vs. Clemson (Feb. 24) ... notched a career-high four rebounds and tied his personal best with two assists vs. Md.-Eastern Shore (Jan. 6) ... grabbed a pair of rebounds and made 1-of-2 free throws vs. West Virginia in BB&T Classic (Dec. 7) ... had a career-high tying two assists in three minutes vs. Gonzaga (Dec. 6) in the BB&T ... first point of the season came on a free throw vs. the Bulldogs ... recipient of the Terps' 2004 WBAL Academic Award.

As a Sophomore in 2002-03: Averaged 3.7 mpg while contributing in 11 games for the Terps ... shot a career-high .455 from the field and .400 from 3-point range as a sophomore ... doubled his rebounding total from his freshman to sophomore season ... registered a career-high six points in six minutes vs. Hampton (Jan. 8), going 2-for-3 from the field and drilling a 3-pointer ... also tallied his first career blocked shot vs. the Pirates ... established a career-high ACC point total one game later by netting five points, including a 2-for-2 performance from the field, against Florida State (Jan. 11) ... splashed in a 3-pointer during Maryland's 40-point victory over league-rival North Carolina (Feb. 22) ... scored his first two points of the season by converting 2-of-2 free throws vs. The Citadel (Nov. 27) and grabbed two rebounds ... posted a nearly identical stat line one game later with two points and two boards against Duquesne (Nov. 30), playing a season-high six minutes ... recipient of the Terps' 2003 WBAL Academic Award.

As a Freshman in 2001-02: Swingman who played behind Byron Mouton and Drew Nicholas, appearing in 16 games ... made his collegiate debut against American (Nov. 17) ... registered his first college points against Delaware State (Nov. 24) ... recorded an assist vs. William & Mary (Dec. 27) ... drilled a 3-pointer and pulled down a rebound in a four-minute ACC debut against North Carolina (Jan. 9) ... recorded his first collegiate steal at Clemson (Feb. 20) ... logged his first career NCAA Tournament minutes vs. Wisconsin (March 17) in the Terps' second round game.

At St. Dominic High School: Graduated in 2001 from St. Dominic High School in Oyster Bay, N.Y. ... averaged 19.0 points per game while leading St. Dom's to a No. 14 final ranking in the 2001 N.Y. State Class A Poll ... named team MVP and earned first team all-league honors ... led the perennial Long Island powerhouse Bayhawks to a season-high No. 3 ranking during his senior year ... scored 21 points in the regular season finale against Holy Trinity, with a first quarter 3-pointer pushing him over the 1,000-point mark for his career ... had 29 points including a 5-of-6 performance from 3-point range against St. John the Baptist ... had 22 points and seven rebounds, including a game-tying 3-pointer at the end of regulation, in a triple-overtime thriller against St. Ray's ... averaged 16 points and seven rebounds as a junior ... teamed with former teammate Andre Collins at the Charm City Challenge in Baltimore, scoring four points ... played against former Terp teammate Drew Nicholas while he was in high school at Long Island Lutheran.

Personal: Michael Robert Grinnon ... born Dec. 18, 1982 ... son of Karen and Hugh Grinnon ... has two older brothers, Jonathan (28) and Thomas (25) ... enjoys music, golf and political science ... lists George W. Bush and Shannon Patrick as two of the people he most admires ... favorite athlete is Michael Jordan ... favorite musician is Jimmy Buffett ... a member of his high school's National Honor Society, student ambassadors and S.A.D.D. (Students Against Destructive Decisions) ... majoring in communication.

ROXBURY, N.J.
SETON HALL PREP

SENIOR, 2V

On Henry: Determined, physical walk-on player who practiced with the Terps through much of their national championship season in 2002 and saw game action across the last two seasons ... an agile and versatile big man who concentrates his efforts toward preparing the Terps for each upcoming opponent, and has earned minutes at the small and power forward positions ... a long-reaching post player with tremendous leaping ability ... joined the team as a walk-on after dominating play at the Campus Recreation Center and in the intramural leagues in his first two years of college.

Williams on Henry: "Darien's contributions have been amazing to our team. Every day in practice he blocks somebody's shot. Very rarely do you get a walk on with the ability that Darien has. Darien could play a role this year, without a doubt, and to see him combine being an engineering major with being a basketball player has really been something for me to admire. His whole day is taken up with those two things and he does a great job in both areas."

As a Junior in 2003-04: Played in nine games and averaged 2.2 minutes for the Terps as a junior ... maintained a career .500 field goal percentage, connecting on two of his four attempts on the season ... scored in back-to-back games with buckets vs. Pepperdine (Dec. 14) and UNC Greensboro (Dec. 23) ... played a career-high five minutes vs. American in season-opener (Nov. 22), later tying that mark vs. the Waves (Dec. 14) ... grabbed a season-high two boards and added a block and a steal against the Eagles in the Terps' season-opening win ... came off the bench for one minute apiece vs. ACC opponents Clemson (Feb. 24) and Wake Forest (Feb. 28) ... saw first ACC action of the season with a minute late in the first half at Virginia (Feb. 4) .... played three minutes vs. UMES (Jan. 6) and recorded a steal ... his action against the Hawks marked his fourth appearance across a five-game stretch ... recipient of the 2004 Maryland Basketball "Mr. Hustle" Award.

As a Sophomore in 2002-03: Saw action in nine games ... made the most of his opportunities, scoring in five of nine games played and finishing the season shooting .500 from the field ... made his only shot attempt in two minutes vs. Loyola (Feb. 2) ... grabbed a career-high three rebounds in three minutes vs. Florida State (Jan. 11) ... threw down a slam dunk and made one steal in one minute played against Wagner (Jan. 4) ... played three minutes vs. UMBC and registered his first points as a collegian, scoring three and adding a rebound (Dec. 23) ... saw two minutes of action vs. Duquesne (Nov. 30) and contributed an assist and a steal ... made his collegiate debut vs. The Citadel (Nov. 27) and registered a blocked shot.

At Seton Hall Prep High School: Graduated from Seton Hall Prep School in spring 2000 ... played just one year of varsity basketball, as a senior during 2000 when he averaged 3.5 points per game ... he also ran track during his senior year, participating in the high hurdles and high jump.

Personal: Darien George Henry ... born September 19, 1983 ... son of Vivian and George Henry ... an only child ... a member of the National Honor Society in high school, and a member of the Key Scholar Program at Maryland ... attends the university on a partial academic scholarship ... favorite sports movie is "Blue Chips" ... majoring in computer engineering.

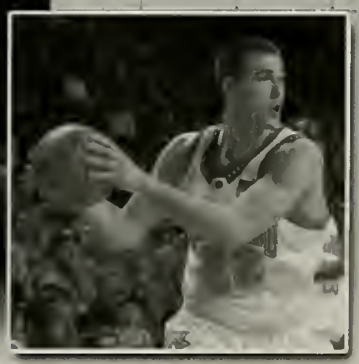
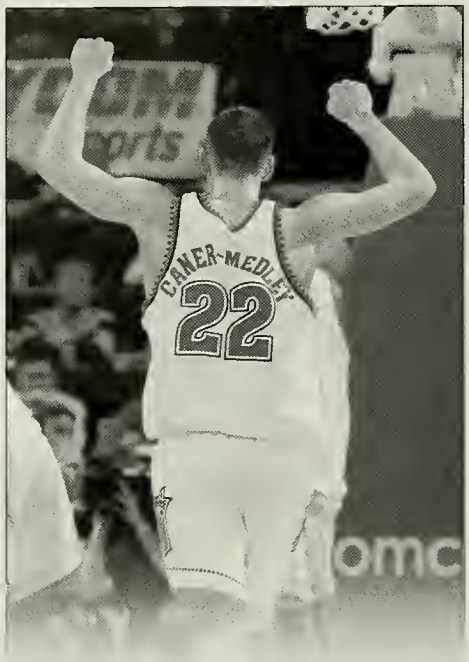
JUNIOR, 2V





On Caner-Medley: A versatile and physical athlete that can play the small and power forward positions ... an aggressive, slashing scorer who owns a shooter's touch and the ability to hit from long range ... left-hander possesses tremendous ball-handling skills for a player his size ... 50 career starts is the most for any current Terrapin ... one of three Maryland players from the state of Maine in school history, including Gary Williams' teammate Joe Harrington and Jon MacDonald in the late 1960s ... worked alongside Michael Jordan and other top collegiate players at the Michael Jordan Flight School in August 2004 ... on the Terps' summer Italian Tour, was a perfect 5-for-5 in double-figure scoring contests ... averaged 16.4 points per game in Italy, including a 25-point effort in the win over Pistoia, and 5.8 rebounds per contest ... recipient of first-ever LeFrak Foundation Scholarship for men's basketball in 2003.

Williams on Caner-Medley: "Nik had some great games early last season, especially in some of our non-conference games against teams like Florida. As the year went on, I thought Nik got worn down a little bit, but he is stronger now and has worked hard in this offseason. As a left-handed player he has some advantages out there on the court, but he's got to get where he's more involved in every play. In other words, when he doesn't have the ball, he's got to do more things for us this year as a junior."

As a Sophomore in 2003-04: Terp starter in all 32 contests ... finished third on team in scoring with 12.2 points per game and was the Terps' high-scorer in eight contests, including six of the first ten games ... third on the squad in rebounding (4.7 rpg), assists (55) and blocked shots (34) ... put in a career-best performance to spark the Terps in a win at No. 1 Florida (Dec. 10) ... poured in 22 points (one below career-high) with six points in overtime ... set or tied career bests vs. Florida in field goals attempted (16), 3-point field goals (3), 3-point field goals attempted (7), rebounds (13, previous career-high was eight) and minutes played (43) ... his 22 points and 13 boards vs. Gators marked his first career double-double ... earned the Maryland Basketball "Clutch Performance of the Year" Award for his effort against Florida ... second career double-double came with a 15 point, 10 rebound effort at Florida State (Dec. 28) ... totaled 12 points, including 2-for-4 3-pointers and 4-for-4 free throws in the Terps' NCAA First Round victory over UTEP (March 18) ... was one of five Terrapins in double figures with 13 points vs. Wake in ACC Quarterfinals (March 12) ... put in a 6-for-6 effort at the free throw line and grabbed eight rebounds vs. the Deacons ... registered 13 points vs. Virginia (March 7) with eight rebounds in a "must win" for the Terps to close out the season ... netted 13 of his 20 points in the second half vs. Wake Forest at home (Feb .28), and contributed four rebounds and three blocks ... one of five Maryland players in double figures in the Terps' home victory over Florida State (Feb. 8) with 14 points and a career-high tying four blocks ... led five Terps in double figures at Wake Forest (Jan. 29) with 15 points ... paced Terrapins with 21 points vs. Duke (Jan. 21) at home, scoring 13 in the final 9:21 of game ... grabbed a team-high eight rebounds vs. the Blue Devils ... scored 11 of his 17 points in the second half during Maryland's home win over North Carolina (Jan. 14) and added three rejections ... led Terps with 19 points vs. UNC-Greensboro (Dec. 23) and dished a career-high tying four assists ... made a clutch free throw with two seconds remaining in regulation to send the Wisconsin game into overtime for a Terp victory (Dec. 2) ... led the Terps with a career-high 23 points vs. George Mason (Nov. 25), and also contributed seven boards and three assists.

As a Freshman in 2002-03: Became the first true freshman to start regularly at Maryland since Steve Blake in 1999-00, totaling 18 starts in 31 games ... shared time with Calvin McCall at small forward, averaging 5.9 ppg and 3.5 rpg in his first collegiate season ... averaged 6.0 ppg and 2.0 rpg in the Terps' three NCAA Tournament games despite missing most of the Michigan State tilt (March 28) after injuring his ankle ... started nine of the team's last 11 games ... shot 20-of-33 (.606) from the field across the Terps' last eight games ... contributed 12 points and two rebounds in NCAA Tournament opening win over UNC Wilmington (March 21) ... added nine points and five rebounds in Maryland's ACC quarterfinal game vs. North Carolina (Feb. 22) ... after seven games as a reserve, returned to starting lineup vs. Florida State (Feb. 12) , playing 17 minutes and grabbing four rebounds ... made nine straight starts before coming off the bench to score eight against No. 1 Duke (Jan. 18) ... registered then-career highs for points (14), FG (7), FGA (14) and minutes (26) in coming off the bench at Georgia Tech (Feb. 9) ... led the team in rebounds (7, including five offensive) and also had seven points in 18 minutes off the bench against Virginia (Feb. 6) ... scored nine points on 4-of-5 shooting, with three rebounds, three assists and five steals vs. NC State (Jan. 30) ... collected six rebounds in 12 minutes in the Terps' gritty road win at Clemson (Jan. 25) ... made first career start against Notre Dame (Dec. 7), contributing eight points, seven rebounds and four steals in 22 minutes in the BB&T Classic opening round ... started the second game of the BB&T Classic, scoring five points with two rebounds in 18 minutes against George Washington (Dec. 8).

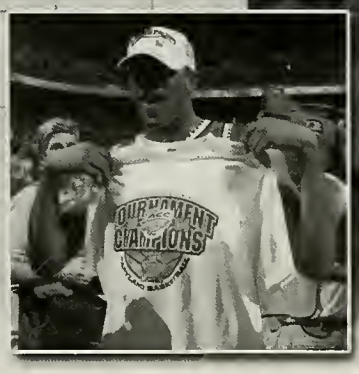
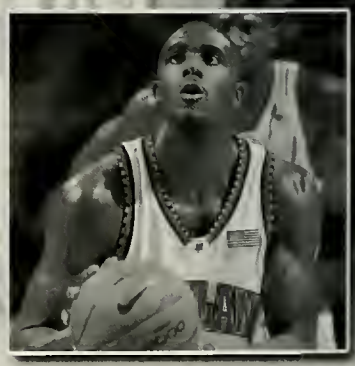
JUNIOR, 2V





On Garrison: Powerful post player who can score inside or outside ... can play with his back or front to the basket, rebound and defend in the interior ... earned second team ACC All-Tournament honors after a tremendous effort during the Terrapins' championship weekend ... Maryland's top returning rebounder at 5.2 boards per game ... soft-shooting big man that continues to take his game inside ... one of the ACC's top shotblockers after two seasons among league leaders ... has been working diligently on all areas of his game during the offseason, and was the Terps' MVP during Maryland's Italian Tour in August ... averaged 16.4 points and 11.0 rebounds across the Terps' five games in Italy ... top performances included an 18-point, 18-rebound effort against Pistoia, and a 27-point, 12-rebound performance during the Terps' comeback against Varese.

Williams On Garrison: "Travis really played well for us down the stretch. He got more playing time as a sophomore and took advantage of that and became a stronger inside player. Travis has always been able to shoot, but he proved I think to himself as much as anyone that he can also be a power player to go along with the shooting."

As a Sophomore in 2003-04: Played in 32 games, drawing 25 starts and playing 21.8 minutes per game ... averaged a career-high 7.8 points per game to go along with 5.2 rebounds, making him the Terps' top returner on the boards ... stepped up his play during the postseason, averaging 13.0 points and 6.3 rebounds to earn second team ACC All-Tournament accolades ... totaled 39 points, 19 rebounds, four blocks and shot 12-for-24 (.500) from the floor over the three tournament games ... also posted impressive numbers during the Terps' NCAA Second Round game vs. Syracuse, scoring a team-high tying 16 points and grabbing a team-high tying nine rebounds ... registered 12 double-figure scoring games with nine double-digit performances coming in the Terps' last 17 games ... averaged 9.8 ppg over last 12 contests and 12.4 ppg during the postseason ... his 5.2 rebounds per game average ranked second on the squad and he averaged 7.0 rebounds during the NCAA Tournament ... ranked second on the squad with 36 blocked shots, finishing ninth in the ACC with 1.1 blocks per game ... totaled nine multi-rejection games and established a career-high with four blocked shots twice ... established a career-high with 19 points on 5-for-7 field goal shooting, including a 3-for-4 mark from 3-point range, in the Terps' ACC Championship victory over Duke (March 14) ... also chipped in seven boards, two blocks and two steals against the Blue Devils in the title game ... posted his first career double-double with a team-high 16 points and 10 boards in the Terps' ACC Quarterfinal win over Wake Forest (March 12) ... also added three assists vs. the Demon Deacons ... tallied 10 points and three blocks in 19 minutes at home vs. Wake Forest (Feb. 28) ... scored 11 points on 4-for-8 shooting, including a 2-of-3 performance from 3-point range, at Duke (Feb. 22) ... paced Terrapins in scoring with 16 points at home vs. Georgia Tech (Feb. 19), and added seven rebounds ... grabbed a career-best 10 rebounds in back-to-back games vs. Virginia (Feb. 4) and Florida State (Feb. 8)... led the Terps with a career-high four assists vs. Seminoles ... netted 11 points with five boards on the road vs. Clemson (Jan. 25), followed by 13 points and five rebounds at Wake Forest (Jan. 29) ... nailed game-winning 19-foot jumper - his only basket of the game with 19 seconds left in overtime to lift the Terps to win over No.1 Florida in Gainesville (Dec. 10) ... added seven rebounds and a career-high tying four blocks in a career-most 30 minutes ... put forth a 12-point, four-rebound, three-block effort against Hofstra (Nov. 29) ... tallied nine points with eight rebounds in 20 minutes in the Terps' season-opener vs. American (Nov. 22).

As a Freshman in 2002-03: Played in 30 games and started six, averaging 4.0 points and 3.1 rebounds in first college season ... scored five points and grabbed seven rebounds in the Terps' three NCAA Tournament games, including a five-point, five-rebound effort in Maryland's second-round victory over Xavier (March 23) ... led the Terps in rebounding in four games ... added five points and three rebounds in seven minutes vs. Virginia (March 9) ... played 19 minutes and scored eight points on 4-of-7 shooting against Loyola (Feb. 2) ... sparked the Terps to a 15-0 run in a low-scoring first half with five straight points at Clemson (Jan. 25) ... registered seven points and three assists against Florida State (Jan. 11) in his second ACC game ... netted eight points and grabbed eight rebounds against UMBC (Dec. 23) in his first college start ... joined Nik Caner-Medley that game in becoming the first pair of true freshmen to start for Maryland since March 16, 2000, when Tahj Holden and Steve Blake started against Iona in the NCAA Tournament ... played 26 minutes against No. 10 Indiana (Dec. 3) in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge, contributing eight points, four rebounds and a pair of blocks ... season high 11 points with seven rebounds and three steals against Duquesne ... registered a team-high six rebounds in his first collegiate contest against Miami (Ohio) (Nov. 24) ... also led all newcomers with 22 minutes in that game, and finished with eight points ... scored the first basket of the season by a Maryland newcomer with 13:51 remaining in the first half against Miami (Ohio).

GARRISON UP CLOSE ...

CD in my CD player: The Black Album, Jay-Z.

GUARD

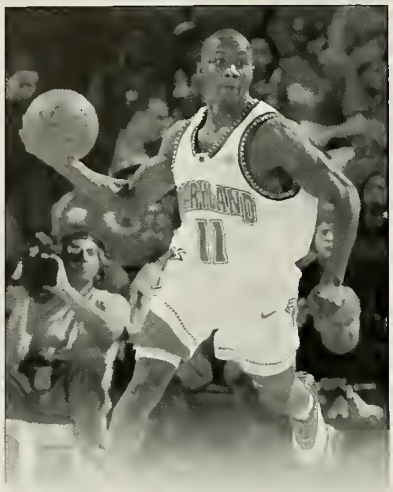
SALEM

6-3 • 194

JUNIOR, 2V



On Gilchrist: A tough, physical point guard who runs the floor with proficiency and possesses an uncanny ability to finish ... ACC Tournament MVP and third team All-ACC selection is Maryland's top returning scorer (15.4 points per game) and assist man (159) ... finished sixth in the ACC in scoring, fifth in assists (5.0 apg) and eighth in steals (1.8 spg) ... became the first Terrapin to lead his team in scoring and assists since Walt Williams (1990-91), and the first point guard to lead Maryland in scoring since John Lucas (1973-74) ... named to the Preseason John R. Wooden Award "Watch List" ... worked alongside Michael Jordan and other top collegiate players at the Michael Jordan Flight School and Nike Camp in August 2004 ... characterized as a winner and a competitor, and lists former Terp Juan Dixon as one of his all-time favorite players ... attended Maryland's summer youth basketball camp since he was nine years old.

Williams on Gilchrist: "John certainly made a big splash at the end of the year, with the way he played in the ACC Tournament, and that was in his first year as a starter. He got the opportunity to play with Steve Blake for a year, which was good, and now John has his own identity at the point guard position. I expect John to continue to improve as a player and part of that is being more consistent. He had ups and downs like a lot of sophomores do, and now he is a junior and I expect the consistency level to be stronger this year."

As a Sophomore in 2003-04: Played in all 32 games and started 30 in his first season as the Terps' primary point guard ... led the squad in minutes per game (34.0), scoring (15.4 ppg), assists (159, 5.0 apg) and steals (56, 1.8 spg) ... the first Terrapin to lead his team in scoring and assists since Walt Williams (1990-91), and the first point guard to lead Maryland in scoring since John Lucas (1973-74) ... Terps' leading scorer in 14 games, including eight of the last 12 contests ... averaged 19.4 ppg, shot .571 (36-for-63) from the floor, and hit .524 from behind arc (11-for-21) in five postseason outings ... reached double-figures in scoring in 26 of 32 total games ... netted 18 points with seven boards, five assists and two steals in Maryland's NCAA First Round win over UTEP (March 18) ... unanimously earned ACC Tournament MVP accolades after scoring 26 points with seven rebounds and six assists in the Terps' championship victory over Duke (March 14) ... three-day ACC Tournament total included 72 points (24.0 ppg), 19 assists (6.3 apg), 16 rebounds (5.3 rpg), six steals (2.0 spg), 26-for-41 (.634) field goal shooting, and a staggering 9-for-14 (.643) 3-point performance ... put forth a career effort to bring the Terps back from a 21-point deficit top NC State in ACC Semifinals (March 13)... shot 9-for-9 from the field in the second half, with four 3-pointers, to score 23 of a career-high 30 points ... also added seven assists and four steals ... finished the game 11-of-13 from the floor, including a 4-for-7 mark from 3-point range, in the first 30-point game by a Terrapin since Juan Dixon's 33 vs. Kansas in the Final Four (March 30, 2002) and first 30-point ACC Tournament game since Keith Booth scored 36 vs. Georgia Tech on March 9, 1996 ... 12 of his team-high tying 16 points came in the second half against Wake Forest in the ACC Quarterfinals (March 12), including the game-winning free throw with 3.7 seconds left ... was a perfect 4-for-4 behind the 3-point arc, with six assists and five boards, against the Demon Deacons ... netted 26 points, grabbed four rebounds and dished five assists at home vs. Wake (Feb. 28) ... scored 19 points with six assists and a career-high tying five steals against Clemson (Feb. 24) in College Park ... put in a 14-point effort with eight rebounds at Duke (Feb. 22) ... chipped in 12 points with eight assists and five steals on the road vs. North Carolina (Feb. 15) ... scored 21 of his game-high 26 points at Virginia (Feb. 4) in the first half, and added a tip-in with five seconds left to seal key road win ... netted 12 points and added a career-high tying nine assists at Wake Forest (Jan. 29) ... amassed 27 points on 11-of-19 shooting at Georgia Tech (Jan. 17) and added six rebounds and three steals ... registered 20 points, five boards, five assists and three steals in Maryland's home win over No. 9 North Carolina (Jan. 14)... shot 7-of-10 from the floor, 2-of-3 from long range, and made all four free throw attempts ... named ACC Player of the Week (Dec. 15) after putting in an 18-point, four-rebound, four-assist night in the Terps' victory over No. 1 Florida (Dec. 10), and adding 24 points, seven assists and five rebounds in Maryland's win against Pepperdine (Dec. 14) ... established a career-high with nine assists, and added 12 points and seven rebounds, in Maryland's overtime win over Wisconsin (Dec. 2) ... named the Terrapins' Co-Player of the Year and received the Most Assists award at the Maryland Basketball Honors Banquet in April.

As a Freshman in 2002-03: Powerfully built true freshman who saw time at the point guard position during his first college season ... gave the Terps solid depth in the backcourt as a big guard to create match up difficulties for opponents ... averaged 5.3 points per game and shot .833 (5-for-6) from the field and .857 (6-for-7) from the free throw line across the Terps' three NCAA Tournament games ... totaled 53 points (23-of-33 from field), 23 rebounds and 14 assists in the last eight games of the season ... netted six points and dished three assists in 15 minutes vs. UNC Wilmington in Maryland's NCAA first-round game (March 21) ... registered then-career highs for points (11) and rebounds (9) in Maryland's 40-point victory over North Carolina (Feb. 22) ... scored six points with a pair of driving lay-ups and two free throws during a key 14-2 second half run in a victory at North Carolina (Jan. 22) ... contributed six points and three assists vs. No. 1 Duke (Jan. 18), and combined with Jamar Smith to score 10 straight points while lifting Maryland to a victory over the top-ranked Blue Devils ... scored 10 points to go along with

GILCHRIST UP CLOSE ...

CD in my CD player the most: Startrak or any beat, club or R&B music.
Favorite pro athletes: Jason Kidd, Stephon Marbury and Allen Iverson.
Few people know that I: own about 20 sports jerseys from different pro teams and more than 30 baseball caps.
Favorite Quote: "I put my life on the line and make both free throws." - John Gilchrist.

CHRIS McCRAY

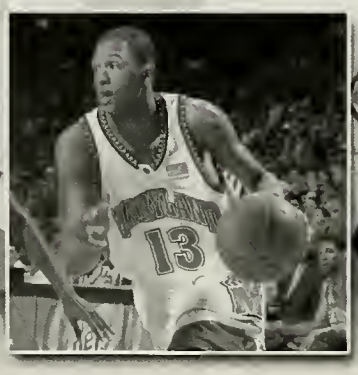
GUARD

CAPITOL HEIGHTS, MD.

FAIRMONT HEIGHTS

6-5 • 195

JUNIOR, 2V



On McCray: Quick, athletic shooting guard who started and played major minutes at the No. 2 position in 2003-04 ... one of the Terps' most versatile defenders, capable of guarding opposing guards and forwards ... excellent ball handler with experience at the point guard postion ... proficient free throw shooter who paced the Terps with a .822 success rate at the line last season ... local scoring star who is one of the most natural shooters on the squad ... sharpshooter and slasher who continues to improve and add strength to his frame ... netted 13.0 points per game on the Terps' summer Italian Tour to go along with 4.0 rebounds and 2.6 steals per contest ... scored at an 80 percent clip from the free throw line in Italy, and put in a tour-best effort against Varese with 24 points, six rebounds four steals and a 9-of-10 mark from the charity stripe.

Williams on McCray: "Chris has really worked hard to get stronger and that has become important when you are shooter. Chris is a big guard, he's about 6-5 now, and can really shoot the ball so I think he gained confidence this offseason and all of last year. Hopefully that translates into his being one of the better shooting guards in the league this year."

As a Sophomore in 2003-04: Contributed in all 32 contests, earning starts in 30 games ... averaged 29.9 minutes per game, ranking third among returning players ... led the Terps by shooting .822 (97-of-118) from the free throw line last season, finishing fifth in the Atlantic Coast Conference and earning the Outstanding Free Throw Shooter award at the Maryland basketball honors banquet in April ... averaged 11.0 points per game, making him one of four Terps to finish in double figures for the season ... improved his scoring average by 7.9 points per game from his freshman to sophomore seasons ... averaged 13.8 points in last nine games as the Terps finished the season with a 7-2 record ... shot .520 (39-for-75) from the floor in the last nine games, including a .360 mark from 3-point range ... stepped up his play in the Terps' two NCAA Tournament games, scoring at a 14.5 ppg clip while shooting .571 from the floor and .909 from the free throw line ... posted 20 double-figure scoring games ... ranked 10th in the ACC and second on the team with a 1.7 steals per game average, and averaged 2.0 steals per game during the NCAA Tournament ... recorded 13 multi-steal games and seven contests with three or more thefts ... had at least one steal in all but four games this season ... also second on the Terps' squad with 90 assists (2.8 per game) ... scored 10 points (including 4-of-4 free throws) vs. Syracuse in NCAA Second Round (March 20) ... paced Terps with 19 points in NCAA win over UTEP (March 18), shooting 5-of-8 from the field, including 3-of-4 from long range and 6-of-7 at the free throw line ... also dished four assists in the Terps' win over the Miners ... contributed 13 points, seven rebounds and four assists against Wake Forest in the ACC Quarterfinals (March 12) ... netted 13 points with three steals in Maryland's comeback win over NC State in the ACC semifinal (March 13) ... scored 15 of his career-high 20 points in a "must-win" at home vs. Virginia (March 7) to pace the Terps ... set career-highs for field goals (seven), field goal attempts (16), 3-point field goals attempted (seven) and blocks (two) against the Cavaliers ... also chipped in five steals to match his season-high ... netted 18 points vs. Wake Forest at home (Feb. 28), hitting 6-of-11 field goals to go along with four rebounds and four assists ... came off the bench to score 14 points on 6-of-8 shooting, adding five boards in 27 minutes during the home win vs. Clemson (Feb. 24) ... led five Terps in double figures with 16 points at UNC (Feb. 15), with six assists and three steals in 30 minutes ... one of five Terps in double figures in the win vs. Florida State (Feb. 8) with 10 points ... shut down FSU's Tim Pickett defensively, allowing him only two points in second half as the Terps pulled away after halftime ... contributed 11 points with five rebounds and three assists on the road against Clemson (Jan. 25) ... followed up a 15-point effort on the road vs. Florida State (Dec. 28) with a 15-point, five-rebound, three-assist performance against Mount. WILL BOWERS

CENTER

ARCHBISHOP SPALDING

SOPHOMORE, 1V

On Bowers: An imposing, physical big man with a shooter's touch ... put forth a tremendous offseason effort and now boasts improved strength and size ... a major component of what should be a deep and impressive Terrapin frontcourt ... a formidable inside presence with all the physical tools necessary to be a competitor ... started four of five games during the Terps' summer Italian Tour.

Williams on Bowers: "Will is a part of that inside team that could be good for us, he just needs some strength to go along with his size. He has a very good touch, and he is working to get a little more comfortable with his back to the basket. In other words, Will has a tendency to shoot face up jump shots, but when you are 7-1 you want to be able to be an inside scoring threat at the same time."

As a Freshman in 2003-04: Saw game action in 19 contests, averaging 5.1 minutes per outing ... saw five contests of 10-plus minutes ... netted a career-high six points on 2-of-2 shooting with 2-of-4 successful free throws against Maryland-Eastern Shore (Jan. 6) ... tied career-high with four rebounds in only 10 minutes at Duke (Feb. 22) ... swatted a career-high two blocked shots at Georgia Tech (Jan. 17) in seven minutes off the bench ... originally recorded career-highs vs. Pepperdine (Dec. 14) with four rebounds and 13 minutes... played nine minutes in the Terps' win at No. 1 Florida (Dec. 10), chipping in with a rebound and the first blocked shot of his career ... earned 10 minutes of playing time vs. American in his collegiate debut (Nov. 22) ... first career collegiate points came at the free throw line vs. Eagles, and also added two boards and a steal ... played in 13 of the Terps' first 15 games of the season.

At Archbishop Spalding High School: Starting center for Archbishop Spalding in Severn, Md. ... averaged 13.5 points per game as a senior to go along with 6.0 rebounds per game ... blocked 76 shots and dealt 40 assists as a senior ... shot 52.8 percent from the floor his final season, helping the Cavaliers to a 26-7 record and a second-place finish in the Baltimore Catholic League and the Maryland Interscholastic Athletic Association A Conference ... named to the Baltimore Sun's All-Metro first team in his senior season after being selected to the second team as a junior ... a BCL/MIAA All-Tournament team member after leading Archbishop Spalding to a second-place finish with a 20.0 points per game average in three tournament games ... finished his high school tenure with 1,100 career points ... a participant in Baltimore's Charm City Challenge with Terrapin teammates Hassan Fofana, D.J. Strawberry and Ekene Ibekwe in April 2003 ... also participated in the Jordan Capital Classic Blue/White game at MCI Center later that month with Strawberry ... high school coach was Mike Glick.

Personal: William Loring Bowers ... born May 4, 1985 ... son of Karen and William "Bill" Bowers, Sr. ... an only child ... also a member of the tennis team in high school ... interests include U.S. history in the post-Civil War era and computers ... hopes to major in business.

HASSAN FOFANA

FORWARD/CENTER
WESTON, MASS.
HOLY NAME
HARGRAVE MILITARY (VA.)
6-10 • 280

On Fofana: A powerful, wide-bodied big man who possesses outstanding quickness and footwork ... a player who entered his freshman season with only three years of organized basketball experience, he improved steadily during his rookie campaign ... put forward a dedicated effort in terms of strength and conditioning this offseason ... gives the Terps a massive presence in the paint and will provide a major impact as he refines his skills and gains more game experience.

Williams on Fofana: "Hassan probably had less experience than any of our other players in terms of playing basketball. Pick-up games were big for Hassan this summer in getting ready for the season, because he needed the game experience. He's probably our strongest inside player, he's very solid, and he did some really good things in some games last year. As he plays more basketball he's going to just keep getting better, as long as his attitude stays the way it is now."

As a Freshman in 2003-04: Big man who became a regular in the Terrapins' frontcourt rotation, playing in each of Maryland's final 18 games and in 28 games overall ... averaged 1.4 points per game and 1.7 rebounds during his inaugural season with the Terps, and improved his numbers to 2.3 ppg and 2.5 rpg during ACC contests ... shot an improved .417 from the field and averaged 10.8 minutes per game during conference games as well ... scored 32 points over the Terps' last 17 games after scoring seven points in Maryland's first 15 games ... averaged 10.1 minutes over the Terps' last 14 games ... hit .700 from free throw line in last 10 games (7-for-10) ... netted a career-high six points at Duke (Feb. 22) due in part to a 4-for-6 effort at the free throw line ... also grabbed three rebounds vs. the Blue Devils ... played a career-high 25 minutes with a career-best three blocks at home vs. Wake Forest (Feb. 28), and his six rebounds paced the Terps on the boards ... tallied a career-high 10 rebounds at Virginia (Feb. 4) in a "must-win" situation for the Terps ... filled an important role off the bench inside vs. Clemson (Jan. 25), playing physical defense against Tiger senior big man Chris Hobbs ... contributed four points in four minutes off the bench vs. NC State (Feb. 1) ... made his first career steal in a six-minute outing off the bench vs. Wisconsin (Dec. 2) and also had two boards vs. the Badgers ... scored his first point as a collegian on a first-half free throw vs. Hofstra (Nov. 29), with his first career field goal coming in second half vs. Pride ... played six minutes vs. American (Nov. 22) in his collegiate debut, finishing the outing vs. Eagles with pair of blocks.

At Hargrave Military Academy: Averaged 16.5 points per game and 10.1 rebounds at Hargrave ... scored seven points with five rebounds as a participant in Baltimore's Charm City Challenge with Terrapin teammates Will Bowers, D.J. Strawberry and Ekene Ibekwe in April 2003 ... prep coach was Mike Preston ... attended Holy Name Academy in Worcester, Mass., prior to his enrollment at Hargrave.

Personal: Hassan Fofana ... born April 19, 1983, in Guinea, on the West Coast of Africa and moved with his family to Togo at age five ... son of Mariame (mother) of the People's Republic of Congo (formerly Zaire) and Foumghe Fofana of Conkary, Guinea ... has lived with guardian, Dr. Gary W. Gibbons of Weston, Mass., since the age of 17 ... speaks five languages, including English, French, Swahili and two other West African dialects ... interests include soccer, which he played from a young age, computers and swimming ... wears a size-19 basketball shoe, the largest since former Terp forward and strength coach Kurtis Shultz in 1995 and believed to be the largest since Gary Williams' arrival at Maryland in 1989 ... plans to major in international business and minor in computer science.

LEFRAK SCHOLAR

25

FORWARD
CARSON

On Ibekwe: A long, lean dynamic post player with unlimited athletic potential ... only Terp rookie to compete in every game during the 2003-04 season ... a talented shooter for his size who can take the ball to the basket and score in the post ... a high-flying finisher and shot blocker ... became the first freshman to lead the Terps in blocked shots (44) since Joe Smith (1993-94) ... averaged 10.6 points per game, 7.6 rebounds and 1.8 blocks during the Terps' Italian Tour, including a 15-point, 13-board double-double effort against Biella ... named the Terps' LeFrak Foundation Scholar for the 2004-05 academic year.

Williams on Ibekwe: "Ekene's upside is unlimited because he's 6-9, he's quick and he's got great timing. With Ekene, a lot is going to be determined by how well he shoots the basketball, and how much stronger he gets between his freshman and sophomore year. He could be outstanding, but the potential has to translate onto the court."

As a Freshman in 2003-04: Played in all 32 games, drawing seven starts during his rookie season ... led the Terps in blocked shots with 44, an average of 1.4 rejections per game ... recorded 22 games with at least one blocked shot and posted 11 multi-block games ... amassed 32 points and 29 boards across the Terps' last six contests ... played in both NCAA Tournament games, averaging 18.0 minutes per matchup while contributing 5.5 points per game and 7.9 rebounds ... grabbed nine rebounds and netted six points vs. Syracuse (March 20) in the Terps' NCAA Second Round game ... scored five points with six rebounds and career high-tying four blocks vs. UTEP (March 18) in his first-career NCAA contest ... contributed nine points, eight rebounds and two assists vs. Virginia (March 7) in a "must-win" situation for the Terrapins ... played 20 minutes vs. Clemson (Feb. 24), gathering a career-high tying 10 rebounds (all defensive), blocking three shots and scoring six points ... contributed eight points and five rebounds in 10 minutes at North Carolina (Feb. 15) ... made the most of his 13 minutes vs. Florida State (Feb. 8), grabbing four rebounds and blocking three shots ... scored 11 points (5-for-6 FG) and added five rebounds vs. North Carolina (Jan. 14) ... registered seven points, seven rebounds and a career-high tying four blocks in his first collegiate start vs. UMES (Jan. 16) ... fell one point shy of a double-double against Mount St. Mary's (Jan. 3), with nine points, 10 rebounds, a career-high tying four blocks and two steals in 22 minutes ... grabbed eight rebounds in 13 minutes at Florida State (Dec. 28) ... netted a career-high 13 points vs. UNC-Greensboro (Dec. 23) and added six rebounds ... had a solid outing in his collegiate debut, scoring nine points with three blocks, two steals vs. American (Nov. 22).

At Carson High School: A second team Parade High School All-American after averaging 19.9 points and 10.2 rebounds per game as a senior at Carson High School ... also blocked 4.4 shots per game and averaged nearly four steals in leading his squad to a 23-4 record and a semifinal finish in the Los Angeles city championship ... earned all-state honors and a first team "All-Dream Team" nod by the Long Beach Press-Telegram as a senior ... named to the All-L.A. city first team, the All-South Bay first team and his team's MVP as a junior and senior ... scored 18 points and was named to the all-tournament team as a participant in Baltimore's Charm City Challenge with Terrapin teammates Hassan

Fofana, D.J. Strawberry and Will Bowers in April, 2003 ... also participated in the Jordan Capital Classic Silver/Black game at MCI Center later that month, where he squared off against a group of elite high-school seniors including LeBron James ... high school coach was Richard Masson.

Personal: Ekene Brian Ibekwe ... born July 19, 1985 ... son of Agatha and Augustine Ibekwe, who hail from Nigeria ... brother, Onye Ibekwe (20), is a junior basketball player at Long Beach State ... has two sisters, Chinyere (16) and Ify (14) ... a recipient of the Scott Smith Scholarship Award and a member of the Principal's Honor Roll in high school ... interests include computers and working on his game ... aspires to be an entrepreneur when his basketball career is over ... majoring in letters and sciences.

GUARD

DORCHESTER, MASS.

THAYER ACADEMY

SOPHOMORE, 1V

On Jones: A proficient sharpshooter with tremendous athleticism and the ability to score in a variety of ways ... explosive finisher at the shooting guard position who showed flashes of brilliance on the offensive end as a rookie ... excellent rebounder out of the backcourt ... improved defense and ball-handling will pay off on the court for the Terrapins ... was the Terrapins' most proficient 3-point shooter as a freshman (.403) ... finished second for the Terps at the free throw line (.761).

Williams on Jones: "Mike had a lot of hype coming in, and I think he went through what a lot of freshmen go through, especially guys that are considered great shooters. You can have the same shot in college that you had in high school, and the ball sometimes doesn't go in. You can lose your confidence a little bit and it takes a while to get that back. In Mike's case, I thought by the end of the year he was pretty confident out there on the court. He has to keep that now, and as he goes into this year, he has a chance to be a great shooter."

As a Freshman in 2003-04: Played in 30 contests, averaging 10.0 minutes per game during his inaugural campaign ... Terps' season-leader in 3-point percentage (.403) as a freshman and Maryland's second-most accurate free throw shooter (.761) ... named ACC Rookie of the Week (Jan. 11) after a standout performance vs. UMES (Jan. 6) ... recorded career-highs in points (25), field goals (six), field goal attempts (11), free throws (11), free throws attempted, rebounds (six), assists (three), blocks (one), steals (three) and minutes (23) ... his 25 points vs. UMES were most by a Terp freshman since Drew Nicholas had 27 in Nov. 1999 ... shot .455 from 3-point range (5-for-11) in final seven games of season ... registered five points, two rebounds, two assists and a steal in 11 minutes vs. Syracuse (March 20) in the Terps' Second Round NCAA match-up ... netted seven points and tied career-high with six rebounds in the ACC Championship game vs. Duke (March 14) ... nailed a crucial 3-pointer with 33 seconds remaining in the second half to bring Terps within 75-74 ... was 4-for-4 at the free throw line in the final 0:41 of overtime to help seal the victory ... scored eight first-half points in the Terps' "must-win" contest at No. 16 NC State (March 3) ... netted 11 points in 13 minutes at Wake Forest (Jan. 29), drilling a career-high three 3-pointers and hitting a pair of free throws ... contributed nine points and three boards in 13 minutes vs. Mount St. Mary's (Jan. 3) ... hit a pair of 3-pointers for six points against UNC-Greensboro (Dec. 23) and grabbed four rebounds ... scored eight second-half points in nine minutes vs. Pepperdine (Dec. 14) ... hit a three-pointer and added a steal in five minutes against Gonzaga (Dec. 6) in the BB&T Classic ... put forth an outstanding effort vs. American (Nov. 22) in his collegiate debut, scoring eight of his 10 points in the second half ... named a CBSSportsline.com "Freshman to Watch" during the preseason.

At Thayer Academy: A McDonald's All-American and third team All-America selection by Parade Magazine after a standout career at Thayer Academy in Braintree, Mass. ... averaged 24.8 points per game, 14.2 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 2.3 steals in his final high-school season ... a 44 percent 3-point shooter and 85 percent free throw shooter as a senior ... named the Gatorade Player of the Year for the state of Massachusetts following his senior year ... also a first team selection of the Boston Globe and the MVP of the Independent School League, both as a junior and senior ... finished his career third all-time in scoring at Thayer with 2,021 points ... earned Patriot Ledger scholastic honors and the Headmaster's Award for being Thayer Academy's top male student-athlete ... won the 3-point shootout at the McDonald's All-American Game, and scored 13 points in the game itself while playing among high school basketball's elite ... also excelled as a sprinter on Thayer's track team and was a state runner-up in the 100 meter dash as a junior ... prep coach was Rob Dixon.

Personal: Michael Allen Jones ... born July 24, 1984 ... son of Lisa and Curtis Jones and one of seven children ... has three brothers, Jerod (20), Maurice (17) and Jamal (14) ... has three sisters as well, Shauday (18), Jarquis (17) and Leeyah (9) ... interests include drawing, computers, listening to music and playing video games ... won a video-game competition as part of the McDonald's All-American Game ... lists his mother as the person he most admires and Michael Jordan as his favorite athlete ... the first Terrapin to wear No. 23 since Steve Francis in 1999 and current assistant coach Dave Dickerson before him in 1989 ... contemplating a major in business or communication.

GUARD
MATER DEI
6-5 • 190
SOPHOMORE, 1V

On Strawberry: Earned honorable mention ACC All-Freshman team honors after a tremendous rookie season ... a dynamic, hard-nosed defender and excellent playmaker ... an electrifying finisher and adept ball-handler and passer for his size ... a versatile player at any guard position ... a competitive, slashing scorer who has worked hard in the offseason to improve his jumpshot.

Williams on Strawberry: "D.J. was probably our best defensive perimeter player last year. He didn't have the hype coming in as some of the other freshman had, but proved to be a very valuable player. He has no fear, and he has no quit- those are two pretty good things for a player to have."

As a Freshman in 2003-04: Saw action in 31 games and led all Terrapin freshmen with a 20 minutes per game average ... earned honorable mention ACC All-Freshman team honors ... recorded at least one steal in 24 games on the season and finished third among Terp players with 51 thefts (1.65 steals per game) ... scored nine points and had a career-high six rebounds in 22 minutes during his NCAA Tournament debut vs. UTEP (March 18) ... tied a career-high by playing 30 minutes vs. Wake Forest in the ACC Quarterfinals (March 12), and went 6-for-6 at the free throw line for nine points ... netted 15 points on 7-for-9 shooting and added five boards, two blocks and three steals vs. Clemson (Feb. 24) ... contributed nine points, two assists and four steals at Duke (Feb. 22) ... hit double figures in scoring vs. Georgia Tech (Feb. 19) with 10 points in only 17 minutes, and added four rebounds ... registered 12 points, five rebounds, and two steals in the Terps' home win over Florida State (Feb. 8) ... posted a nine-point, three-steal effort at Virginia (Feb. 4), which included a key steal in the final seconds to seal the Terps' road victory ... netted a career-high 17 points on 7-of-8 field goals, including a 2-for-2 performance from long range at home vs. Pepperdine (Dec. 14) ... filled in at the point guard position and contributed five points, four boards, two assists and two steals in the Terps' win at No. 1 Florida (Dec. 10) ... critical steal in the game's waning moments set Maryland up for the victory ... named ACC Rookie of the Week on Dec. 16 for his efforts vs. Florida and Pepperdine ... registered nine points, four rebounds, four assists, four steals and two blocks vs. George Mason (Nov. 25) ... scored seven points and had five rebounds in only 17 minutes vs. American (Nov. 22) in collegiate debut.

At Mater Dei: Averaged 13.1 points per game and 4.4 rebounds in leading Mater Dei to a 35-2 record and the California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) state title as a senior ... also averaged 2.3 assists per game and 2.0 steals ... garnered first team All-CIF accolades following his senior season ... merited first team All-Serra League and first team All-Orange County honors as a junior and senior ... guarded LeBron James as the Monarchs took on St. Vincent's-St. Mary's as a senior ... held James to .333 field-goal shooting, including an 0-for-8 3-point shooting performance ... also forced James into seven turnovers ... scored 12 points as a participant in Baltimore's Charm City Challenge with Terrapin teammates Hassan Fofana, Will Bowers and Ekene Ibekwe in April 2003 ... netted 13 points as he participated in the Jordan Capital Classic Blue/White game at MCI Center later that month with Bowers.

Personal: D.J. Eugene Strawberry ... born June 15, 1985 ... son of Lisa Watkins and former Major League Baseball player Darryl Strawberry ... has two brothers, Jordan Strawberry (8) and Jesse Watkins (4) ... also has four sisters, Diamond (16), Jade (7) and Jewel Strawberry (3) and Faith Watkins (6) ... interests include baseball and video games ... majoring in letters and sciences.

FORWARD

GOOD COUNSEL

FRESHMAN, H.S.

On Gist: A long, lean versatile athlete at forward ... pos"sesses great quickness for a player his size, along with a shooter's touch ... an explosive finisher who runs the floor well ... dynamic athlete and shot blocker.

Williams on Gist: "James is a very talented, very quick 6-8 player. He needs to gain strength to move up to the college game, but he's working very hard in that regard during the offseason. I wouldn't be surprised to see him get some playing time his freshman year."

At Good Counsel High School: Team captain and starting power forward for Good Counsel in Wheaton, Md. ... averaged 19.5 points per game as a senior to go along with 10.3 rebounds and 3.5 blocks per game, leading the Falcons of the Washington Catholic Athletic Conference (WCAC) to an 18-12 record ... earned third team All-Met honors by the Washington Post ... named to the all-tournament teams at the Bullis Holiday Classic and the Hooters Holiday Classic ... scored a career-high 31 points in a game as a senior ... amassed more than 300 blocked shots in three seasons on the varsity squad, becoming Good Counsel's all-time leader ... a participant in Baltimore's Charm City Challenge in April 2004, scoring eight points to go along with seven rebounds and three steals ... participated in the Jordan Capital Classic Regional game at Comcast Center later that month, netting 11 points and grabbing seven boards ... high school coach was Tim McKenna.

Personal: James C. Gist III ... born Oct. 26, 1986 ... son of Linda and James C. Gist, Jr., who are both Maryland grads ... both parents are retired from the military ... has two sisters, Jasmine Kornegay (21) and Gloria Gist (13) ... interests include movies, playing the piano and traveling ... member of the Black Student Association in high school ... performed volunteer work at soup kitchens and for the Special Olympics ... majoring in letters and sciences.

LAUREL, MD.
LAUREL
ALLEGANY CC
JUNIOR, J.C.

On Ledbetter: A strong, physical player at either the point or shooting guard positions ... an adept ball-handler and tenacious defender ... a "pass-first" point guard ... comes to Maryland from the same JUCO program that produced All-American and three-time NBA All-Star Steve Francis, 2002 National Champion Ryan Randle and 2004 ACC Champion Jamar Smith ... fully recovered from an automobile accident that sidelined him during May, June and part of July.

Williams on Ledbetter: "Sterling is fully recovered and has been working out with the other players. He's a natural point guard, which we didn't have behind John Gilchrist last year. He's a very physical and solid point guard, a good ball handler and a very good defensive player. He's very good at running the offense and knows how to play basketball."

At Allegany CC: Team captain and starting point guard at Allegany who led the Trojans to a 31-5 record and the NJCAA Final 16 in 2003-04 ... averaged 13.9 points per game in his second season, to go along with 7.1 assists and 6.1 rebounds ... earned first team all-conference (Maryland JUCO) honors in 2004 ... started all 30 games in 2002-03 in his first season ... averaged 8.8 points and 8.3 assists as a first-year player ... starred under the legendary Bob Kirk, who retired from Allegany in the summer of 2004.

At Laurel High School: Two-year starter at point guard and a first team all-conference selection as a senior at Laurel ... averaged 15.3 points, 8.0 assists and 6.0 rebounds per game as a senior ... led his squad to a 12-11 record in the challenging Prince George's County 4A conference ... as a junior, averaged 12.5 points per game and 10.0 assists ... nominated for the McDonald's All-American team ... high school coach was Keith Courtreyer.

Personal: Sterling Reid Ledbetter, Jr. ... born May 9, 1983 ... son of Deirdre and Sterling Ledbetter, Sr. ... is an only child ... lists Steve Francis as his favorite athlete ... nickname is "Sterbo" ... majoring in criminology and criminal justice.

ABOUT THE ACC

The Tradition

Consistency. It's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 52nd year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

John Swofford, ACC Commissioner

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 91 national champion-ships, including 47 in women's competition and 44 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 116 times in men's competition and 57 in women's action.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With Maryland's victory over Indiana in the 2002 NCAA title game, ACC teams have captured nine NCAA basketball championships, including five over the last 14 years.

No conference has posted a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the NCAA's inaugural tournament in 1938. The 11 current conference members have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 315-164 for a sterling .647 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

A year ago, the ACC had two teams - Georgia Tech and Duke - in the Final Four for the second time in four years and fifth time overall. In the 20 years of the 64-team field, the ACC has produced 20 Final Four teams, an average of one per year and seven more than any other conference.

Since 1985, when the NCAA Tournament was expanded to 64 teams, ACC teams have been even more impressive compiling a 203-96 (.679) NCAA record, including 56 "Sweet 16" appearances and 20 Final Four berths. Since 1985, 56 of the 102 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

Since 1990, the ACC - with a 181-173 record - is the only conference with a winning record against ranked non-conference foes.

North Carolina and Duke lead all ACC schools with three NCAA championships each. NC State has two national titles to its credit and Maryland one. The Tar Heels captured NCAA titles in 1957, 1982 and 1993 while the Blue Devils won their third title in 2001, following back-to-back championships in 1991 and 1992. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Terps claimed the 2002 national title.

The stature of ACC basketball is no where more clearly defined than by its regional and national television exposure as an all-time high 172 televised games involving ACC teams headline the league's 2004-05 schedule, including a record-setting 281 appearances. ACC teams are slated to make 132 appearances on national television networks and 79 of the league's 88 regular season conference games, including 36 on national television networks are scheduled to be televised.

This past year the ACC posted a 14-6 mark in NCAA Tournament play with the six losses by a total of 21 points. For the second time in league history, eight ACC teams took part in post-season play and six of the nine league teams were ranked in the final AP and coaches' polls. League teams were 107-24 (.816) against non-conference opponents, 13-12 versus ranked teams, including a 3-0 mark against No. 1 ranked teams. The ACC finished the 2003-04 season with the highest regular season RPI rating ever accorded a conference.

2003-04 in Review

The 2003-04 academic year concluded with the league pocketing three more national team titles and six individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 48 national team titles over the last 14 years.

The ACC's 2003-04 national champions were Wake Forest in field hockey, North Carolina in women's soccer and Virginia in women's lacrosse. Overall, 66 ACC teams took part in post-season play compiling a 101-66-4 (.596) record.

A total of 169 student-athletes from the ACC earned first, second or third-team All-America honors this past year. In addition, the ACC produced nine national Players of the Year, two national Rookies of the Year and three national Coaches of the Year recipients.

The ACC placed at least one team in the top 10 nationally in 17 sports. In all, 31 ACC teams finished their season with a top 10 ranking.

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2004-05 academic year - 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet being held in tennis at Wake Forest University.

Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference bylaws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting with the 2005-06 academic year.

REVIEW NOTEBOOK

Terps Capture ACC Title; Make 11th Straight NCAA Appearance

- The Maryland basketball team (20-12, 7-9 ACC) captured the 2004 ACC Title, winning the conference tournament for the third time in history and the first time since 1984. The Terrapins defeated No. 3 seed Wake Forest (87-86), No. 2 seed NC State (85-82) and No. 1 seed Duke (95-87 (ot) to mark the third time in ACC Tournament history that a team had knocked off the top three seeds.

- The Terrapins earned a school-record 11th-consecutive NCAA Tournament berth under head coach Gary Williams, making Maryland one of only five programs with an active streak of that length (Maryland, Arizona, Cincinnati, Kansas, Kentucky).

- The Terrapins posted a 20-12 record in 2004 (7-9 ACC), continuing a school record of consecutive 20-win seasons to eight (1996-97 to 2003-04). The Terps won six of their last seven games in 2004, and five straight headed into the NCAA Tournament.

- Maryland was recognized in a national study by a University of Michigan professor to be one of the five most recognizable and popular programs in college basketball. The top five teams, in terms of fan interest, were found to be: Duke, North Carolina, Kentucky, Maryland and UCLA.

- The winningest NCAA Tournament coach in school history, Williams has won nearly 70 percent of his NCAA games as the head coach of his alma mater (22-10), and his 26 career NCAA Tournament victories overall places him ninth among active coaches.

- The Terrapins played 16 of their 32 games against teams ranked in the AP and ESPN/USA Today Top 25. The Terps' seven victories over Top 25 opponents marked the most for a Maryland team since their school-record nine ranked victories during their national championship season in 2002. The Terrapins' end-of-season strength of schedule rated second in the nation.

- Maryland's second round match-up with defending national champion Syracuse marked only the third time in NCAA history that the previous two NCAA titlewinners squared off in the NCAA Tournament. The only other instances of matchups between champs occurred in 1995 (1994 champ Arkansas def. 1993 champ North Carolina, national semifinal round) and 1962 (1961 champ Cincinnati def. 1960 champ Ohio State, title game).

- With the Terps' top 10 student-athletes comprised exclusively of first or second-year players, Maryland's team was the youngest in all of NCAA Division I and the youngest at the University since 1993-94. Maryland's freshmen and sophomores alone combined to start 122 games - by far the most of any team in the ACC.

- Sophomore point guard John Gilchrist led the Terrapins in both scoring (15.4 ppg) and assists (159), becoming the first Maryland player to do so since Walt Williams in 1990-91 and the first true point guard to do so since John Lucas in 1973-74.

- Gilchrist, the ACC Tournament MVP, was the first Terrapin to earn that distinction since Len Bias in 1984. He averaged 24.0 points, 6.3 assists, 5.3 rebounds and 2.0 steals across the three ACC tourney games, including a 30-point, seven-assist, four-rebound, four-steal performance in Maryland's comeback victory over NC State in the semifinal round. The Terrapins overcame a 21-point deficit in that game, and trailed by 19 points at halftime - setting a new record for the largest deficit overcome in the 51-year history of the ACC Tournament. .

- The Terps' lone senior, Jamar Smith, finished second on the team in scoring at 13.1 ppg and led the Terps and finished second in the ACC in rebounding (8.8 rpg). Smith's 7.0 ppg increase from his transfer junior season to his senior year ranked third among all ACC players in 2003-04, and his 19.7 ppg and 8.0 rpg conference tournament averages earned him ACC All-Tournament first team honors.

- Junior Mike Grinnon played key minutes in the Terps' ACC title game vs. Duke, including making 2-of-2 free throws in overtime to help the Terrapins hold on for the victory. Grinnon, the only member of the 2003-04 squad remaining from Maryland's 2002 national championship team, cemented a place of distinction in the Terrapin record books - he is the only player in school history to have won both the NCAA and ACC Tournament titles.

- For the second consecutive season, the Terps established a new single-season mark for season home attendance total and per game average. A total of 287,200 spectators for an average of 17,950 fans per game made the trip to Comcast Center in 2003-04. The Terps logged 16 full sellouts in 2003-04 to set another school record. Maryland's home average of 17,950 ranked fifth in the nation for the second straight season.

[rv/25] Maryland 79, American 48

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Jamar Smith had 14 points and 12 rebounds, and Maryland held American University to eight first-half points in cruising to a 79-48 season-opening victory.

Chris McCray and Mike Jones had 10 points apiece for the Terrapins, who limited the Eagles to 15 percent shooting in taking a 35-8 halftime lead. It was tied at 2 before Maryland scored 27 straight points against the cold-shooting, error-prone Eagles.

American (0-1) began its season by missing 21 of its first 22 shots, committing 12 turnovers and scoring only two points over the opening 16 minutes.

With 16 minutes left, the Eagles trailed 51-10 and received points from only two players, Jernavis Draughn and Andres Rodriguez. American fell behind by 44 before coming back against Maryland's reserves.

Starting four sophomores and Smith, the team's lone senior, the young Terrapins launched a new era of Maryland basketball in impressive fashion before a sellout crowd.

Nik Caner-Medley scored seven straight points, including a 3-pointer and a driving dunk, and Smith followed with four successive baskets before D.J. Strawberry made a three-point play to make it 20-2.

Travis Garrison then made a follow shot and a free throw, and baskets by Strawberry, Andre Collins and Jones upped the margin to 27 points.

The last time Maryland held an opponent under 10 points in the first half was in 1971, before the introduction of the shot clock, when the Terrapins led South Carolina 4-3.

Game 2

[rv/24] Maryland 79, George Mason 64

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Jamar Smith reached career highs with 19 points and 13 rebounds, and John Gilchrist sparked a second-half surge that carried Maryland past George Mason 79-64.

Nik Caner-Medley made his first six shots and finished with a career-best 23 points for the Terrapins (2-0), who trailed early in the second half before wearing down the Patriots down the stretch.

Jai Lewis led the Patriots (1-1) with 17 points and Mark Davis had 15.

Down 12 points in the first half, the Patriots got within three at halftime and took the lead for the first time during a 9-0 run that made it 47-43 with 17 minutes left.

But Smith followed with a dunk and added two layups in a 14-3 run that put Maryland up 57-50. Gilchrist also had three baskets in the spree.

Then, after Lewis made successive baskets, Gilchrist hit a 3-pointer and D.J. Strawberry scored twice inside to ignite a 9-0 burst that made it 66-54.

Game 3

[rv/24] Maryland 87, Hofstra 72

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Nik Caner-Medley scored 19 points, and Maryland made 31 free throws against Hofstra in an 87-72 victory.

Maryland (3-0) placed five players in double figures, including Jamar Smith, who had 11 points and 10 rebounds - his third double-double in as many games.

John Gilchrist reached career highs in points (18) and assists (6), and Travis Garrison had a personal-best 12 points.

Danny Walker led Hofstra (1-3) with 19 points. The Pride was called for 37 fouls and had six players foul out, including Walker.

After going a combined 11-for-20 at the foul line in their first two games, the Terrapins made 21 free throws in the first half alone and finished 31-for-55 at the line.

Up by 13 at halftime, Maryland opened the second half with an 11-4 run to take a 60-40 lead.

Game 4

[rv/25] Maryland 73, [15/13] Wisconsin 67 (ot)

Smith also had 12 rebounds, his fourth double-double in four games. Chris McCray scored a career-high 15 points and John Gilchrist had 12 points and nine assists for the Terrapins (4-0), 92-1 in nonconference home games since Dec. 12, 1989.

The game was part of the ACC-Big Ten Challenge.

Devin Harris scored 24 points for the Badgers (3-1), who rallied to force overtime but were outscored 12-6 in the extra session.

The Badgers led 65-63 in overtime before Gilchrist scored on a drive. After Wisconsin's Mike Wilkinson missed two foul shots, Smith made a layup and D.J. Strawberry followed Harris' miss with a free throw for a 68-65 lead.

Smith then added two free throws to seal the victory.

A 3-pointer by McCray, his first basket of the second half, put Maryland up 57-50 with three minutes left in regulation. But Harris scored the Badgers' next six points, and after Smith made one of two free throws for a 60-58 lead with 21 seconds to go, Wilkinson hit a 3-pointer to put Wisconsin on top.

Maryland's Nik Caner-Medley was then fouled on a putback attempt, and he made of one of two with 2.4 seconds remaining to force overtime.

Game 5

[17/24] Gonzaga 82, [rv/25] Maryland 68

WASHINGTON, D.C. • Gonzaga's Blake Stepp scored 27 points, and Adam Morrison keyed a second-half surge that carried the 17th-ranked Bulldogs past Maryland 82-68.

Stepp went 7-for-11 from beyond the arc, including 5-for-7 in the decisive second half. He also finished with 11 assists.

Maryland (4-1), coming off an overtime victory over 15th-ranked Wisconsin, shot 36 percent from the field.

Gonzaga opened the second half with a 7-0 run to take a 37-34 lead, then yielded five straight points before Morrison scored and Stepp hit a 3-pointer to start a 10-0 burst that made it 47-39.

After Maryland closed to 49-44, Morrison had a three-point play and a dunk and Stepp hit two 3-pointers in a 15-5 run that put the Bulldogs up 64-49 with 10:28 left.

Morrison finished with 18 points and Kyle Bankhead had 11, including three 3-pointers.

Nik Caner-Medley scored 16 points for the Terrapins, who were seeking to go 5-0 for the first time since 1998. Jamar Smith had 13 points and seven rebounds, missing a double-double for the first time this season.

The Terrapins scored the final nine points of the first half to take a 34-30 lead. The Bulldogs missed 18 of 28 shots and committed 16 turnovers, but stayed close by going 6-for-12 from 3-point range.

The second half, however, was all Gonzaga. The Bulldogs were 18-of-30 from the field and outscored Maryland 52-34.

West Virginia 78, [rv/25] Maryland 77 (ot)

WASHINGTON, D.C. • West Virginia tied a school record with 13 3-pointers, and the last one put the Mountaineers ahead for good in overtime in a 78-77 victory over Maryland in the consolation game of the 88ST Classic.

West Virginia surrendered a 16-point lead by scoring just five points in the final 13:38 of regulation. But Kevin Pittsnogle's 3-pointer and the Mountaineers' 8-for-11 free-throw shooting in the extra period helped WVU to the victory.

Drew Schifino led the Mountaineers (3-2) with 18 points, and Tyrone Sally had 14. West Virginia made 13 of 26 3-point attempts, and every player used by coach John Beilein made at least one except backup center D'or Fischer.

Jamar Smith had 23 points and 13 rebounds for the Terrapins (4-2), and Chris McCray had 16 points and seven assists. Point guard John Gilchrist had 15 points and seven assists.

Maryland scored on the first possession of overtime but didn't get another field goal until Gilchrist's runner with 14 seconds to play cut the lead to two. Patrick Beilein made two free throws to restore the four-point lead.

Game 7

[rv/25] Maryland 69, [1/1] Florida 68 (ot)

GAINESVILLE, Fla. • Coach Gary Williams finally pushed his win total at Maryland from 299 to 300. That wasn't the only number that needed adjusting after Wednesday night's game.

The Terrapins helped Williams reach his milestone with a 69-68 overtime win over No. 1 Florida, handing the Gators the loss in their first game after reaching the top spot in The Associated Press' poll.

"We haven't been consistent, but somehow we found the toughness to go out there and play tonight," said Williams, who improved to 300-155 in 15 seasons with the Terrapins.

Williams was stuck on 299 after a two-game losing streak that had Maryland (5-2) down in the "receiving votes" category of the latest poll. This win showed how unscientific those polls really are.

Bigger, stronger and shooting as well as they had all season, the Terrapins got big hoops, rebounds and blocks from John Gilchrist (18 points), Jamar Smith (14 points, 12 rebounds) and Nik Caner-Medley (22 points, 13 rebounds) to build a 17-point lead early in the second half.

But they went on a cold streak, failing to score a field goal over the final nine minutes of regulation. In fact, their only two baskets over the final 16 minutes came on breakaway dunks after steals - and Florida tied it at 60 to send the game to overtime.

In overtime, Anthony Roberson (20 points) hit a 3-pointer and Matt Walsh took an outlet pass from Roberson to help the Gators take a 68-64 lead, but the Terps didn't give up.

Caner-Medley hit a shot standing on the 3-point line to cut the deficit to two. D.J. Strawberry cut the deficit to one with a free throw. Then, after another stop in this defensive matchup, the Terps worked the ball to Garrison, who hit the game-winner.

Maryland sealed the win when Smith blocked Adrian Moss' shot with time running out. Smith got the rebound, was fouled and missed both free throws with 1.1 seconds left.

With Duke and North Carolina routinely on their ACC schedule, the Terrapins got their ninth victory over a top-ranked program in school history, leaving them one behind UCLA for the all-time lead.

Maryland outplayed Florida in every phase in the first half. When Ekene Ibekwe hit a 3-pointer with 16 minutes left in the second half, the Terrapins led 49-32.

Game 8

[rv/rv] Maryland 96, Pepperdine 72

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • John Gilchrist scored a career-high 24 points to lead five players in double figures as Maryland routed Pepperdine.

D.J. Strawberry added a career-high 17 points as Maryland followed up on its Wednesday-night upset of top-ranked Florida with its highest point total of the season.

Jamar Smith registered his seventh double-double of the season with 12 points and 10 rebounds for the Terrapins, who improved to 6-2 entering a nine-day layoff for exams.

Chris McCray contributed 11 points and Nik Caner-Medley netted 10 for Maryland. Glen McGowan poured in a career-high 36 points for Pepperdine (3-5), which snapped a two-game winning streak.

Maryland broke the game open with an 11-2 run to start the second half. Gilchrist scored eight points during the blitz, which put the Terps ahead 55-34 just 2:07 into the half.

Pepperdine never got closer than 13 points after that despite a spectacular effort from McGowan, who hit 12 of 15 free throws to set the individual scoring record at the Comcast Center.

Game 9

[24/25] Maryland 85, UNC Greensboro 58

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Coach Gary Williams expected Maryland to show some offensive rust following a nine-day layoff for exams.

But a suffocating defensive effort overcame that concern and lifted the Terrapins to an easy win in their final tuneup for Atlantic Coast Conference competition.

Nik Caner-Medley scored 19 points to lead four players in double figures, and No. 24 Maryland limited UNC-Greensboro to 36-percent shooting en route to an 85-58 victory.

Freshman Ekene Ibekwe had a career-high 13 points for Maryland (7-2), which improved to 100-2 at home against non-conference opponents under Williams. Chris McCray added 11 points and Travis Garrison 10 for the Terrapins, who have their earliest ACC opener since 1998-99 Dec. 28 at Florida State.

McCray's three-point play started a 17-2 run that took 4-1/2 minutes and turned the game into a rout. The Terrapins took advantage of five turnovers to build a 63-40 edge with 12:03 remaining.

Ronnie Burrell and Jay Joseph scored 16 points each for UNC-Greensboro (4-6), playing its second ranked team in the span of three days. Jelani Lawrence was six for six from the field, adding 12 points for the Spartans, who fell 106-98 to No. 5 Missouri two days prior.

UNC-Greensboro, which has thrived on shooting the 3-pointer at times this season, was just 3 of 13 from beyond the arc. Joseph, the team's leading scorer, was held to 5-for-15 shooting by Chris McCray.

Game 10

[rv/rv] Florida State 79, [24/25] Maryland 75

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. • Alexander Johnson's dunk sparked a 16-2 run midway through the second half, and Florida State bounced back from its lone loss of the season by opening Atlantic Coast Conference play with a 79-75 win over Maryland.

Florida State (11-1, 1-0) blew a 14-point lead early in the game and fell behind 56-51 in the second half before the Seminoles' run gave them a 67-58 lead with 6:20 left.

Von Wafer and Nate Johnson hit successive 3-point shots during the spurt to help the Seminoles win their first conference opener in four seasons. But it was Johnson's dunk that gave Florida State the lead at 57-56 with 8:48 left as the Seminoles snapped a five-game losing streak against Maryland dating back to the 1999-2000 season.

Johnson led Florida State with 14 points and Tim Pickett added 13, all in the second half. The Seminoles started the season with 10 straight wins before losing 63-56 to Pittsburgh last Monday.

[rv/rv] Maryland 89, Mount St. Mary's 56

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • John Gilchrist scored 16 points to lead four players in double figures as Maryland routed Mount St. Mary's 89-56.

Chris McCray scored 15 points while Nik Caner-Medley added 14 for Maryland, which shot 54 percent (7-for-13) from 3-point range. Jamar Smith notched his eighth double-double of the season with 14 points and 14 rebounds as the Terrapins took a 25-point lead early in the second half then coasted.

Antonio Johnson scored 13 points for Mount St. Mary's (2-9). No other player reached double figures for the Mount, which shot 29 percent from the field and committed 17 turnovers.

Freshman forward Ekene Ibekwe had a solid all-around game with nine points, 10 rebounds and four blocked shots for Maryland (8-3), which was coming off an upset loss to Florida State in its Atlantic Coast Conference opener.

Game 12

[rv/rv] Maryland 87, Md.-Eastern Shore 38

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Freshman Mike Jones scored 23 of his career-high 25 points in the second half to help Maryland pull away for an 87-38 victory over Maryland-Eastern Shore.

Jones, who does not start, went 6-for-11 from the field and 11-for-12 at the line in the most prolific scoring performance by a Maryland freshman since Drew Nicholas scored 27 in November 1999.

Nik Caner-Medley scored 15 points, and Jamar Smith and John Gilchrist both had 13 for the Terrapins (9-3), who led by 11 at halftime before turning the game into a rout.

Maryland never trailed in improving to 99-1 in non-league home games since Dec. 30, 1989.

The remainder of Maryland's regular-season schedule is comprised exclusively of Atlantic Coast Conference opponents, beginning Jan. 14 against North Carolina.

[rv/rv] Maryland 90, [9/11] North Carolina 84

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Jamar Smith scored 22 points, John Gilchrist had 20 and Nik Caner-Medley added 17 for Maryland (10-3, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) in a 90-84 upset victory over North Carolina for a young but determined squad.

After yielding a season-high 49 points in the first half, Maryland put the clamps on a powerful offense that surpassed 100 points in each of its first two conference games.

North Carolina, which led by 10 points in the first half, went 11-for-34 from the field with eight turnovers in the final 20 minutes. The Tar Heels did not score one fast-break basket in the second half.

May scored 18 points and Raymond Felton added 16 for the Tar Heels (10-3, 1-2), who have lost five straight regular-season games to Maryland.

It was 78-all before Smith - the only senior on the Maryland squad - made two foul shots. Travis Garrison then converted two at the line for a four-point lead with 1:24 to go.

May followed with a free throw, but Chris McCray made two foul shots for Maryland and Smith added another to make it 85-79 with 57 seconds left.

It was 86-84 before McCray made two free throws with 3.5 seconds remaining.

After trailing for most of the first half, the Terrapins used a 14-1 run to go up 62-55 with 14:08 left. Smith scored seven points in the surge, which provided Maryland its first lead since 4-3.

The Tar Heels closed to 62-61 before Gilchrist hit a jumper, Caner-Medley made a 3-pointer and Gilchrist added two free throws for a 69-61 lead.

But North Carolina got 3-pointers from Melvin Scott, Jawad Williams and Rashad McCants in a 17-9 run that tied it with 3:09 remaining.

Game 14

[12/14] Georgia Tech 81, [rv/rv] Maryland 71

ATLANTA • Will Bynum scored a career-high 25 points and No. 12 Georgia Tech controlled the final 10 minutes, pulling away for an 81-71 victory over Maryland.

Georgia Tech (14-2, 2-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) won its second game in three days after a two-game losing streak. Maryland (10-4, 1-2) couldn't follow up an upset of North Carolina, ending a three-game winning streak.

Bynum eclipsed his previous career high of 19 points, set in December 2002 when he was at Arizona. Unhappy with a cut in playing time, he left the Wildcats shortly after that and transferred to Georgia Tech.

The junior scored his first 15 points on 3-pointers, missing only once.

John Gilchrist scored a career-high 27 points, but was the only player in double figures for Maryland. The Terps shot just 36 percent from the field.

Maryland scored the first two baskets of the second half for its biggest lead, 42-35. Georgia Tech rallied, going back ahead 51-49 on Luke Schenscher's basket.

For the next three minutes, it appeared the game would go right to the wire. The teams traded the lead five times before Georgia Tech went ahead for good.

Bynum swished a towering 3-pointer with a hand in his face, putting the Yellow Jackets up 56-55 with 9:34 remaining. That sparked a 14-0 run as the Terrapins went more than four minutes without a point.

Game 15

[1/1] Duke 68, [rv/rv] Maryland 60

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Seeking to avoid another upset loss at Maryland, top-ranked Duke missed 47 field goal attempts in shooting 34 percent.

Distressing numbers, except that the Blue Devils retrieved several of those misfires and turned them into baskets.

J.J. Redick scored a season-high 26 points, and the Blue Devils dominated the boards in a 68-60 victory.

Luol Deng had 13 points and 12 rebounds to help Duke (15-1, 5-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) win its 12th straight. It was the third time in three years the Blue Devils visited Maryland as the No. 1 team, and the first time they escaped with a victory.

The key was rebounding. Duke held a 49-34 edge on the boards.

Nik Caner-Medley led Maryland (10-5, 1-3) with 21 points, including 13 in the final 10 minutes. The Terrapins were seeking to become the eighth team in NCAA history to beat two No. 1 teams in same season - they defeated then-No. 1 Florida last month - but Maryland never led after Redick hit a 3-pointer to put Duke up 7-6.

Game 16

[rv/rv] Maryland 65, Clemson 52

CLEMSON, S.C. • John Gilchrist had 15 points, and Maryland used a 25-3 run in the second half to beat Clemson 65-52.

Maryland, (11-5, 2-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) trailed 43-38 with 13:39 remaining in the game. But from there, the Terrapins scored 15 straight for a 53-43 lead with 7:33 to play.

Shawan Robinson made a 3-pointer for the Tigers (8-9, 1-5), but the Terps scored 10 more points for a 63-46 lead with 2:52 left.

Clemson made just one of 16 shots and missed its first attempt in three one-and-one opportunities during Maryland's run.

Maryland had four players in double figures. Nik Caner-Medley had 13, and Chris McCray and Travis Garrison added 11 each.

Gilchrist started the 15-0 run with a long bank shot to cut Clemson's lead to 43-41 with 12:14 to play. McCray then scored seven straight points on two layups and a 3-pointer to give the Terps a 48-43 lead with 10:10 left.

Hassan Fofana's inside basket and a 3-pointer by Garrison capped the 15-0 run with 7:33 left. After Robinson's 3, the Terps got four free throws from Garrison, two field goals by Gilchrist, and two free throws from Caner-Medley for a 63-46 lead with 2:52 to play.

Game 17

[19/17] Wake Forest 93, [rv/rv] Maryland 85

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. • Freshman Chris Paul scored 25 points to help Wake Forest snap its four-game losing streak with a 93-85 victory over Maryland.

The Demon Deacons (12-4, 3-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) had struggled mightily with their scoring during their losing streak as Paul and fellow guard Justin Gray had not been able to find an offensive rhythm.

But the two snapped out of it against Maryland (11-6, 2-4) and helped Wake Forest overcome a 10-point halftime deficit.

Gray scored 16 of his 20 points in the first half, and Paul picked up the slack in the second half - including a 3-pointer as the shot clock expired to give Wake Forest an 82-75 lead with 2:23 to play.

Nik Caner-Medley led Maryland with 15 points. Travis Garrison scored 13, John Gilchrist had 12 and Mike Jones 11.

Wake Forest had seemingly wrapped the game up on Paul's 3-pointer, but a flurry of late Maryland 3-pointers - two from Gilchrist and one from Jones - made it a close final margin.

Game 18

[rv/rv] NC State 81, [rv/rv] Maryland 69

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Julius Hodge scored 28 points, and North Carolina State pulled away in the second half to earn its first win at Maryland since 1989, 81-69.

Freshman Engin Atsur had a career-high 16 points and Marcus Melvin scored 15 for the Wolfpack (12-5, 5-2 Atlantic Coast Conference). Scooter Sherrill scored all 10 of his points in the second half to help N.C. State improve to 2-5 on the road this season.

The Wolfpack was 0-14 in College Park since Jan. 29, 1989, including 0-9 under coach Herb Sendek, who is 4-14 against the Terrapins and 198-115 against everyone else.

Jamar Smith led Maryland (11-7, 2-5) with 21 points. The Terrapins went 2-for-14 from 3-point range and 9-for-18 at the foul line.

A 3 by Sherrill made it 65-55 with 5:39 to go, but Maryland closed to 67-63. Atsur then hit a 3-pointer for a seven-point cushion with 2:44 left.

Nik Caner-Medley had 10 points for Maryland. It was only the Terrapins' third loss in two seasons at the Comcast Center.

Game 19

Maryland 71, Virginia 67

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. • John Gilchrist scored 26 points in his return to his home state and Maryland won a tight game it had to have, beating equally desperate Virginia 71-67.

The Terrapins (12-7, 3-5 Atlantic Coast Conference), whose streak of 10 straight NCAA Tournament appearances could have been in jeopardy with a loss, pulled away with an 11-3 run in the second half and hung on despite making only 9 of 19 free throws in the last 10 minutes.

Virginia (12-7, 2-6 Atlantic Coast Conference), which swept the Terrapins last season for the first time in 10 years, pulled within 68-67 on Devin Smith's 3-pointer with 26 seconds left. But Nik Caner-Medley hit 1 of 2 free throws and D.J. Strawberry stole the ball from Todd Billet with about eight seconds left, Gilchrist's putback layup sealing it.

Elton Brown led Virginia with 24 points and J.R. Reynolds added 15, but the Cavaliers had 20 turnovers and the last one was the costliest.

Virginia used a 10-0 run early in the second half to take a 48-45 lead, but Gilchrist tied it at 50 with his fourth 3-pointer with 12:18 left. The teams traded baskets until Caner-Medley stole the ball under his own basket and laid it in, giving the Terps a 56-54 lead with 9:26 left.

A free throw and three-point play by Strawberry pushed it to 60-54 before Reynolds' 3-pointer cut it in half. But Strawberry added a free throw and Mike Jones rebounded the miss, was fouled and hit both. The points capped the run that gave Maryland a 63-57 lead with 5:41 left.

Virginia got close again, but never got even and dropped from a tie for seventh with Maryland in the ACC to a tie for last with Clemson.

Game 20

Maryland 73, [rv/rv] Florida State 62

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Jamar Smith had 16 points and 14 rebounds, and Maryland used a solid defensive effort in the second half to get past Florida State 73-62.

Nik Caner-Medley scored 14 points and D.J. Strawberry had 12 for the Terrapins, who are counting on a strong finish in the regular season to earn an 11th straight bid to the NCAA Tournament.

It was the ninth double-double of the season for Smith, the Terrapins' lone senior. Despite losing to Florida State in December, Maryland (13-7, 4-5 Atlantic Coast Conference) has won 16 of 18 against the Seminoles.

Florida State (16-7, 4-5) lost its 20th straight ACC game on the road. Tim Pickett scored 20 for the Seminoles, but was limited to two points in the second half.

Despite 6-for-27 shooting after halftime, Florida State trailed by only four points until Chris McCray made two free throws with 52 seconds left. McCray then stole a pass, was fouled intentionally and added another foul shot to make it 69-62.

The Seminoles missed their first seven shots of the second half and fell behind 43-38. Michael Joiner ended the drought with a 3-pointer, but Florida State missed its next seven field-goal tries before a dunk by Alexander Johnson cut Maryland's lead to 52-47.

McCray then scored five straight points, including a three-point play. Pickett picked up his fourth foul on the drive and spent the next two minutes on the bench.

The Seminoles ran off an 8-3 spurt without him, closing to 60-55 on a 3-pointer by Von Wafer, who finished with 15 points.

Caner-Medley then hit a 3-pointer to help Maryland build the lead to 66-57, and the Terrapins held on to win their second straight in the ACC after a 2-5 start.

Game 21

[14/17] No. Carolina 97, [rv/-] Maryland 86

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. • Rashad McCants scored 25 points and Jawad Williams added 23 to help No. 14 North Carolina hold off Maryland 97-86.

Sean May and Jackie Manuel each scored 14 points for the Tar Heels (15-7, 5-6 Atlantic Coast Conference), who avenged last month's loss to the Terrapins by taking a 20-point halftime lead, then holding off Maryland's rally in the second half.

Chris McCray scored 16 points for the Terrapins (13-8, 4-6), who had won five of the last six meetings, while Jamar Smith added 14.

North Carolina hit 36 of 50 free throws in a game marked by 55 personal fouls and 80 free throws. Maryland went 20-for-30 at the line.

The Tar Heels had 50-32 edge in rebounding and shot 55 percent for the game.

The Tar Heels turned in one of their best performances of the season in the first half. They aggressively attacked the basket, got to the free throw line and scored in transition, streaking to a 55-35 lead.

But Maryland played with more intensity in the second half at both ends of the floor. The Terrapins forced 12 second-half turnovers, several leading to baskets, and used a 15-4 run to get back in the game.

Ekene Ibekwe had two slams off turnovers during the run, which ended with Smith's 3-pointer that made it 72-66 with 10:11 to play. The Terrapins eventually closed the gap to 82-79 on a straightaway 3 by John Gilchrist with 4:52 to play.

But North Carolina answered with a five-point burst. McCants' 3 bounced around the rim and dropped through on the next play, then Melvin Scott followed with a fast-break layup for an 87-79 lead with 3:55 to play.

Game 22

[18/16] Georgia Tech 75, [rv/rv] Maryland 64

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Jarrett Jack scored 21 points, and 18th-ranked Georgia Tech ended a nine-game losing streak at Maryland with a 75-64 victory.

Clarence Moore and Will Bynum had 12 points apiece for the Yellow Jackets, who moved into a third-place tie with Wake Forest in the ACC by completing their first sweep of the Terrapins since the 1992-93 season.

Georgia Tech (19-6, 6-5) was 1-4 on the road in the ACC and had dropped 12 of 16 overall against Maryland. But the Yellow Jackets never trailed in the second half in bouncing back from Saturday's disheartening loss at Virginia.

The Terrapins (13-9, 4-7) missed 48 field-goal tries, went 15-for-25 at the line and 3-for-20 from 3-point range.

"You can't shoot 32 percent against a good team and expect to win," Maryland coach Gary Williams said. "You have to put the ball in the basket at some point. I thought we had some good looks that we didn't make."

Travis Garrison scored a career-high 16 points for the Terrapins, who fell into seventh place in the ACC. Chris McCray added 11 points for Maryland, while Nik Caner-Medley and D.J. Strawberry each finished with 10 points.

The Terrapins trailed 44-38 before Moore hit a 3-pointer to spark a 9-2 burst that put the Yellow Jackets up by 13 with 11:56 remaining. Jack drilled successive 3-pointers during the spree.

Georgia Tech trailed 27-19 with five minutes left in the first half before Moore scored five points in a 16-2 run that gave the Yellow Jackets their first lead. Six different players contributed to the spree.

Maryland missed 10 of its first 12 shots, but Georgia Tech scored only four points over the first seven minutes while falling behind 11-4.

A spectacular follow-dunk by Garrison made it 20-11 and gave him 11 points - two short of his previous career high - with 11 minutes elapsed.

Game 23

[3/3] Duke 86, [rv/rv] Maryland 63

DURHAM, N.C. • J.J. Redick scored 20 points and the third-ranked Blue Devils ended a two-game losing streak by beating Maryland 86-63.

Shelden Williams had 18 points and 11 rebounds for the Blue Devils (22-3, 11-2 Atlantic Coast Conference), who avoided their first three-game losing streak in eight seasons.Duke has won 40 straight games at Cameron Indoor Stadium.

Duke had won 18 straight games and reached No. 1 for the seventh consecutive season before last week's 78-74 loss at North Carolina State. The Blue Devils followed that with a 90-84 loss at Wake Forest on Wednesday, losing consecutive games for just the third time in eight seasons.

The Blue Devils used their pressure defense to fuel a bevy of transition scores. Duke held Maryland to 37 percent shooting, and scored 31 points off 23 turnovers. The Blue Devils had 16 steals and blocked five shots.

Duke shot 50 percent, including 9-of-23 from 3-point range.

John Gilchrist scored 14 points to lead the Terrapins, who lost their third straight game. Gilchrist also led Maryland with eight rebounds and tied Chris McCray for a team-high three assists.

Game 24

Maryland 70, Clemson 49

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • John Gilchrist led the way with 19 points, six assists and five steals as Maryland beat Clemson 70-49. The Terrapins snapped a three-game losing streak with their largest margin of victory this season over an Atlantic Coast Conference opponent.

Freshman D.J. Strawberry made his first career start and scored 15 points for Maryland (14-10, 5-8 ACC), one of six schools that have made each of the last 10 NCAA Tournaments.

Strawberry provided a spark with four points and two steals in the opening eight minutes, while McCray came off the bench to score 14 points on 6-of-8 shooting.

[11/11] Wake Forest 91, Maryland 83

COLLEGE PARK, Md. • Vytas Danelius scored a career-high 23 points, and No. 11 Wake Forest left Maryland with a 91-83 victory.

It was the sixth straight win for the Demon Deacons, who clinched at least a tie for third place in the Atlantic Coast Conference by winning at Maryland for the first time in six tries since 1998.

Justin Gray scored 22 points and Jamaal Levy had 14 points and 15 rebounds for Wake Forest (19-6, 9-5), which held on after letting a 16-point lead shrink to two midway through the second half.

John Gilchrist led Maryland (14-11, 5-9) with 26 points, Nik Caner-Medley scored 20 and Chris McCray added 18. The Terrapins, fell into a tie for seventh place in the ACC.

Faced with the prospect of clinching its first losing season in the ACC since 1992-93, Maryland did not go quietly. Down 57-41 with 16:52 left, the Terrapins used a 19-7 run to close to 64-62.

Levy then scored inside and Taron Downey followed with a 3-pointer to make it 69-62, and minutes later Danelius and Downey hit 3s to give the Demon Deacons an 11-point cushion with five minutes left.

Wake Forest had 22 turnovers, but made a season-high 13 3-pointers on 23 attempts. Gray went 5-for-9 and Danelius was 4-for-7 from beyond the arc.

Game 26

Maryland 70, [16/19] NC State 69

RALEIGH, N.C. • Maryland has played in the NCAA Tournament in each of the last 10 seasons. On this night, the Terrapins gave themselves a chance to make it 11.

John Gilchrist scored 21 points and Maryland bolstered its hopes for an at-large bid with a 70-69 victory over No. 16 North Carolina State.

Jamar Smith had 16 points and eight rebounds for the Terrapins (15-11, 6-9 Atlantic Coast Conference), who have won 17 of their last 21 meetings with the Wolfpack.

Julius Hodge scored 27 points and Marcus Melvin added 22 for the Wolfpack (18-8, 10-5), who have lost their last two games at home and three of five overall. Melvin missed two 3-pointers in the final minute, one that would have given his team the lead and another that would have tied the game.

Gilchrist, leading the Terrapins with 14.7 points and 5.0 assists per game heading in, was benched at the start of the game for arriving late to a team breakfast earlier Wednesday, Williams said.

Gilchrist made an early impact. He scored six points in an 11-2 run that gave the Terrapins a 28-14 lead with 7:53 left in the first half.

Maryland led by as many as 17 points in the early-going before settling for a 44-34 halftime lead. The Wolfpack committed 11 turnovers in the first half and 19 for the game.

N.C. State fought back in the second half behind Hodge, who scored 16 points in the final 20 minutes. His two free throws with 7:48 remaining tied the game at 62.

But Gilchrist responded by scoring the next six points, including two free throws that made it 68-62 with 2:17 remaining.

Maryland 70, Virginia 61

COLLEGE PARK, Md. · Chris McCray scored 15 of his career-high 20 points in the second half to bring Maryland back from a double-digit deficit, and the Terrapins enhanced their odds of returning to the NCAA Tournament by beating Virginia 70-61.

The victory enabled Maryland to finish in sixth place in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Terrapins (16-11, 7-9) are seeking to extend their school-record run of NCAA tournament appearances to 11.

Elton Brown scored 16 points and Devin Smith had 15 for the Cavaliers (16-11, 6-10), who had won three straight. Todd Billet, whose clutch shooting was instrumental in those three victories, went 1-for-14 from the field - including 0-for-10 from 3-point range.

After the Cavaliers pulled even at 57, Maryland used a 7-0 run to take control. Jamar Smith made one of two free throws, John Gilchrist added a pair at the line and D.J. Strawberry sank a twisting layup before McCray capped the run with two foul shots with 2:16 remaining.

Virginia closed to 64-61 before Smith made a free throw, then missed the second attempt but grabbed the rebound. McCray capped the possession by making two at the line to seal the victory.

Smith, the lone senior on Maryland's roster, had 10 points and 12 rebounds in what was likely his final home game.

Up 34-27 at halftime, the Cavaliers quickly expanded the margin to 11 points on successive baskets by J.R. Reynolds in the opening 40 seconds of the second half.

Maryland called a timeout, then went on an 8-0 run during which Virginia committed four turnovers and missed three shots. It was 40-38 before Jason Clark scored on a putback to end the Cavaliers' seven-minute run without a basket.

McCray then scored eight points in a 14-2 run that gave Maryland a 52-44 lead with 7:30 left, but Virginia got six points from Smith in a 13-5 surge that tied it with 4:29 to go.

That set the stage for another dramatic finish for the Cavaliers, whose previous three games were decided by a total of seven points.

The first half featured horrid shooting by both teams. With six minutes left, Virginia trailed 18-15 despite shooting just 19 percent (5-for-27) from the field.

The difference over the first 20 minutes was at the foul line, where the Cavaliers went 9-for-9 compared to a 4-for-9 performance by Maryland.

Game 28 · ACC Quarterfinals

Maryland 87, [15/14] Wake Forest 86

GREENSBORO, N.C. · The sixth-seeded Maryland Terrapins advanced to the ACC semifinals when John Gilchrist made one of two free throws with 3.7 seconds to lift them to an 87-86 victory over No. 15 Wake Forest.

It was the third consecutive win for Maryland (17-11) and helped the Terps avoid losing all three meetings with Wake Forest (19-9) this season.

Maryland faces North Carolina State in Saturday's semifinal - a rematch of the Terps' 70-69 victory on March 3.

Gilchrist seized his chance with the game tied at 86 with 12.9 to go.

He took the inbound pass and was deliberate in looking for his shot. But he was fouled by Taron Downey as he drove toward the basket.

He made his first free throw, Wake Forest called timeout, and Gilchrist purposely missed the second shot. The Demon Deacons scrambled for the rebound before Downey lofted up a last-second shot that didn't come close.

The game was tight from start to finish - it was tied nine times - and the Terps appeared to take control late in the second half. But the Deacons rallied behind freshman Chris Paul, who tied his career high with 30 points.

Trailing 86-81, Paul hit a 3-pointer with 42 seconds to play to make it a one possession game. Maryland turned the ball over and, after a timeout, Paul was fouled by Jamar Smith.

Paul dropped to the floor with what looked like a leg cramp, but after stretching for a second, sank both free throws to tie the game at 86 with 20 seconds to play.

That set up the final series for Gilchrist, who finished with 16 points and was 4-for-4 from 3-point range.

Travis Garrison also had 16 points and 10 rebounds for Maryland. Chris McCray and Caner-Medley added 13 each.

Jamaal Levy had 18 points for Wake Forest, and Gray was 5-of-14 from the field and finished with 14 points.

Game 29 · ACC Semifinals

Maryland 85, [17/20] NC State 82

GREENSBORO, N.C. · Gary Williams stomped and shouted his way up and down the Maryland sideline. Yet even when his team trailed by as many as 21 points, he never panicked.

Instead, he lectured his team on Maryland's rich basketball history.

The Terrapins responded with the largest comeback in Atlantic Coast ConferenceTournament history, overcoming a 19-point halftime deficit to beat No. 17 North Carolina State, 85-82 on Saturday.

"We talked at halftime about the tradition of the university... the great teams and great players," Williams said. "We have a great deal of pride on this team this year and we knew we were going to come out and play in the second half."

The charge was led by John Gilchrist, who scored 23 of his career-high 30 points to rally sixth-seeded Maryland (18-11) into Sunday's final against Duke.

It's the Terps' first championship appearance since 2000, and they'll be going for their first title since Len Bias and coach Lefty Driesell led them to the 1984 championship against the Johnny Dawkins-led Blue Devils.

Gilchrist has come up big in this tournament for the Terrapins, making the game-winning free throw in the 87-86 victory over No. 15 Wake Forest in the quarterfinals.

And he couldn't miss against North Carolina State (20-9), going 11-for-13 from the floor with five 3-pointers and seven assists.

But the best free throw shooting team in the nation at 79 percent, the Wolfpack went 17-for-22 at the line against Maryland. Hodge missed one of two with 29 seconds to play and N.C. State trailing 81-78.

Nik Caner-Medley was fouled for Maryland, made both his shots, and gave the Terps an 83-79 lead. Marcus Melvin then missed two shots for the Wolfpack. Caner-Medley eventually got the rebound and was fouled.

He made another two free throws to lock up the win as Williams pumped his fists to the standing Maryland crowd.

Ilian Evtimov scored a career-high 19 for the Wolfpack on 7-for-10 shooting. Melvin added 13.

The Wolfpack led by as many as 21 points in the first half behind Evtimov, who was 5-for-5 - including four 3-pointers - as they took a 45-26 lead into the break.

The Terrapins scored the first seven points to get N.C. State's attention, and they were just warming up. Behind Gilchrist's hot hand, Maryland made 11 of 15 shots and tied the game at 53 on Travis Garrison's basket with 12:50 left.

Game 30 • ACC Championship
Maryland 95, [5/4] Duke 87 (ot)

As the crowd chanted "Gary! Gary! Gary!" the coach climbed the ladder and cut down the net on Maryland's first Atlantic Coast Conference tournament title in 20 years after the Terrapins' 95-87 overtime victory that ended the top-seeded Blue Devils' run at five straight championships.

It was the first ACC tournament title for the sixth-seeded Terrapins (19-11) since 1984, when Len Bias and coach Lefty Driesell beat Duke. Maryland had been to just one final since then, in 2000 when the Blue Devils were in the early stages of their tournament dominance.

Duke (27-5) came into the tournament looking for its record sixth consecutive title and 15th overall. Instead, the Blue Devils took their first ACC postseason loss since 1998 - snapping a streak of 17 straight wins.

Maryland had tournament MVP John Gilchrist to thank for ending Duke's run.

The sophomore guard put together a terrific three-game stretch to help the Terps beat the Nos. 3, 2 and 1 seeds.

Gilchrist made the game-winning free throw in a quarterfinal win over No. 15 Wake Forest, he scored a career-high 30 points in a semifinal win over NC State and capped it with 26 points against Duke on 10-of-20 shooting.

His driving layup with 20 seconds to play in regulation drew the fifth foul on Duke's Shelden Williams and the ensuing free throw tied the game at 77 and ensured overtime.

Maryland, which led by as many as 11 points in the first half and trailed by 12 with 4:58 to play in the second, closed out regulation with a 15-3 run to force overtime. The Terps overcame a 19-point halftime deficit to beat N.C. State the day before.

Then Williams opened the second half with a thunderous dunk to tie the game at 38. Ewing then hit a 3 to give Duke its first lead of the game, followed by another basket by Williams and a 3-pointer by Luol Deng to put the Blue Devils up 46-42.

Redick eventually began making some shots, draining a long 3 with 5:18 to play that made it 72-62.

Then it started to click for Maryland, which held Duke without a basket for the rest of regulation and deep into overtime.

Game 31 • NCAA First Round
[19/21] Maryland 86, [rv/-] UTEP 83

Chris McCray scored 19 points, including two free throws with 13.6 seconds left, and Maryland held off Texas-El Paso 86-83 in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

Maryland (20-11), the fourth seed in the Phoenix Regional, will meet Syracuse in the second round.

John Gilchrist added 18 points and Jamar Smith 14 for the Terrapins, who feature four sophomores in their starting lineup. Maryland, the 2002 national champion, came into the NCAAs off an overtime win against Duke in the ACC tournament title game.

UTEP (24-8), the 13th seed, was led by John Tofi with 16 points and Omar Thomas with 15.

McCray's 3-point basket put Maryland up 64-53 with 12:42 remaining, but the smaller, quicker Miners battled back, using a 13-2 run to produce a 72-72 tie with 4:03 left. Filiberto Rivera had five points during the surge.

Two free throws by Thomas gave UTEP a 76-75 lead with 2:45 to go, but Gilchrist followed with a 3-pointer. After Tofi hit a layup, Gilchrist made a three-point play with 2:08 left to make it 81-78. UTEP's Chris Craig tied it moments later with a 3-pointer.

Thomas made it 84-83 with two free throws with 35 seconds left. After McCray's free throws, Craig's 3-point attempt was partially blocked.

Smith and McCray each scored nine points in the first half to lead Maryland to a 47-42 halftime lead. UTEP outshot Maryland in the half, 60 percent to 52 percent, but the Miners committed eight turnovers.

UTEP, in the tournament for the first time since 1992, hit its first three shots for a 6-3 lead. The teams traded baskets before Maryland ran off seven straight points, including five by Nik Caner-Medley, to give the Terrapins a 29-23 lead midway through the half.

Rivera's 3-pointer capped a 7-0 flurry for UTEP that made it 35-35.

Maryland then used a 9-0 run, including McCray's layup following a steal by Travis Garrison, for a 47-38 lead with 1:27 remaining.

Game 32 • NCAA Second Round
[20/24] Syracuse 72, [19/21] Maryland 70

DENVER • Syracuse is still defending its national title - barely.

Hakim Warrick and the Orangemen nearly blew a 16-point lead before hanging on to beat Maryland 72-70 in a second-round matchup between the last two NCAA champions.

Warrick had 26 points and nine rebounds for fifth-seeded Syracuse, which advanced to play Alabama in the Phoenix Regionals round of 16.

The game was just the third between the two previous national champions in NCAA tournament history, and the first since 1994 champ Arkansas beat 1993 title winner North Carolina in the 1995 semifinals.

The Orangemen (23-7) took a 54-38 lead with 13:01 left. But the Terrapins (20-12), who had won six in a row and made a surprising run to the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament title, didn't give up.

D.J. Strawberry's 3-pointer cut the deficit to 59-49 with 7:32 left, and layups by Chris McCray and Jamar Smith made it 61-54.

Smith followed with a layup and, after Forth missed two more foul shots, Maryland's Mike Jones was fouled while shooting a 3-pointer. He hit the first two free throws and missed the third, but the Terrapins' Nik Caner-Medley grabbed the rebound and Strawberry made a driving layup with 9 seconds left, cutting the lead to 71-70.

McNamara was fouled, but he made just one of two with 7.5 seconds to go. Maryland had one last chance but Strawberry missed a shot from the lane at the buzzer.

McNamara wasn't up to his first-round performance when he hit nine 3-pointers and scored 43 points in a win over Brigham Young. He didn't make his first basket, a 3-pointer of course, until early in the second half.

McNamara finished with 13 points on 2-of-11 shooting.

Garrison and Smith led Maryland with 16 points apiece.

After McNamara's first 3, Warrick scored 10 of Syracuse's next 14 points, and Pace hit a short jumper to give Syracuse its biggest lead, 54-38, but Maryland wouldn't go away.

Neither team shot well in the first half but Syracuse used runs of 10-0 and 9-0 to take a 32-22 halftime lead. Warrick had 13 points in the half.

Gary Williams with the Sears Trophy, presented annually to the NCAA Champion and No. 1 ranked team in the USA Today/ESPN coaches poll as sponsored by the NABC. Williams received the crystal trophy at a morning press conference following the national championship game, in downtown Atlanta.

No. 1 Terrapins!

Maryland has been ranked No. 2 a total of 37 times between the AP and Coaches Polls, but achieved its first and only No. 1 ranking in history on April 2, 2002 - one day after defeating Indiana for the 2002 NCAA Championship. The final AP poll was released prior to the NCAA Tournament, thus the No. 1 ranking by USA Today/ESPN remains the only poll in which Maryland has ever been ranked No. 1. The Terrapins' four losses in 2002 (Oklahoma, Duke, Arizona, NC State) were all on the road to teams ranked in the USA Today/ESPN final Top 25.

ALL-TIME RESULTS

Game-by-game results for every Maryland basketball season since 1910-11. Maryland was known as Maryland Agricultural College until 1915, and as Maryland State College from 1916-1919. Maryland's conference affiliations: Atlantic Coast Conference since 1953-54; and the Southern Conference from 1923-24 to 1952-53.

An all-college basketball team was formed in 1904-05, and played just two games. Due to a fire in 1912 which burnt the armory and college gymnasium, the team that was fielded in 1913-14 did not have a regular home, practiced only three times all season and lost 16 games. Another team was not fielded until 1918-19.

In 1918-19, Maryland State participated in the District Intercollegiate Basketball League, in which all games were played at the Washington YMCA. Another season would not be conducted until Maryland opened its new facility at The Gymnasium, inside Annapolis Hall, in 1923-24. It is considered to be the school's first "varsity" team.

Home games were played at The Gymnasium from 1923-24 to 1930-31. Home games were played at Ritchie Coliseum from 1931-32 to 1954-55. Home games from 1955-56 through 2001-02 were played at Cole Field House. Beginning in 2002-03, Maryland moved to Comcast Center.

Maryland and opponent Associated Press rankings are in brackets - AP polls began in 1948-49. From 1960-61 to 1967-68, the Associated Press ranked only the nation's top 10 teams.

ACC Tournament Fast Fact

- The only time that four players on one team scored 20 or more points in an ACC Tournament game: John Lucas (24), Owen Brown (22), Mo Howard (20) and Tom McMillen (20) scored 86 of Maryland's 105 points in the Terps' 105-85 semifinal victory over North Carolina in 1974.
- The 2004 Maryland basketball team captured the ACC Title, winning the conference tournament for the third time in history and the first time since 1984. The Terrapins defeated No. 3 seed Wake Forest (87-86), No. 2 seed NC State (85-82) and No. 1 seed Duke (95-87 (OT) to mark the third time in ACC Tournament history that a team has knocked off the top three seeds.
- John Gilchrist was named the 2004 ACC Tournament MVP, becoming the first Terrapin to earn that distinction since Len Bias in 1984. He averaged 24.0 points, 6.3 assists, 5.3 rebounds and 2.0 steals across the three ACC tourney games, including a 30-point, seven-assist, four-rebound, four-steal performance in Maryland's comeback victory over NC State in the semifinal round.

COLE FIELD HOUSE

Its official name is the "William P. Cole Jr. Student Activities Building."

That is the name that can be read on the structure that still sits between the tennis courts and the university's student union, on the main thoroughfare of the campus of the University of Maryland, College Park. It is no longer, however, the home of Maryland basketball, as it was for 47 years since December of 1955.

Everyone just called it "Cole." Like Kentucky, where the Wildcats play at "Rupp." Or in Westwood, where UCLA plays at "Pauley."

The building is Cole Field House, even though that description appears nowhere officially. The nation's only on-campus arena to play host to multiple Final Fours, it has hosted numerous NCAA tournaments for basketball, volleyball and wrestling. It also hosted a U.S. vs. China ping-pong match in 1972 before a capacity crowd in what was the first sporting event held between the two nations; it hosted U.S. Presidents and, in September 1974, it even hosted Elvis.

Besides the all-black starting five of Texas Western taking the floor against Kentucky in the national championship game of 1966, Cole Field House was also home to the first black basketball players in the ACC — Maryland's Billy Jones (1966-68) and Pete Johnson (1967-69).

In 47 seasons, Terrapin teams were 486-151 at Cole Field House. A few of Cole's most memorable basketball moments:

Cole Was A House Of Horrors For No. 1 Teams

Cole Field House bears distinction as having hosted more upsets of No. 1-ranked teams than any building in the country.

When the No. 3-ranked Terrapins dispatched top-rated Duke on Feb. 27, 2002, it was Cole Field House's seventh game in which a No. 1 ranked team has fallen.

Including NCAA Tournament games, Notre Dame's Joyce Athletics & Convocation Center has hosted six No. 1 upsets and Oklahoma's Lloyd Noble Center has been the site of five.

At Cole, Maryland has beaten the nation's top team in six of those seven games. Also at Cole, No. 3-ranked Texas Western topped No. 1 Kentucky during the 1966 Final Four.

Cole Field House dedicated at a cost of $3.3 million. Maryland defeats Virginia, 67-55, on Dec. 2 in the first game in the new facility.

1958

1965

Bill Bradley scored 41 points in the NCAA East Region championship game as Princeton topped Providence, 109-69.

1966

Cole plays host to the NCAA Final Four. In the semifinals, Kentucky defeats Duke and Texas Western (now Texas-El Paso) defeats Utah. Texas Western then defeats Kentucky in one of the most historic championship games in history.

1970

Cole plays host to the NCAA Final Four for the second time. UCLA defeats Jacksonville for the title as Sidney Wicks outduels Artis Gilmore. It was the fourth of UCLA's seven consecutive NCAA championships.

1971

Maryland defeats No. 2 South Carolina, 31-30, in one of the great "slow-down" games in the history of Cole. Leading only 4-3 at halftime, Maryland needed a lay-up from Jim O'Brien to tie the game with five seconds to go in regulation and an 11-foot jumper from O'Brien to win the game with four seconds remaining in OT.

1972

Cole is home to the National Invitation Tournament champions - the Maryland Terrapins.

The Cole Field House single-game attendance record of 15,287 was set as Maryland played host to North Carolina on Feb. 16. Maryland won 79-77 in an overtime thriller.

1975

1979

On Super Bowl Sunday, Larry Gibson sank a free throw with one second on the clock to boost the Terps past top-ranked Notre Dame, 67-66, on Jan. 27, 1979. Gibson scored 11 points that day while Ernest Graham scored 28 and Buck Williams grabbed 15 rebounds.

1984

1991

In the NCAA Eastern Regional first round, 15th-seeded Richmond defeats No. 2 seed Syracuse, 73-69, in one of the great upsets in NCAA Tournament history. It was only the second time in the history of the tournament that a No. 15 seed had defeated a No. 2 seed.

1992

On Jan. 15, 1992, No. 3 Maryland hosted No. 2 Virginia in a women's basketball shootout before a sellout crowd of 14,500. The game still stands as the ACC attendance mark for a women's game.

Maryland defeats No. 10 North Carolina, 82-80, on a last-second tip-in by All-American Walt Williams. Williams put the Terps up 81-80 with 1.3 seconds remaining to lead the Terps past the Tar Heels in Cole for only the second time since the 1982-83 season.

1994

Before a sellout crowd on March 5, Maryland defeats Virginia, 70-68, to clinch a fourth-place tie in the ACC standings and virtually assure its first NCAA Tournament bid under Gary Williams.

1995

1998

Maryland defeats No. 1 North Carolina, 89-83 in overtime, as Laron Profit scores 19 points overall and six during an overtime period. It marks the second time in three years that the Terps beat No. 1 North Carolina in Cole.

1999

Maryland sets a school record with 28 wins on the season, and the Terps host a record 14,455 fans per game at Cole. Junior sensation Steve Francis is named an All-American and later chosen as the second pick in the NBA draft.

2001

Maryland defeats Virginia 102-67 in the final game of the regular season to mark the most lopsided win ever, in the longtime series against its ACC rival. One week later, the Terps advance to their eighth straight NCAA Tournament berth and bring back to College Park the first Final Four banner in school history.

2002

Maryland defeats top-ranked Duke before a national television audience, 87-73, to take over first place in the ACC and mark the seventh time in Cole history that a No. 1 ranked team has been defeated.

Maryland beats Virginia 112-92 to win its first ACC regular season title since 1980, in what is the final game at Cole. A standing-room only crowd witnesses an emotional postgame event with returning All-Americans commemorating Cole's final game, followed by a net-cutting ceremony to celebrate the Terps' league title.

The NCAA Champion Terrapins return to Cole before a crowd of over 12,000 adoring fans, just hours after winning the first national championship in school history.

TERPS IN THE PROS

TERPS IN THE NBA DRAFT

Maryland's rising success under Gary Williams over the past 15 years has resulted in a growing number of Terrapin stars in the NBA ranks, and professionally overseas.

In the NBA specifically, the annual draft has become a barometer of Terrapin success, as Maryland has landed 15 players overall in the draft since Williams' return to College Park (an average of one per season) and eight draft picks since 1999 alone.

During Williams' 25-year career as a head coach, an incredible total of 28 players have been NBA draft choices.

In June of 2003, four-year point guard Steve Blake became the eighth Terp drafted over a five-year span with his selection in the second round by the Washington Wizards. In 2002, the Terps landed a pair of first round picks and three selections overall, as Chris Wilcox (8th, Los Angeles Clippers), Juan Dixon (17th, Washington Wizards) and Lonny Baxter (44th, Chicago Bulls) all were chosen from draft proceedings at Madison Square Garden. Wilcox, chosen eighth overall, was Maryland's first lottery pick since Steve Francis three years earlier. When Dixon was made the 17th pick of the draft, Maryland had placed two players in the first round for the first time since 1981.

Buoyed by three first and second round draft picks during the 1999 and 2002 NBA drafts, Maryland and Gary Williams have asserted themselves in recent years among the most prominent schools in developing NBA talent.

In '99, Steve Francis was chosen as the second pick of the first round, followed by second-round selections Obinna Ekezie and Laron Profit. One year later, Terence Morris was taken in the second round of the draft.

The Terps' NBA draft tally since 1999: eight draft picks, three first-round choices and two lottery selections.

What's more, Francis, the No. 2 pick in that '99 draft, went on to become the NBA's Co-Rookie of the Year. By the 2002 season, Francis was voted to the NBA All-Star Game.

Chosen on draft day by the Vancouver Grizzlies, Francis was traded in the preseason to the Houston Rockets for whom he led all NBA rookies with 6.6 steals in 1999-00, and was the second-leading rookie scorer with 18 points per game.

Had Francis been the No. 1 overall selection, Maryland would have become the first school in NBA history to have three No. 1 selections. Previously, John Lucas was the top pick by the Houston Rockets in 1976 and Joe Smith was picked first by the Golden State Warriors in 1995.

The Terps' 2002 draft windfall brought the number of all-time Maryland lottery selections to five – a number that is tied for ninth among all NCAA schools. Wilcox's selection brought the number of lottery selections at Maryland under head coach Gary Williams to four. Overall, seven Maryland players and nine overall since 1987 have played for Gary Williams and become first-round draft picks with guaranteed contracts.

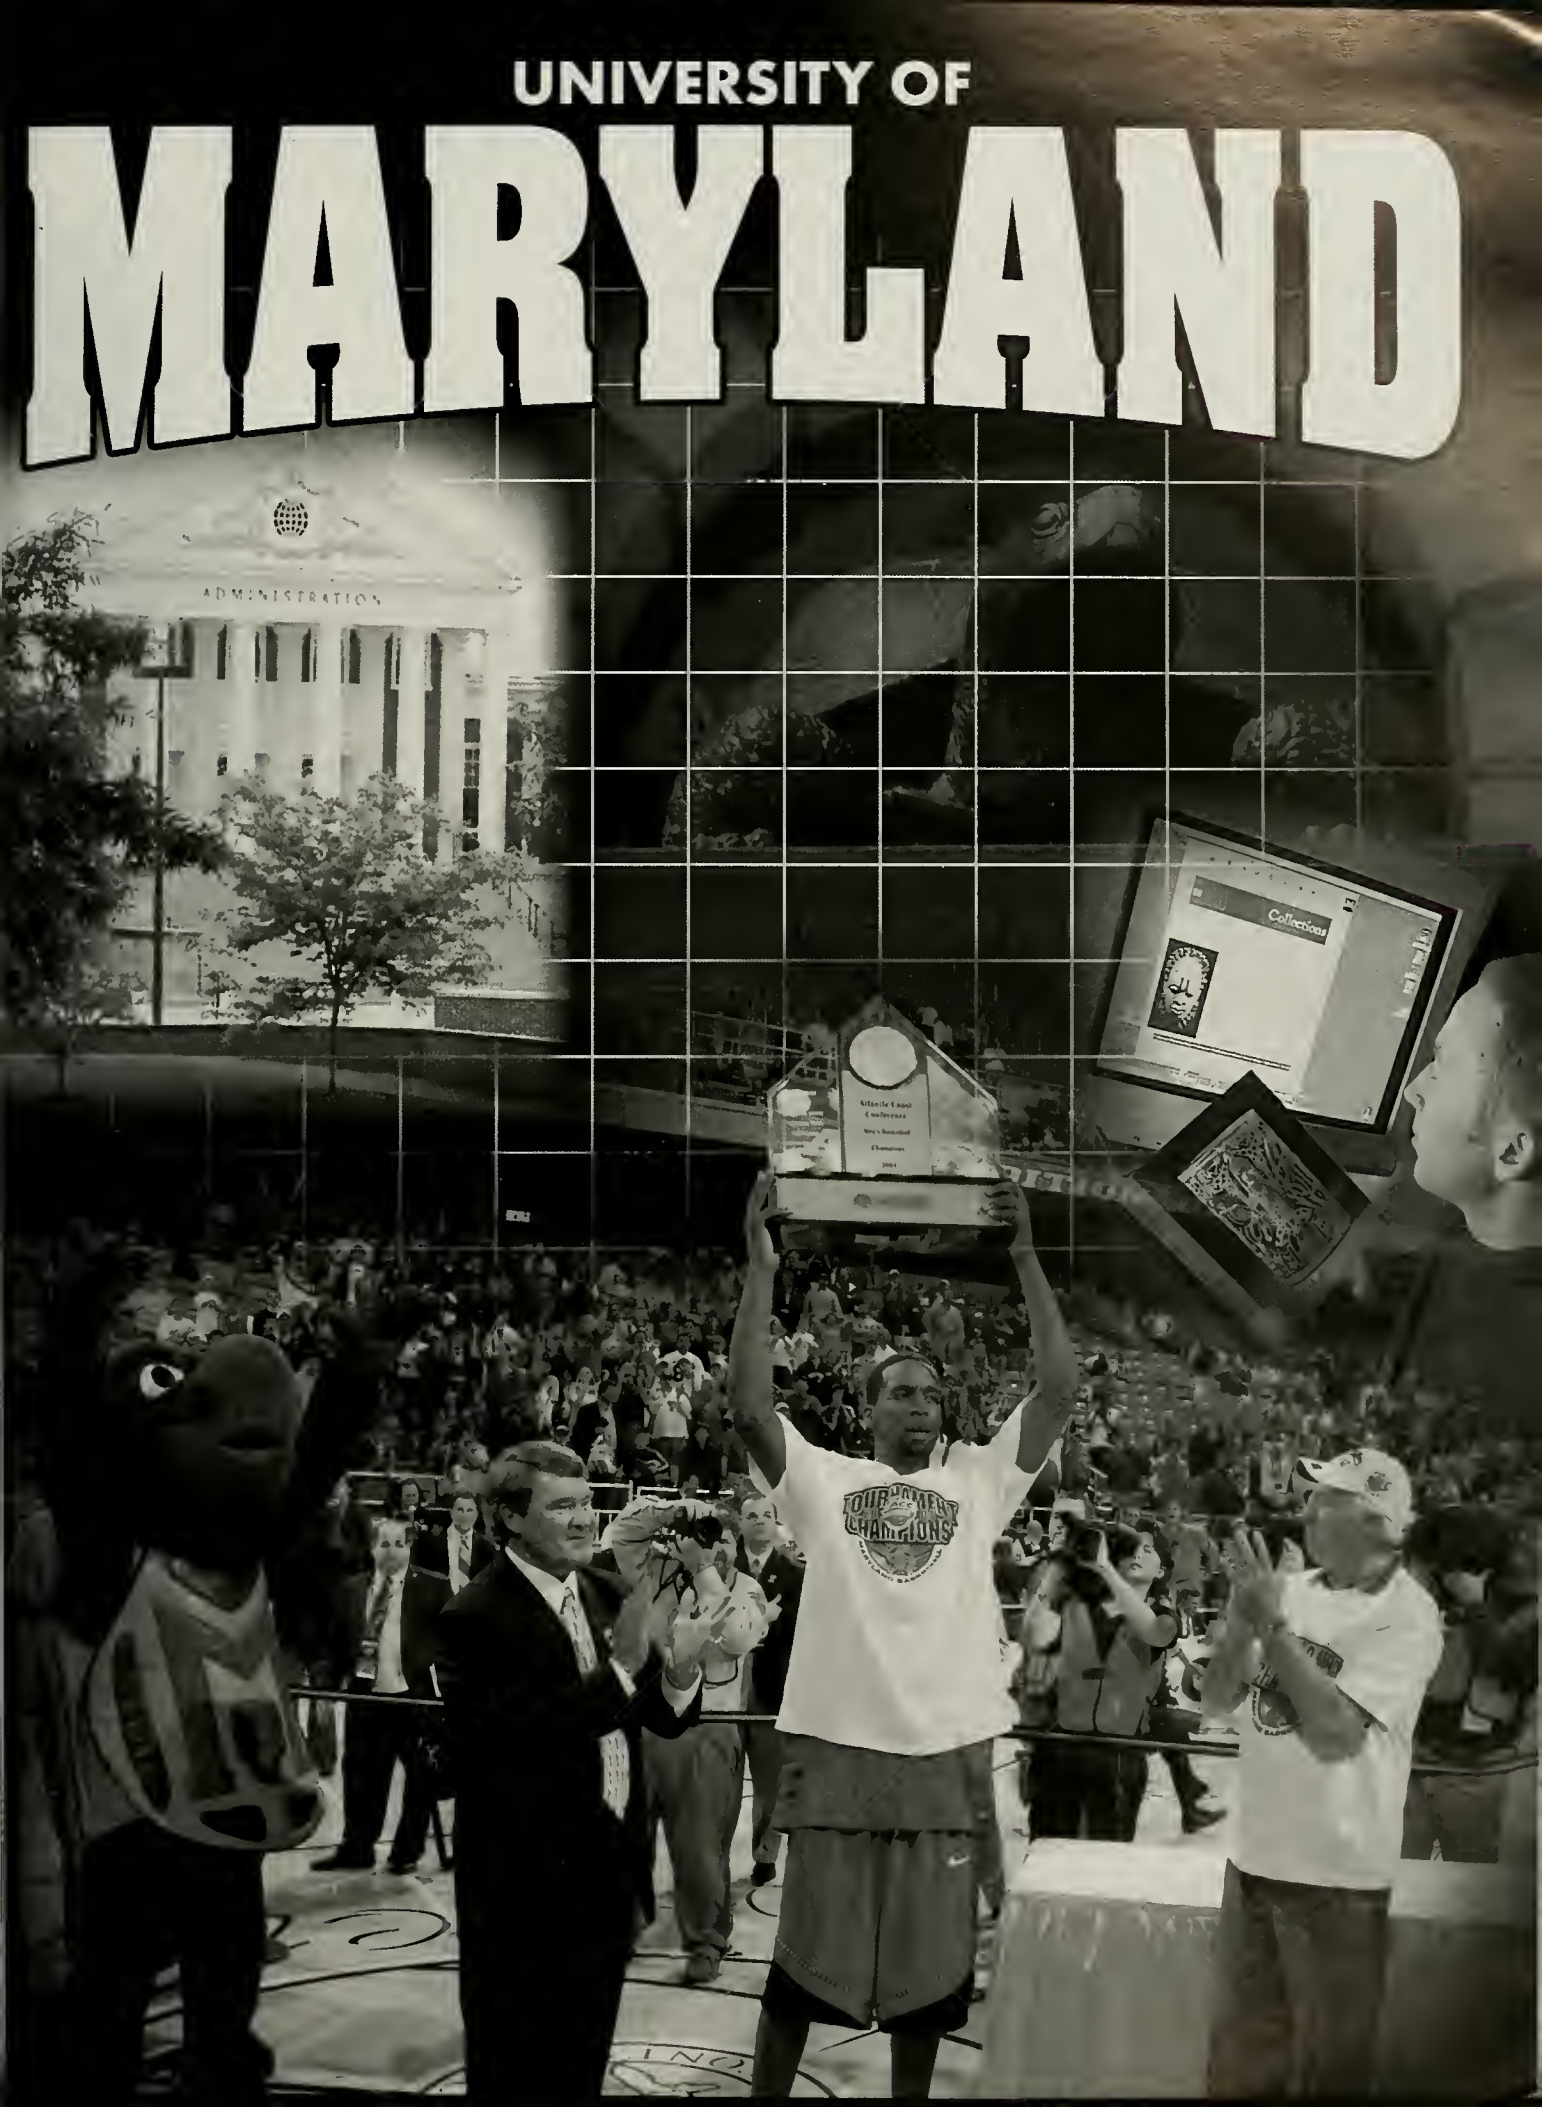
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND



MARYLAND

"STRIVE FOR CLARITY, BUT ACCEPT AND UNDERSTAND AMBIGUITY."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Thirteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions and accept ambiguity."

And we also hope you enjoy the journey.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

The Campus

By virtually every measure of quality, the University of Maryland has gained national recognition as one of the fastest-rising comprehensive research institutions in the country. The momentum of recent years has poised the university to move it into the top ranks of higher education and take leadership in shaping the research university of the 21st century.

The university has enjoyed a decade of momentum in all of the areas that affect quality. The average high school GPA of entering students has zoomed from 3.01 to nearly 3.90, and the average SATs are now more than 1270. The student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 32 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

The university has 67 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the Top 25 by U.S. News and World Report, up from just one program in 1991.

Sponsored research and outreach has nearly tripled in the same 10-year period, exceeding $350 million last year. Private giving also has increased, and the university last year concluded its first campaign by topping its $350 million goal by more than $100 million. Alumni Association membership has been growing at an average rate of 10 percent a year since 1992.

One of the largest research universities in the United States, Fall 2004 enrollment was 25,140 undergraduate and 9,793 graduate students. There are 94 undergraduate programs, 89 master's programs, 70 doctoral programs and one first professional degree program. More than 100 centers and institutes are engaged in research and outreach.

Faculty at the University of Maryland, in all fields of knowledge, are engaged at the highest levels of national and international concern. The university's location near the center of federal policy-making and international political and economic activity enables it to play an active role in research and analysis of public policy.

Maryland is one of 30 public universities in the prestigious 63-member Association of American Universities and the only public institution in the Maryland-D.C. area with membership in the nation's most distinguished honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.

Libraries

Seven libraries make up the University of Maryland library system: McKeldin (main) Library, Architecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library, Hornbake Library, Performing Arts Library and White Memorial (Chemistry) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest university research library institution in the Washington metropolitan area, providing vital resources to researchers, visiting scholars, and businesses throughout the region. The libraries' holdings include more than 2.5 million volumes, 24,000 subscriptions to periodicals and nearly 5 million items available in microfilm format.

Research

Opportunities for conducting research abound at the University of Maryland, College Park, and in the surrounding area, both for faculty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights into the classroom, and for students to begin their exploration of their unique interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number of organized research centers, bureaus and institutes promote the acquisition and analysis of new knowledge in the arts, sciences and applied fields.

The university's enviable location — just nine miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles from both Baltimore and Annapolis — enhances the research of its faculty and students by providing access to some of the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

Service

Programs of public service are central to the overall mission of the university. The philosophy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and education communities.

With more than 90 high-technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick counties, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region. Many of these programs are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technology Advancement Program and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support and access to technology that will advance their economic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has formed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghouse, BF Goodrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry problems in the fields of communications, manufacturing, controls and robotics.

The university opened the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center in 2002, with its six state-of-the art performance halls, which has quickly become a center of cultural programming in the Washington metropolitan area. The university also boasts four art galleries and a broad range of public art throughout the beautiful campus. Additionally intercollegiate, club and intramural sports provide students of all levels an opportunity to participate as spectators or athletes.

Did You Know?

In 1991, Maryland had one program listed among Top 25 entrants in the U.S. News & World Report Rankings. Maryland now has 67 programs ranked among the nation's elite, and the university is ranked 18th nationally among public universities.

A report card published in Technology Review rated the top U.S. universities in their quest for intellectual property, commercial partners and profits. Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland (28th) were the Mid-Atlantic (Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia) schools to make the "campus patenting" top 50 list.

Black Issues In Higher Education ranked the university fourth nationally in bachelor's degrees earned by African-American students at traditionally white schools. Maryland ranks first in African-American undergraduate degrees in social sciences and history.

The Wall Street Journal ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 16 among the world's business schools. Maryland is the top-ranked school in the Mid-Atlantic region (Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia). The Financial Times of London ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 8 in information technology, No. 6 in faculty research and No. 7 in entrepreneurship.

In the only undergraduate program rankings released by U.S. News & World Report-business and engineering-both the Robert H. Smith School of Business (No. 18) and A. James Clark School of Engineering (No. 24) were ranked among the top 25. The university also ranked in the top 25 for its learning communities (3rd), first-year experience (12th) and service learning programs (24th).

An economic impact study conducted by the economists with the Jacob France Center, an applied economics analysis center at the University of Baltimore, concluded that the University of Maryland generates $5.93 of economic activity for every dollar appropriated by the General Assembly, for a total statewide effect of nearly $1.8 billion.

Nobel Laureate William Phillips joined the university's physics faculty and is establishing a world-class atomic, molecular and optical physics group on campus. The Philip Merrill College of Journalism now has five Pulitzer Prize winners on its faculty. A sixth faculty member, Eugene Roberts, directed the Philadelphia Inquirer to multiple Pulitzer's as managing editor.

MORE, BETTER STUDENTS GO TO MARYLAND

There is no place better to be than the University of Maryland. As university President C.D. Mote Jr. noted in a recent Baltimore Sun front-page story, "This place is clearly on a tear."

With top-ranked academic programs (67 in the top 25, according to U.S. News and World Report), an honors program that competes with the Ivy League for top students, a prize-winning faculty (topped by a Nobel and six Pulitzers, among others), a highly diverse population, and a beautiful 1,580-acre campus located between the cultural and population centers of Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's little wonder that more of Maryland's top high school graduates choose the University of Maryland over all other Maryland colleges, public and private, combined.

In the latest U.S. News and World Report rankings, Maryland was 18th nationally among all public universities. The colleges of engineering, education, computer, mathematical and physical sciences, and information sciences are all ranked in the top 25 nationally. So are many of the individual programs in those schools and others, including criminology, journalism, public relations, counseling and others. The Robert H. Smith School of Business has been ranked among the top business schools in the world by the Wall Street Journal and the Financial Times of London.

More than 40 percent of all entering freshmen at Maryland are now enrolled in high-achieving programs like the Honors Program, Honors Humanities, College Park Scholars, Gemstone and a growing roster of living-learning communities where students with common interests in such topics as civil society and entrepreneurship can live and study together. With their wide variety of subject areas and top faculty from throughout the university, these programs compete for students with the best public and private universities in the country.

Supporting the research needs of students and faculty are some of the country's best research facilities. In 1994, the largest, most technically advanced research archives in the world — National Archives II — moved to College Park. In addition, just outside of College Park are the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institution and the National Libraries of Agriculture and Medicine, among others. The university itself has the most comprehensive library system in the area.

University President • Sixth Year at Maryland
California '51

As the 19th president of the University of Maryland, C. D. "Dan" Mote Jr. has presided since 1998 over a university that is claiming a well-earned position in the top echelon of research universities in the nation. An internationally-respected researcher and member of the National Academy of Engineering, Dr. Mote is Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He serves on the Technology Council of Maryland, is co-chair of the Potomac Conference of the Greater Washington Board of Trade and heads its Technology Transfer Committee.

Under President Mote's leadership, Maryland has received national and international notice for innovative undergraduate education opportunities, high-impact research and academic programs, outstanding performing arts, and athletes and athletic teams competitive with the best in the nation.

"The future of the state depends on this university," says Mote. "It is the State of Maryland's most important asset." As president, Dan Mote has been determined to make that asset even greater by nourishing a culture of excellence and civility across the campus, strengthening the university's connections with its various stakeholders, building partnerships with state and national corporations and federal agencies and achieving distinction as an institution where discovery takes place every day and everywhere. The university's progress can be seen in all areas, from its nationally-ranked programs to its success in building external partnerships to its state-of-the-art facilities.

Quality Programs

Over the past decade, the quality of Maryland's programs and reputation has climbed steadily. In 2003, the University of Maryland moved up to 17th place among public universities in U.S. News & World Report rankings, up from 30th in 1998. We currently have 44 graduate and undergraduate programs and units ranked in the top 15 by U.S. News & World Report, up from 5 in 1995.

While our academic successes have spread across the board, the university has emerged as a true powerhouse in business, computer science, earth sciences, engineering, environmental policy, education and journalism. Maryland is one of only 10 public and private universities that have their programs in computer science, mathematics, physics, and engineering each ranked in the top 20. Our College of Education is ranked in the top 20 nationally and 5 of its programs are in the top 10.

Faculty Stature

Dr. Mote believes a university's quality is built by its faculty, and under his leadership, Maryland continues to attract the best faculty available. The university recruited a Nobel Laureate in Physics in 2001 and three more Pulitzer Prize winners (to join three already on the faculty). More than 30 of our faculty are members of the national academies, the highest professional recognition attainable.

This past year alone, the university was among the top institutions in the nation in the number of awards flowing to our faculty: three faculty members were elected to the National Academy of Engineering; three were elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences; 10 received National Science Foundation Early Career Awards, and 6 received National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowships, more than any other institution in the nation.

Among our faculty members are the lead scientist on NASA's Project Deep Impact, which will shoot a rocket into the heart of a comet; one of the most sought-after experts on the Middle-East; the writer and two-time Emmy winner of the script for the Discovery Channel's "Walking with the Cavemen"; and the brilliant young geneticist whose research into the evolution of DNA from early Africa earned her a place among "Popular Scientist's Brilliant Ten," its list of the top ten up and coming scientists in the nation.

Talented Students

Over the past 10 years, it has become a cliché to announce that each year's new freshman class is the most talented ever. The average GPA of entering students in fall 2003 was 3.9.

Not surprisingly, the number of students enrolling in honors and other special programs has also skyrocketed in recent years. Our extremely popular living-learning programs, which bring together students with similar academic interests in a r esidential setting, were ranked 3rd in the country in the latest U.S. News & World Report. In the last academic year, over 6,000 students enrolled in such enriched curricula programs as Gemstone, College Park Scholars, and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored jointly by the Schools of Engineering and Business and widely hailed as the most successful student entrepreneurship program in the nation.

Business Partnerships

The university's reputation for excellence and entrepreneurship attracts new partners to the state. A key drawing card to bring major players into the state is the University of Maryland Enterprise Campus,"M Square," a 128-acre research park located near the College Park Metro. Tenants include a new global weather prediction center for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration and the headquarters of the Center for the Advanced Study of Languages, a joint partnership between the University and the Department of Defense.

A future tenant with extraordinary promise for economic enrichment is China, which is moving rapidly to become engaged in the global economy and seeking links to Western industry. The Ministry of Science and Technology of the People's Republic of China has established its first overseas research park in Maryland in partnership with the University. The Ministry sees this partnership as an opportunity to introduce China's emerging entrepreneurs to Western business practices and establish contacts with the state's businesses and to serve as a base for China's technology entrée to the U.S.

In order to fulfill its role as the state's most important asset, President Mote has emphasized that the university must be engaged with the business community in substantial and meaningful ways. In recent years, Maryland has assisted hundreds of Maryland businesses through its Technology Extension Program and Maryland Industrial Partnerships program, and incubated some of the state's most successful biotech firms, including Martek and Digene, in its Technology Advancement Program.

World-Class Facilities

During Mote's second year in office, the university began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities.

DEBORAH A. YOW

Athletics Director • 11th Year at Maryland

Deborah A. Yow is in the 11th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. Each year has brought about continued improvement and accomplishment in Terrapin athletics. In Yow's 10 years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable nine NCAA national championships and graduated its student athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics four years ago is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada. She was singled out by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the leading administrators in the U.S. and she received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She has served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television for 2003 through 2004. The committee, comprised of the ACC's athletics directors, is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the recent, very successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multiyear ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities. Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics." She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all 10 of the department's annual budgets (the first balanced budgets in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $43 million annually and the multi-million dollar accumulated operating debt which her administration inherited has been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student athletes at Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 10 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the dramatic upgrade of athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team has appeared in the last 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, one of only five programs to do so.
- Women's basketball also won its way to the NCAA Tournament in 2004, advancing to the Second Round.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, and followed with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004.

Yow with Maryland athletics superstars Boomer Esiason, Bonnie Bernstein and Steve Francis.

Additionally, Maryland is one of only six universities to win a National Championship in both basketball and football (UCLA, Michigan, Michigan State, Syracuse, Ohio State and Maryland).

- Maryland was selected as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- Hired the Associated Press National Coach of the Year, Brenda Frese, as the new women's basketball coach. In her second season at the helm, her team drew 13,250 to a regular-season game and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the third-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in his second year.
- Field Hockey played for the National Championship in 2001 and continues to be a Final Four team.
- Women's Lacrosse has continued its winning ways with seven national championships from 1995-2001, with additional Final Four appearances.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades.
- The Terrapins moved into the new $125 million Comcast Center, housing athletic department offices and seating for 18,000 fans for basketball and other events.
- In 2003-04, 12 Maryland teams competed in NCAA postseason play, which earned Maryland a place in the Top 25 national rankings in the USSA Directors' Cup for competitive excellence.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 10 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former coach at the University of Kentucky and University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Reflecting on the status of the Terrapin men's basketball program, Maryland's Director of Athletics points out, "Our men's basketball team has become one of America's premier collegiate programs under the leadership of Coach Gary Williams and his staff. We are one of only five institutions to advance to the NCAA postseason tournament in each of the last 11 years, and the only team in the ACC to do so."

Summing up the entire athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls"the three A's of the University —Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

Kathleen Worthington

Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director

Kathleen Worthington was named associate athletics director for internal operations in May 1999, and promoted to executive senior associate athletics director in September 2002. She came to Maryland from Morehead State University, where she had served as associate athletics director since February 1998 after spending two years as an assistant athletics director.

At Maryland, Worthington is responsible for supervision of the department's daily operations including all internal operations, academic support, media relations, facilities and events, personnel and compliance.

During her time at Morehead State, her primary focus was business operations, policy development, and strategic planning. Prior to Morehead State, Worthington spent two years as the assistant to the AD at the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse.

She earned her bachelor's degree in mass communications from the College of Notre Dame in Maryland in 1985. She earned a master's degree in public relations from Syracuse and a master's in athletics administration from Wisconsin-LaCrosse.

In April of 2004, Worthington was appointed a member of the NCAA Division I Academics, Eligibility and Compliance Cabinet. On July 1, 2004, she will begin a four-year term as member of this Cabinet. She was inducted into College of Notre Dame's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997 and in 1999 was named an NCAA Leadership Fellow. In 1996, she earned the Graduate Student Achievement Award from University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse.

Joe Hull

Senior Associate Athletics Director/ External Operations

Joe Hull is in his seventh year at the University of Maryland following 12 years in various athletic fund-raising, ticketing and marketing capacities at North Carolina State University.

Hull was promoted to senior associate athletics director for external operations in June 2002 after serving in that role on an interim basis during the previous year. At Maryland, he oversees all fund-raising efforts for the Terrapins' athletic program. During his tenure, athletic fund-raising has increased by 500 percent. Hull also oversees the men's and women's tennis teams.

Hull served as the project manager for the Comcast Center, the university's extraordinary new arena that opened in October 2002. His duties relevant to the arena process included coordinating the efforts to find a naming gift, designing and managing a capital campaign to help fund arena construction, and working with the architects, construction manager and Maryland Stadium Authority to design and build the arena. Hull also serves as the athletic department's liaison for Phases II and III of the Gossett Football Team House expansion/renovation project.

Prior to his arrival in College Park, he was associate director of the NC State Student Aid Association (Wolfpack Club), which raises more than $7 million annually for athletic scholarships from its more than 14,000 members/contributors. The Wolfpack Club also was responsible for raising more than $50 million for the construction of a 20,000-seat sports arena through a campaign designed by Hull.

Hull earned his bachelor's degree in business management from North Carolina State University in 1978 and played four years of collegiate golf for the Wolfpack while earning ACC Honor Roll status. He also earned a law degree from Campbell University in 1981 and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University in 1985.

Larry Leckonby

Senior Associate Athletics Director/ Business & Finance/Chief Financial Officer

Larry Leckonby was hired as the Chief Financial Officer for the Athletics Department in September 2002. As the department's CFO, he manages the athletic department's annual $41 million operating budget and long-range financial forecasting.

In addition, he is the sport supervisor for women's basketball and is responsible for coordinating departmental construction projects, which have included expansions to the Gossett Football Team House, new grass and field turf practice fields and the Field Hockey and Lacrosse Complex.

Leckonby came to Maryland after serving as the senior associate director of athletics at the University of Houston for five years. For Maryland, Leckonby oversees the business operations and advises on financing for facilities enhancements, while focusing on keeping the department fiscally solvent through creative revenue opportunities and various cost containment initiatives.

At Houston, Leckonby was appointed as the senior associate AD in January 1998, with responsibility for the daily administration of the department and specific areas of duty involving finance, planning, fund-raising and marketing. He also served as interim athletics director for six months in 2001 and 2002.

Prior to his arrival at Houston in January 1998, Leckonby served as the associate AD for business affairs at Boston College for four-and-a-half years (1993-98), and the assistant AD for finance and operations at Old Dominion University for five years (1988-93). He was the ticket manager and assistant business manager at Boston University from 1982 to 1988, after beginning his athletics business career at the University of Massachusetts (Amherst) where he was an administrative assistant to the business manager beginning in 1981. In addition, he has served as the assistant men's lacrosse coach at Duke University and the University of Massachusetts, as well as the head men's club lacrosse coach at Boston University.

A former lacrosse player at Duke University, he graduated with a bachelor's degree in management science in 1979. He earned a master's degree in sport management from Massachusetts in 1983. Leckonby is an active member of the College Athletic Business Managers Association. Besides serving on numerous finance and planning committees during his career, he also has helped direct several NCAA and conference championships including NCAA Baseball Super Regional events in 1999, 2000 and 2002. He also currently serves on the ACC Women's Basketball Committee.

He and his wife, Cris, have two daughters, Hunter and Katie, and a son, Liam, and reside in College Park.

Michael Lipitz

Senior Associate Athletics Director/Administration

Michael Lipitz is in his sixth year with Maryland Athletics and was promoted to senior associate athletics director in June of 2004.

Lipitz works closely with the athletics director in managing the day-to-day operations of the athletics program. He supervises the marketing and licensing unit and serves as the department's liaison to Maryland's marketing rights holder, Terrapin Sports Marketing. He also oversees the Terps wrestling and women's golf programs.

Lipitz takes a lead role in numerous internal and external initiatives, such as the launch of FridgeTV.com, online ticket distribution for the Maryland student body and the athletic department's successful recertification via the second-cycle of the NCAA Division I Athletic Certification Self-Study. He also serves as the department's liaison to Dr. Charles Wellford, Faculty Athletics Representative, the Student-Athlete Advisory Council and other campus constituencies.

Lipitz graduated from the University of Maryland with a degree in government and politics and dual concentrations in English and political leadership. He was a four-year varsity starter and two-year co-captain on the men's tennis team.

Before returning to Maryland, Lipitz earned his law degree from Villanova Law School, where he debated for the moot court team and specialized in domestic relations.

Jim Sarra

Senior Associate Athletics Director/ Compliance and Student Services

Jim Sarra was named the Terrapins' Senior Associate Athletics Director for Compliance and Student Services in the summer of 2004. He arrived at Maryland after three years as the Associate Director of Athletics for Compliance and Administrative Services at Washington State University.

Sarra serves as the athletics department's senior level manager in NCAA compliance and certification matters related to recruiting, eligibility, financial aid and rules education.

Sarra brings more than 10 years of experience in compliance and student services to the University. While at Washington State, Sarra was responsible for administering all aspects of the Cougars' compliance program, including eligibility, recruiting and financial aid.

Prior to his stint at Washington State, Sarra served as the Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance at Portland State University from 1999 to 2001. There he coordinated the athletic department's compliance program, in addition to supervising Portland's golf and tennis programs.

Before arriving at Portland State, Sarra worked in the areas of compliance and academic support at Texas Christian University, Ball State and Northwestern.

Sarra earned a bachelor's degree in elementary education in 1989 and a master's degree in advanced teacher education in 1990, both from St. Bonaventure, where he began his career in athletics as an intern and later as the coordinator of academic support services. He also has a master's degree in sport management from Western Illinois.

Sarra is married to the former Heather Lambrecht and resides in Bowie, Md.

Doug Dull

Associate Athletics Director/Media Relations

Doug Dull returned to his alma mater in June 2003 to assume the duties of associate athletics director for media relations. Dull directs the media relations staff and coordinates communications and media relations functions for all 27 sports within the department.

Before coming to Maryland, Dull spent three years as the sports information director at Kansas State University, where he was primarily responsible for the nationally ranked football and track programs.

Prior to that, he was as assistant athletics director for media relations at the University of California, Davis, and at Chico State University in northern California. A member of the Football Writers Association of America and the Track and Field Writers Association of America, Dull is also active in the College Sports Information Directors of America, having served two terms on its national board of directors and currently serving as the 1,800-member organization's second vice president.

A native of Smithsburg, Md., Dull began his career as a sports writer and sports editor at the Herald-Mail newspapers in Hagerstown. He is the recipient of a number of writing and design awards both in the newspaper and collegiate sports information realms.

A 1981 graduate of the University of Maryland, he holds a bachelor's degree in individual studies with a concentration on sports administration.

Randy Eaton

Associate Athletics Director/Business

Randy Eaton was r. ·ed Associate Athletics Director for Bu ·ness in June 2003, after three years as the Associate Athletics Director for Facilities, Operations and Special Events at the University of Houston. Eaton is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the Terrapin athletics business office.

Eaton has over 15 years of experience in ticket office and business operations in collegiate athletics, having spent time at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, East Tennessee University, Ohio State and UT-San Antonio.

While at East Tennessee, Eaton served in various capacities as Athletic Business/Ticket Manager, Associate Athletic Director for Compliance, Associate Athletics Director for Business Operations and Interim Director of Athletics. He was in charge of all components of internal operations and was accountable for all departmental budgets and oversaw event management and event staff.

Eaton was also the Director of Ticket Operations for the Ohio Glory of the World League Football, where he supervised the front office staff and was responsible for all aspects of the team's ticket operations.

Eaton earned a BBA in business administration from UT-San Antonio in 1990 and a master's of arts degree in sports administration from Ohio State in 1992.

He and his wife, Jeannette, are parents of an 18-year-old daughter, Alex, who is a freshman at Maryland.

Shawn Flynn

Shawn Flynn is in his third year as associate athletics director for internal operations. He is responsible for overseeing men's lacrosse, men's soccer, men's and women's track and field men's and women's cross country, and women's water polo.

Flynn came to Maryland in 1988 as a graduate assistant for Intramurals and Sports Clubs with Campus Recreation Services. In 1990 he was hired as the Campus Recreation Coordinator for Facilities and Sports Clubs. In that role he administered a 25-club Sport Club Program in addition to establishing a First-Aid/CPR program. In 1994 his responsibilities expanded when he was promoted to assistant director for facilities and sports clubs.

Two years later Flynn was promoted to associate director for facilities. He played an integral role in the development, opening and operation of two major facility initiatives, the Campus Recreation Center and Ritchie Coliseum. Flynn served as the department liaison with various campus departments and worked with university committees and working groups. Flynn was the event director for the 1999 and 2000 FINA United States Swimming World Cup.

In addition to his work at Campus Recreation Services, Flynn served as the site director for the Nationals Futures Tournament/Super Camp for the United States Field Hockey Association since 1996. He was also a member of the 2000 U.S. Swimming Olympic Trials event team and has assisted the Washington Regional 2012 Coalition.

Flynn earned his bachelor of arts degree in business/economics from the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown in 1988. He went on to earn a master's in kinesiology with a concentration in sport management from the University of Maryland in 1992.

Flynn and his wife Debbie have two children, Shane (9) and Matthew (5).

Dave Haglund

Associate Athletics Director/Varsity Sports

Dave Haglund is in his seventh year on the University of Maryland athletic staff and his second as associate athletics director for varsity sports. He joined the University of Maryland athletic staff in January of 1998 following a 16-year career in the sports information office at Fresno State University.

In June 2003, after 5 1/2 years as the associate athletic director for media relations, he took over as associate athletic director for varsity sports and championships coordinator. Haglund is the sport supervisor for volleyball, baseball, men's golf, gymnastics, softball and competitive cheer in addition to overseeing the sports medicine and strength and conditioning units. In addition, he coordinates ACC and NCAA championship events hosted by the university.

A 1981 graduate of Oregon State University, Haglund began his sports information career as an assistant SID at Fresno State in 1981 and was elevated to sports information director in 1996. During the course of his career at Fresno State, he served as the primary contact person for the Bulldogs' Division I football, basketball, baseball and soccer programs. He also served as information director of the California Bowl (1982-83) for two years.

Haglund and his wife, Cindy, are the parents of two children: Samantha (11) and Matthew (8).

Cheryl Harrison

Associate Athletics Director/External Operations

Cheryl Harrison, who has served in various fundraising positions since joining Maryland Athletics in June of 1996, is associate athletics director for external operations.

Harrison is responsible for overseeing units within development operations, including capital campaign and major gift fund raising, the M Club and the Walk of Fame and History.

Harrison came to Maryland in 1996 as the assistant director of major gifts. In July 1997 she was promoted to director of advancement projects and was again promoted in September 1999 to director of development for major gifts. She became the interim assistant AD for external operations in August 2001, and was named permanently to that position in July 2002. Since her arrival at Maryland, capital campaign gifts have increased by over 300 percent. Harrison planned and implemented campaigns to provide funding to capital projects including the Comcast Center and the expansion and renovation of the Gossett Football Team House. She managed day-to-day activities of the Building Partners Campaign for the Comcast Center that surpassed its $20 million goal. Harrison is the fund raising coordinator for the Fear the Turtle Campaign, the department's effort to raise $1.2 million in scholarship funds for the eight men's teams that do not have full scholarship funding. Harrison also supervises Terrapin Club travel and event arrangements for post-season games.

Harrison graduated from Winston-Salem State University in 1982 with a bachelor of arts in business administration with a concentration in information systems

Troy Tucker

Associate Athletics Director/Administration

Troy Tucker is in his first year at Maryland as an Associate Athletics Director after spending the last five years as a Director of Athletics at Herkimer County Community College.

During his tenure at Herkimer from 1999-2004, Tucker operated the 21-sport, nationally competitive program with a balanced budget. He also oversaw the renovations of nine different facilities. Under Tucker's direction, Herkimer earned three-consecutive top-10 finishes in the Region III Director's Cup and finished 2003-04 ranked fifth among junior college athletic programs in the nation by NATYCAA Pepsi Cup. Three teams won five NJCAA National Championships and four won 13 regional titles. His teams also earned eight NJCAA Academic Team of the Year awards with the women's swimming & diving squad garnering the honor three times.

Prior to his tenure at Herkimer, Tucker was the Director of Athletics at D'Youville College in Buffalo, N.Y., from 1996-99. While there, he headed the expansion of the athletics program from three to 11 teams and was named National Athletic Director of the Year in 1998. At his arrival, Tucker oversaw the department's move to NCAA Division III status.

While serving as Director of Athletics at Herkimer, Tucker was also the head men's basketball coach for four seasons before becoming an Associate Dean in his final year. During the 2000-01 campaign, he was named Coach of the Year after his squad qualified for the Region III Championship for the first time in seven years, winning its first-round game.

A native of Scio, N.Y., Tucker began his collegiate career as an administrator at Jamestown-Olean Community College where he served from 1992-96. During his time there, he helped initiate the college's athletic programs and was also the Jaguars' head men's basketball coach for a year.

Tucker is a 1991 graduate of Geneseo where he earned a bachelor of science in business. In 1992, he earned his master's from Springfield in athletics administration. Tucker and his wife, Rhonda, have a son, Griffin, and a daughter, Haley.

Darryl Conway

Assistant Athletics Director/Sports Medicine

Darryl Conway was hired in June 2004 as Maryland's assistant athletics director for sports medicine after spending three years as the head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida. Conway will oversee all medical and athletic training operations for the Terrapins' 27 varsity athletic programs.

Conway, who has been an athletic trainer at both the collegiate and professional levels, comes to the Terrapins after serving as head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida for three years. There he was the head trainer for the Golden Knight football squad, while supervising the assistant trainers, graduate assistants and student assistants who provide training coverage of Central Florida's 17 varsity sports. At UCF, Conway was responsible for overseeing the compilation and input of daily medical records, the computerized injury surveillance program and the NCAA injury surveillance system. He served as a clinical instructor/field experience supervisor for athletic training students, assisted in the development of marketing and fundraising projects for the sports medicine department and served as the site coordinator for the NCAA drug testing program at UCF.

Prior to his position at Central Florida, Conway served as the Director of Sports Medicine at the University of Northern Iowa, working as the head trainer for the Panthers' football and men's basketball teams from 1999 to 2001. He was the head athletic trainer at Morgan State University in Baltimore for one season and was an assistant trainer and professor at Delaware, his alma mater, for two years. From 1993 to 1996, Conway was an assistant trainer with the NFL's New York Jets.

Conway earned a bachelor's degree in physical education studies, magna cum laude, from the University of Delaware in 1993, before receiving a master's degree in physical education and a certificate in sports management from Adelphi University two years later.

Conway has taught numerous collegiate courses related to athletic training, has made numerous presentations and has co-authored several scholarly publications and book chapters. He has been a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) since 1989, and is also a member of the United States Weightlifting Federation.

Conway and his wife, Tracy, have a son, Michael.

Jonathan Evans

Assistant Athletics Director/Annual Fund

Jonathan Evans was named assistant athletics director for the annual fund in June 2004. Evans came to Maryland after serving as the Assistant Athletics Director for Development at Bucknell University since February 2003. He had also served as Assistant Athletics Director for Ticket Operations and Donor Relations and in several other capacities at the University of California, at Berkeley from 1998 to 2003.

Evans oversees the identification and solicitation of prospects to increase membership in the Terrapin Club from its current base of 8,000 members. He will also facilitate the annual charitable contributions from individuals and corporations to achieve annual fund goals.

While at Bucknell, Evans helped facilitate an increase in giving by 35 percent during his year-long stint. He solicited gifts for annual, capital and endowment purposes, worked with the Bison Club Board and served as a liaison between university relations and athletics.

Prior to his position at Bucknell, Evans spent five years at Cal, serving in several capacities that involved intercollegiate athletics development and ticket operations. While at Berkeley, Evans was part of a team that increased annual giving by 31 percent while completing a $36 million capital campaign.

Evans earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Humboldt State University in Arcata, Calif., before receiving a master's degree in sport management from Appalachian State University.

Anton Goff

Assistant Athletics Director/ Academic Support & Career Development

Anton Goff was named assistant athletics director for the Terrapins' Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) in June 2004. Goff, who served as an ASCDU assistant director from 1998 to 2001, returned to Maryland after four years as the Associate Director of Student-Athlete Support Services at Michigan State.

Goff is responsible for leading the Terps' academic support unit in providing quality developmental programs and need-based services that enhance academic progress, facilitate career development and encourage the psychosocial growth of all student-athletes.

While at Michigan State, Goff served as the academic coordinator for the Spartan football team, where he was responsible for tracking the student-athletes' classroom efforts and monitoring progress toward their degrees in compliance with NCAA and Big Ten regulations. Goff was responsible for overseeing the tutoring programs and study table at MSU and coordinated a faculty/staff mentorship program. Goff supervised four full-time academic counselors/learning specialists, graduate students and several undergraduate tutors.

Prior to his tenure at MSU, Goff provided academic support for Maryland men's basketball, men's and women's track, men's and women's soccer and softball programs from 1998 to 2001. During his first stint in College Park, Goff was instrumental in the development of the Terrapin Student-Athlete Handbook and the implementation of educational programs concerning alcohol and drug abuse, academic integrity, gender violence and human diversity.

Goff earned a bachelor's degree in the administration of justice from Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond in 1991, before receiving a master's degree in the same discipline from VCU two years later.

Chris Nations

Assistant Athletics Director/Facilities & Operations

Chris Nations was named the assistant athletics director for facilities in June 2003 after serving three years as the Director of Athletic Facilities & Operations at Arizona State University in Tempe, Ariz.

Nations is in charge of overseeing Maryland's vast athletic complexes, including Byrd Stadium and the Comcast Center, as well as fields for lacrosse and field hockey and football practice which opened in the fall of 2003. He also has responsibilities revolving around the expansion of the Gossett Team House and the renovation of the Varsity Team House.

Prior to his stint at Arizona State, Nations worked as the director of athletic facilities and operations at Santa Clara University in California from 1997-2000 and the assistant to the athletics director at Indiana State University from 1994-1997, while attending graduate school.

Greg Schiller

Assistant Athletics Director/Ticket Operations

Greg Schiller was promoted to assistant athletics director for ticket operations in January 2003, after working as the Terrapins' associate ticket manager since 1999. Schiller oversees all phases of advance and game-day ticket sales, and works closely with the athletic marketing office in the design of ticket sales campaigns, brochures and advertisements. He has also assisted in major hardware and software advancements in the ticket office within the past year.

Prior to joining the University of Maryland staff four years ago, Schiller served as the assistant ticket manager at Miami (Fla.) from 1996-99. He also worked in various intern positions from 1993-96 with Miami (Fla.), the Richmond Braves and Texas at Austin.

Schiller received his bachelor's degree in mass communications from Miami University of Ohio in 1993.

Kevin Glover

Director of Character Education

A name that will be familiar to Terp and local NFL fans alike, Kevin Glover is in his first season with the Terrapins as the school's first-ever Director of Character Education.

As it relates to the Maryland football program, Glover will a liaison between the team and the National Football League, taking care of all dealings regarding scouts and agents. He will also, however, serve the university's other varsity sports programs, helping provide developmental programs and appropriate speakers on topics of interest to each team and their growth, collectively and individually.

A first team All-American (The Sporting News) at Maryland in 1984 and a member of the Maryland Athletics Hall of Fame, Glover was a second-round selection of the Detroit Lions in 1985. He anchored a line that helped Barry Sanders to 2,053 yards in 1997 and ultimately saw Glover earn three trips to the Pro Bowl. He was his team's NFL Player Association Representative for six seasons and was ultimately elected to serve on that organization's Executive Committee for two years.

An active speaker in local youth and church organizations, Glover and his wife, Cestaine, reside in Columbia, Md., and have three children: Maya, Matthew and Zaria.

Dr. Charles Wellford

Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. Charles F. Wellford, professor and chair of the Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice, is in his ninth year as the University of Maryland's faculty athletics representative. In this role, he represents the University of Maryland and its faculty in the institution's relationships with the NCAA and Atlantic Coast Conference. Dr. Wellford also serves as director of the Maryland Justice Analysis Center.

He served as president of the Atlantic Coast Conference for the 1999-2000 academic year, and has chaired the University of Maryland's Athletic Council since 1995-96. He previously served on the Athletic Council from 1986-89 and 1992-95.

At the University of Maryland, Dr. Wellford has been involved in a variety of leadership roles. He was interim associate provost for research and for continuing education. He is chair of the law and justice committee at the National Academy of Sciences.

He serves on numerous state and federal advisory boards and commissions, and is a past (1995-96) president of the American Society of Criminology (ASC).

Dr. Wellford received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Maryland and his Ph.D. from the University of Pennsylvania.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT & CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

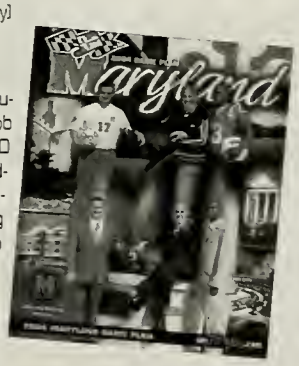
Led by assistant athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Hajj Turner (right) works with the men's basketball team.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for six professional academic counselors, a director of ILP programs, an assistant program coordinator and two graduate assistants. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house last Fall. It features offices for two counselors, three learning specialist, and a graduate assistant; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EOCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EOCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

Maryland Gameplan



The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

Career Networking Night

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume- writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

Student-Athlete Advisory Council

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success (C.H.A.M.P.S.) Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs Commitment Statements

Commitment to Academic Excellence To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

Academic Support For Returning Athletes Program

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's Sports Medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's Director of Athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools."

Dr. Brian Crites

Head Team Physician/Orthopaedic Surgeon
Second Year at Maryland

Dr. Crites is in his second year as team physician. He is a graduate of Indiana University School of Medicine. Dr. Crites completed his residency in orthopaedic surgery at Duke University Medical Center and his sports medicine fellowship at University of Maryland Medical Center.

Dr. Crites is an assistant professor in the department of orthopaedic surgery at University of Maryland School of Medicine. In addition to his duties at Maryland, he is also the head team physician for the Baltimore Bayhawks professional lacrosse team and an orthopaedic consultant for the Baltimore Ravens and Coppin State University. A two-year starter on the football team at Hanover College, Dr. Crites earned four varsity letters and was team captain. He and his wife, Susan, are the parents of Ted (7) and Audrey (4).

Dr. Yvette Rooks

Fifth Year at Maryland

Dr. Yvette Rooks is in her fifth year as a primary care physician for Maryland's program. Dr. Rooks graduated from the Upstate Medical School/Health Science Center in Syracuse, N.Y., in 1993. She completed her residency in family medicine and a sports medicine fellowship at the University of Maryland, Baltimore. She currently is an assistant professor in the Department of Family Medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine. Dr. Rooks also serves as a team physician at Coppin State.

She graduated with honors from the State University of New York at Albany where she was a four-year starter on the volleyball team.

Sandy Worth

Head Athletic Trainer
30th Year at Maryland
Maryland '73

Sandy Worth, who has been affiliated with Maryland's athletic program since 1973, coordinates and directs the medical care for the Terps' football program in addition to her responsibilities as the university's head athletic trainer.

A native of Timonium, Md., Worth supervises and schedules a professional staff of six full-time assistants and approximately 25 student trainers who combine to provide medical assistance to the university's more than 750 student-athletes. Worth, a 1973 graduate of Maryland, joined the Terps' staff that same year as an associate trainer. She was promoted to head trainer in 1992.

During her career at Maryland, Worth has worked directly with five teams that have captured national championships – four in women's lacrosse and one in field hockey. In addition, she was the trainer for the women's basketball program when it won eight ACC titles and advanced to three NCAA Final Fours.

Student Health Center

Dr. Sacared Bodison, Dr. Stephen Fahey, Dr. John Lucas and Dr. Janice Ragland are four full-time University Health Center physicians who specialize in sports medicine. Dr. Bodison is the assistant director for medical services at the Health Center and has been involved with the care of student-athletes since 1982. Dr. Fahey is an emergency physician who is in his 16th year working with the Terrapins. Dr. John Lucas, a family practice physician, is in his fourth year of affiliation with the university's athletic teams. All three doctors are available to treat student-athletes daily on an as-needed basis in the Health Center.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

In the highly competitive world of collegiate basketball, the off-court preparation of the basketball athlete is a critical component in the on-court success of any Division I program. Craig Fitzgerald, Maryland's strength and conditioning coach for men's basketball, believes strongly that a solid off-court training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development and, in turn, has resulted in great success on the basketball court.

Craig Fitzgerald

Fitzgerald's philosophy consists of allowing the players to gain strength, speed and change of direction capabilities through drills that are basketball oriented. He believes that the team must be prepared to run and play the up-tempo style of basketball that is Gary Williams' trademark. Fitzgerald trains the team so that it will be able to play up to Williams' style.

The Terps' new state-of-the-art weight room at Comcast Center.

The members of the men's basketball team have the use of a fully-equipped weight training facility located down the hall from the men's basketball office and the team's locker room in Comcast Center. The conveniently located 4,000 sqare foot facility features a combination of Sorinex weight training equipment and York free weight equipment. The strength staff utilizes this facility specifically during the season as basketball team members are personally trained before, during and after the season.

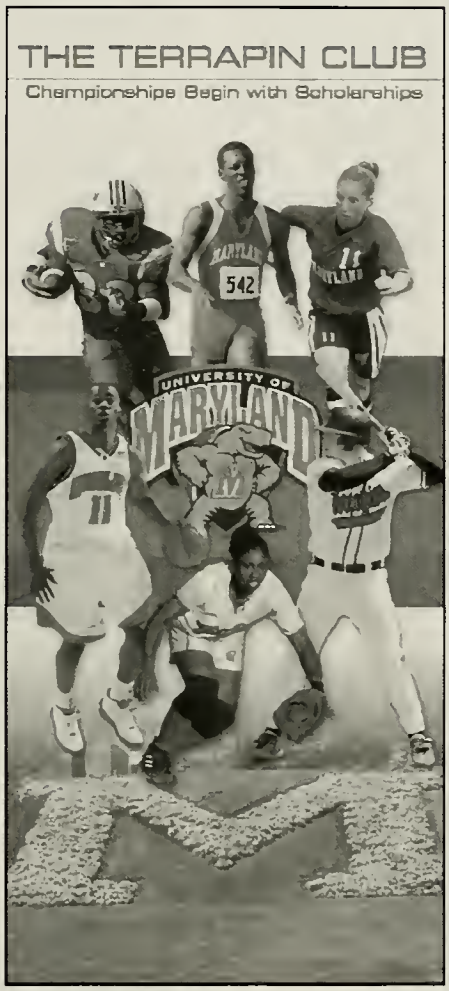
TERRAPIN CLUB

Championships Begin With Scholarships

Athletic excellence is a tradition at the University of Maryland—a tradition alumni and friends alike want to see continue and flourish. That's why we are inviting you to be a member of the Maryland Athletics Family by joining the Terrapin Club. Whether you are an alumnus of the University of Maryland or a friend interesting in supporting the state's flagship campus, belonging to the Terrapin Club enables you to:

- Provide annual scholarship support for our student-athletes who will contribute to the community
- Share our vision to fully scholarship all sports to best represent the University
- Take pride in the achievement of athletic excellence
- Participate in the camaraderie and fellowship unique to Terrapin Club members
- Receive a tax deduction for your financial contribution for scholarships
- Enjoy access to great benefits including priority seating in Byrd Stadium for football and Comcast Center for basketball, priority parking and tickets to other events
- Access your own personal member page within the Terrapin Club web site, to review your account

Your donation is a vital part of our strategic plan. At Maryland, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics operates without significant University funding and receives no state appropriations or tax dollars for operational expenses. Sanctioned by the University of Maryland College Park Foundation, 100% of the funds raised through the Terrapin Club are managed by the Foundation for the exclusive use of Maryland Athletics. Your contribution directly supports an annual student-athlete scholarship cost of over $7 million and Terrapin Club and department expenses. The Terrapin Club provides scholarship support to many of the 700 student-athletes who compete on 27 varsity team representing the University of Maryland.



Getting Involved

Direct Gifts are the most common way of contributing. They are made in the form of cash, stock, checks or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover). For your convenience, a personal checking account can be debited a set amount every month.

In many cases, corporate matching gifts may be used to make your Terrapin Club contribution. Please contact your employer to see if you are eligible for a matching gift program.

MAJOR GIFTS FUNDRAISING

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to providing its student-athletes the resources they need to excel athletically and academically. It also strives to provide fans an exciting game day environment in which to enjoy the exhilaration of collegiate athletics. The Athletics Major Gifts staff works with Terrapin Club members, alumni and friends to raise funds for facility construction or renovation projects, and endowments for scholarships and programs.

The Gossett Football Team House campaign began in 2002 as an effort to provide Maryland Football with the necessary tools to compete annually for conference and national championships. Funds raised through this vital campaign have helped make significant improvements to the football facilities and fields. Three main areas were either refurbished or newly constructed, adding over 20,000 square feet to the team house. The Foxman Family Academic Support Unit was completed in the fall of 2002 with over 35 computer work stations, as well as private tutoring and counseling areas and large group study areas. The Erik B. Young and Family Dining Hall was completed in winter 2004. The Young Dining Hall serves as the training table for football and other teams, and provides invaluable space for hosting recruits and their families. The Lowell and Harriet Glazer Family Auditorium and the new entrance and the Howard and Stanley Bender Lobby are scheduled for completion by fall 2004. The Glazer Auditorium will have space sufficient for the entire football team and coaching staff to meet together as a group to prepare for competition. The new entrance and the Bender Lobby, as well as the Hall of Fame area, will present Maryland Football and its past glories in a truly exceptional way.

The renovations to the Gossett Football Team House are making a positive and strong impression to prospective players, the team, alumni and visitors about the seriousness we place on football at Maryland. These continuing facility upgrades are crucial in order to compete with the top colleges and universities in the country for the best student-athletes, as well as making Maryland Football a source of pride for alumni and fans alike.

You can have your name permanently associated with the excitement of Maryland Football by making a gift to the Gossett Football Team House campaign. Naming opportunities exist for gifts beginning at $2,000 for chairs in the Glazer Auditorium, $5,000 for player lockers in the team locker room and beginning at $25,000 for other rooms and areas in the team house. Gifts to the Gossett Football Team House campaign are managed by the University of Maryland College Park Foundation.

To obtain information on the Gossett Football Team House campaign or other Athletics fund raising opportunities, contact the Athletics Major Gifts Office at (301) 314-7020, or toll free at (800) 653-7667, or by email at terrapinclub@umd.edu.

THE M CLUB

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest and most respected letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,500 former Maryland varsity athletes and a leader in the National Letter Winners Association.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for all the varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships and to cultivate networking, social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund, support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts and provide for career development initiatives. Members receive information about the current teams and news about former teammates through a monthly electronic newsletter and a quarterly printed newsletter.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible, though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization.

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call David Diehl at (301) 314-5372 or Dotti Warren at (301) 314-7020, or visit our website at www.themclub.org.

TERRAPIN RADIO NETWORK

All of Maryland's games will be broadcast live on the Terrapin Sports Network, which boasts one of the strongest coverage areas in collegiate sports. Terrapin Sports Marketing, a division of Viacom Sports Marketing, manages the Terrapin Sports Network in College Park. In its third year as the multi-media marketing rights partner for University of Maryland athletics, Terrapin Sports Marketing is building a stronger network that will provide coverage in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey and Washington, D.C.

Maryland's broadcasts will be accessible on the Internet via the Terps' official athletics website, www.umterps.com.

Johnny Holliday

Play-By-Play

Johnny Holliday, now in his 26th year as "Voice of the Terps," is considered one of the finest play-by-play announcers in the country. In addition to calling the action for the Maryland basketball and football teams, Holliday hosts the Gary Williams and Ralph Friedgen television shows. As the Terps' director of broadcasting, he also handles a myriad of speaking duties within the athletics department, ranging from banquets to golf outings.

His long list of credits includes being heard coast to coast weekday mornings on the ABC radio network, XM Satellite and Sirius, ABC's coverage of the 2000 and 1996 Summer Olympics and the Winter and Summer Olympics in 1984, 1988 and 1994. In addition, he has covered championship boxing, the Masters, and the Liberty and Aloha bowls.

For Maryland alone, Holliday has broadcast more than 1,500 Terp basketball and football games, including 10 Sweet Sixteens, two Final Fours and the Terps' national championship game in 2002.

Holliday's announcing career allows him to lay claim as Washington's most versatile broadcaster, and among the best nationally. Whether it be in radio, where he was named America's No. 1 disc jockey during his rock 'n roll D.J. days, to his public address duties with the Cleveland Browns, Oakland Raiders, and Golden State Warriors, to his work in Washington television for the Senators and Bullets, Holliday makes a complicated business look easy. In September of 2002, Holliday released his autobiography, From Rock to Jock, reflecting on his career as a D.J. and his transition into sports broadcasting.

He brings a great deal of ease to the Maryland coaches' television shows on Comcast SportsNet, the region's premier sports channel. Holliday is among the pioneer broadcasters for the sport of women's basketball, earning a Distinguished Service Award from ACC women's basketball officials for his work on that league's women's basketball telecasts. Additionally, Holliday was named one of the top 16 radio announcers for college basketball by ESPN's Dick Vitale, and was inducted into the Radio Broadcasters Hall of Fame in Akron, Ohio, in the fall of 2003.

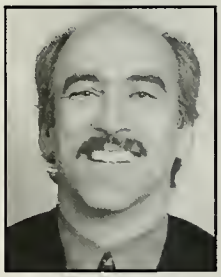
A native of Miami, Fla., Holliday began his broadcasting career in Perry, Ga., and through the years has worked in four of the nation's prime radio markets: Cleveland, New York, San Francisco and Washington. At one time, he was recognized as America's No. 1 disc jockey. In addition to his broadcasting accomplishments, he also has been extremely successful raising money for charity. Washingtonian magazine honored him as a Washingtonian of the Year for his many civic activities. His basketball and softball teams, the Radio Wonders, have raised more than $1 million for charity. He is involved in Ronald McDonald House charities, Special Olympics, Catholic Charities, Operation Smile, and the Boy Scouts of America. He has served as television host for the Easter Seals, Muscular Dystrophy, March of Dimes and Leukemia telethons. In October 2003, he will be inducted into the Radio-Television Broadcasters Hall of Fame.

In 1998, he was honored by the Greater Washington, D.C. Chapter of Operation Smile with its 1998 Smile Award for his outstanding service to the community. In 1995, he was the recipient of the University of Maryland M Club Distinguished Citizen Award. He earned the Touchdown Club Award for outstanding achievement in sports broadcasting in 1991, and was the recipient of the Maryland basketball service award in 1999. He is an honorary member of the university's chapter of Omicron Delta Kappa and the university's Alumni Association.

Holliday and his wife, Mary Claire, are the proud parents of three daughters: Kellie, a physician who resides in Bel Air, Md., with her husband Steve, who also is a physician; Tracie, a neo-natal nurse at Shady Grove Hospital who resides in Potomac, Md., with her husband Chris, an attorney; and newlywed Moira, who works for Discovery International Television and resides with her husband, Bob, who works for Bonneville Broadcasting.

Chris Knoche

Color Analyst



Chris Knoche, a former player and head coach at American University who has worked in radio and television for the past six years, is in his sixth season as the color analyst for the Terp men's basketball radio broadcasts.

Knoche spent 17 seasons at American, playing the 1979-80 and '80-81 seasons under current Terp coach Gary Williams before moving into an assistant coaching position and later serving seven seasons (1991-97) as the Eagles' head coach.

Prior to joining Maryland's broadcast crew, he worked 40-50 games each of the previous two seasons as a color commentator, including stints on the Ivy League Game of the Week on Westwood One/CBS Radio and Ivy League Game of the Week for DirecTV and for HDTV. He has also worked telecasts for ESPN and CSN, in addition to doing radio and television analysis for George Mason University games. Currently he makes regular guest appearances on the highly rated "The Sports Reporters" on Sportstalk 980 in Washington, D.C.

"Chris Knoche brings an outstanding background as a player, coach and fan to our basketball broadcasts," said Williams, the Terps' 16th-year head coach. "Being able to work with Johnny Holliday, Chris provides the opportunity for Maryland fans to listen to someone who has very good experience as a color commentator. More important, he is someone who has a great feel for the game of basketball. I have known Chris as a player and a coach for more than 20 years. He has been an exciting addition to our basketball program."

Credentials

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the University of Maryland Athletics Media Relations Office. Issuance of credentials may be based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.

2. Daily newspapers regularly covering the University of Maryland, the current-game opponent or another Atlantic Coast Conference school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.

3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration for credentials.

5. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.

Other Guidelines

• Season media credentials are issued to those outlets which cover Maryland Athletics on a regular basis. They do not guarantee working space in media work areas.

• With the exception of Terrapin beat reporters covering the team on a daily basis and producing daily reports, all passes are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis.

• Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.

• Due to limited space and to ensure compliance with NCAA guidelines, no credentials will be issued to "freelance" writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.

• The University of Maryland and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets."

• Credentials are issued to web sites that are affiliated with national or regional media organizations, e.g. USA Today.com, ESPN.com, CBS SportsLine, etc., for web sites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools or non-conference opponents, or for the Atlantic Coast Conference office.

• Web sites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions. If a news-gathering medium has an online site that sponsors these anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under their traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio or television), but will not be granted additional passes or access for online staff.

• All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable, and no credentials will be issued to those under the age of 18.

Credential Requests

Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors on official letterhead no later than five days prior to an event. They should be sent to the Athletic Media Relations Office, University of Maryland, 2725 Comcast Center, College Park, MD 20741-0295. They may also be faxed to 301-314-9094. No credential requests will be accepted via e-mail or by phone.

Game Day Press Parking

Parking is located to the north of Comcast Center - in lots P1 and P2. Media parking is best accessed from the University Drive (Rt. 193) entrance to campus at Paint Branch Drive. Access to the media parking area is parking pass only, and is available on a limited basis.

For lots P1 and P2, after entering campus on Paint Branch Drive, take the first right at Terrapin Trail, and proceed approximately 100 yards to the media parking area on the right.

Photography Regulations

All photographers and camera operators must remain seated in baseline photo areas, as per NCAA regulations. Locations will be assigned for more crowded games. Photographer and videographer positions are at the complete and absolute discretion of the basketball game officials and the Maryland media relations office at all times, without exception.

The NCAA has established a policy to control congestion in photography areas. Priority shall be given, in all instances, to photographers and videographers on assignment. Only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) shall have access to courtside photo areas.

Strobe lights may be installed in Comcast Center, but arrangements must be made through the media relations office two weeks in advance. Space for strobe lights is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Press Seating and Media Work Room

The courtside press area and work room both are at the northeast corner of the arena. Both are available for working media only.

Working space in the press area of Comcast Center is limited and seats are expressly reserved for those working on deadline, with no exceptions. Children and other non-workers are not allowed in the press area.

Located on the court level of Comcast Center, the work room is directly across from the men's basketball locker room and directly behind the courtside press area. They are connected by the tunnel area adjacent to the loading dock and service entrance on the arena's northeast corner.

A limited number of long distance phone lines are available in the work room on a first-come, first-served basis, and require a credit card for billing. Dedicated phone lines in the courtside press area are available by placing an advance order with Scott Sargent, Asst. Director of Operations and Facilities, at 301-314-9729.

The work room opens well before game time and media representatives are welcome upon arrival at the arena. A pregame food service is served buffet style. A halftime beverage service is also available. The pregame buffet is available one hour before tipoff.

Telephones

Six complimentary phone lines are available in the Comcast Center press work room, as dictated by ACC policy (calling card or reverse charges required). Additional requests for dedicated lines, either for the work room or courtside, should be directed to Scott Sargent, Asst. Director of Operations and Facilities, at 301-314-9729. List Mark Fratto as the contact for all installations.

Postgame Press Conference

The Maryland locker room is open to credentialed media for a brief period after Coach Williams concludes his comments to the media. The visiting team's locker room access policy is determined by officials of that school.

Postgame Statistics

A statistics packet including running play-by-play, first half and final box scores, and postgame notes and home and visitor head coach quotes, are compiled for each game and made available to the media at press row and in the media work room.

E-Mail Services

In-Season Interview Policies

Maryland players and head coach Gary Williams will be available for interviews with accredited members of the media throughout the season. All interview requests must be made through the media relations office, contacting Mark Fratto. Please give 24 hours notice.

Players' individual phone numbers will not be given to the media. Players will not be available for live call-in radio shows.

Weekly Teleconference

Beginning on Dec. 6, resuming January 10 and continuing each Monday through the end of the season, the Atlantic Coast Conference will conduct a weekly telephone press conference featuring all nine league coaches, beginning at 11 a.m.

Each coach will be available to furnish comments and take questions for 10 minutes, beginning with Wake Forest head coach Skip Prosser and continuing in reverse-alphabetical order by school. Gary Williams is available from noon to 12:10.

The weekly press conference can be accessed by calling 913-981-5507. There will be an instant replay of each teleconference on the Conference's internet site TheACC.com each Monday afternoon. Please contact Barb Oery at the ACC office (336-851-6062) for further information.

Teleconference Schedule:

MARYLAND BASKETBALL
WORLD CLASS

Rome

Venice

The ACC Champion Maryland men's basketball team got an early start to their preseason when they took a five-game, 12-day tour of Italy from August 17-28, 2004. The tour gave the Terrapins an opportunity to play against some of Europe's premier professional teams, while allowing the Maryland players to experience the culture and environment of the old country.

The Terps posted wins over a pair of Italian professional squads, and a landslide victory over Kiev (Ukraine), one of the most famous professional teams in the world. Maryland's average margin of victory was +13.0 points per game, and the Terps averaged 98.6 points per outing. Ultimately the Terps' trip was not about wins or losses, stats or personal accolades. The Terrapins had the tremendous offseason opportunity to bond as a team, all while exploring some of Europe's most ancient cities and most influential cultural centers. It was an experience – for the team, the staff, and the fans – that will not be soon forgotten.
